FIFTY MILES AN HOUR IN AIRSHIP

German Inventor Building New Model That Will Be Speedy.

Berlin, Oct. 9.—An uninterrupted aerial voyage of sixteen hours and over, in a stretch of between 500 and 700 miles, is the goal German aeronauts have for themselves, as the result of new plans announced by Count Zeppelin. Airship experts in Berlin who are aware of the count's projects believe that the result indicated will be reached on the occasion of the inventor's next experiments.

Count Zeppelin is now working on a new model, with larger and improved steering apparatus and more powerful motors. While he discourages extravagant claims, his admirers say that, under ordinary atmospheric conditions, his airship can obtain a speed of fifty miles an hour. The fact has been determined that the balloon during its recent flight, when it had weaker motors, reached a speed of thirty miles an hour, and, eight hours' flight had a sufficient supply of benzine on hand to warrant the expectation that it could have remained up as long again.

From His Home Town.

(Humbolt Beacon).

Sunday, September 28th, saw the end of the life of Sanford Richmond, one of Salmon Creek's old settlers which happened in Marshfield, Oregon.

Several weeks ago he left the county for an overland trip to Astoria and word had been expected of his safe arrival north. When the message came it was the dark news of his death with no particulars, though it is surmised that an old kidney trouble was largely responsible for it.

The body is to be returned to Eureka for interment.

Sanford Richmond was born in Tazewell county, Illinois, 63 years ago. Raised on the home farm he moved soon after his marriage to the coal district of the state and there worked in the mines until he came west to Los Angeles county in 1875. In 1876 he came to Humbolt and settled in the Salmon Creek section.

Work in the woods, on his place and on the railroad has occupied him until the recent years.

Mrs. Richmond has her home Salmon Creek.

The following 11 children survive him: Rev. George M. Richmond of Oakland, W. M. Richmond of Eureka, Mrs. Belle McGowan of Eureka, Mrs. H. P. Monroe of Fortuna, Charles Richmond of Hanford, Cal., Wallace P. Richmond of Fortuna, Mrs. C. Schotterbeck of San Francisco, Roy Richmond of Layton, Cal., Fred, Robert and Archie of Salmon Creek.

New House Under Way.

J. P. Morris has his seven room house at Plat B well under way and hopes to have it ready for occupancy within a month.

Can't Stand His Children.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 10.—Antone Winter sent to Germany for his wife, but warned her not to bring the couple's six children. Winter met his wife at Milwaukee, and when he found the children he fled to Seattle. Later he sent a second invitation to his wife to come west unaccompanied but she persisted in bringing the children. Tonight Mrs. Winter went to the police and explained the circumstances and declared that when she appeared in Seattle with the half dozen kinder trailing behind her, Winter set upon the entire party and beat them up.

Will Enter Into Business.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 10.—William Loeb, Jr., secretary to the president, accompanied by United States Senator Thomas H. Carter and Harry W. Child, president of the Yellowstone Park Transportation company, has left Helena for the Yellowstone section, where the party will spend one month in hunting bears and fishing.

It is understood that Mr. Loeb informed friends while in Helena that he would leave the public service the first of the year to accept the presidency of a large eastern corporation. The corporation is believed to be the Washington, D. C., Railway & Electric company.

As She Heard It.

A fashionable woman had a bit of statuary bearing the inscription "Kismet." A housemaid dusting the room asked the mistress.

"Shure, ma'am, what's the m'ain'n' of the writin' on the bottom of this?"

"Oh, you mean 'Kismet.' It means 'fate.'"

Bridget was limping painfully when out with her sweetheart not long afterward and apologetically explained, "Faith, I have the most terrible corns on me Kismet."—Ladies' Home Journal.

What to Do When You Drop an Egg.

At a breakfast party in England which Joseph H. Choate attended while he was American ambassador a young lady at his right accidentally spilled the contents of her plate.

"Oh, Mr. Choate," she exclaimed, "I don't know what to do, for I've dropped an egg on the floor!"

"If I were you I'd cackle."

A Matter of Doctors.

"There were two sisters living in Michigan," said Senator Burrows, "who warred constantly about the two great schools of medicine. One pinned her faith to allopathy and the other to homeopathy.

"One day there was great excitement in the family of the lady who believed in allopathy, and it was soon announced that she was the mother of bouncing twin boys.

"The other sister came down in a hurry. 'Well,' she said, 'now see what's happened. I wanted you to have a homeopathic doctor. After this I guess you will listen to me.'"
