ALLEGANY NEWS.

The writer saw fit to make a trip on the west fork last Thursday. Perhaps The Times' readers would like to know about it.

We were given the slowest farm horse for the ride. We had scarcely started when we met Mr. Rodine and Mrs. Witheit.

By the time we had reached the Gould logging camp we considered ourselves tired and stopped to visit the cook, Miss Mary Frier.

After riding about a mile farther we met Mr. Rhoades, who was limping along. Upon inquiry we learned that Mr. Rhoades and his team came to some disagreement about hauling a load over the Devil's Elbow.

At Tom Parker's ranch Mr. Porter and sister Maud were picking apples. They had housed two hundred and thirty boxes and were not near the end of picking.

Mr. Bremer is a little ahead, having his potatoes all dug and nearly through apple picking. He has taken the contract to pack apples for F. S. Dow on West Fork.

Mr. Fotten and family who moved on a ranch at the end of the county road, are making a very comfortable home among the alders.

We had some experience trying to manipulate the ferry near the Bremer ranch. The ferry is a scow fastened to a cable and worked by ropes.

John Michelbrink and wife were visiting Mr. Michelbrank's mother, Mrs. Bremer, for a week. They also visited Mr. F. Noah's family.

A large engine came up last week for one of the logging camps and began the trip over the mountains Monday.

Mrs. Thurman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas, and other friends for a few weeks.

Boxers Killed One.

Shanghai, Oct. 1.—Outbreaks of Boxerism, the details of which were received today from Kang'ow'chu province says: The building captured was a mission, and a China inland mission was destroyed.
