

For $10.00 Down and $6.00 per Month you can Have a Piano in Your Home and Never Miss the Money.

We have to do it to get acquainted and place a few instruments in the homes and convince the people of Coos County that we not only sell them on easier terms, but also sell them better Pianos and cheaper than they can buy them anywhere else. We have decided to sell a certain number of Pianos now in stock at factory prices, plus the freight, and on easy payments.

You Can't Afford to Miss This Opportunity

If you are anticipating the purchase of a Piano within two years you should investigate. Where is there another city of this size in the United States where you can get your choice of so many high grade Pianos as we carry in our store right here in Marshfield, such as Chickering & Son, Weber, Hardman, Hobart M. Cable, Kimball, Marshall & Wendell, Price & Teeple and other good makes, at prices and terms, too, to meet the convenience of anybody? It will pay you to come in and get our prices.

Don't Wait - - Do It Today

We carry a large stock of Victor and Columbia talking Machines and always have the latest Records on hand. Spare the time to give us a call and be convinced that our goods and prices are right, and that we are here to stay and to give you value for your money.

Taylor Piano House, Broadway, Marshfield

The infant daughter of Mrs. J. Mills is very ill with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Anselmo, of Beaver Hill, is spending a few days in this city with friends.

Mr. Hacker, of Coquille, has returned from a six months' business trip to California.

Born—On Friday, October 25th, to Mrs. Matt Anderson, of South Marshfield, a daughter.

Miss Bell McGuy, of Portland, left for that city yesterday after a few weeks' visit on Coos Bay.

Mr. William Blee, of San Francisco, is spending a few weeks in this city with relatives and friends.

Miss Lawrence, of San Francisco, is visiting in Marshfield for a few weeks with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Cooper returned to this city on the Breakwater from Portland yesterday after having spent a few weeks in that city with relatives and attending to business affairs.

Mr. R. B. Count, of Portland, is a city visitor for some time. During his stay in this city he will visit with friends and later on will see the Coquille country and river towns.

Miss Annie Johansson has returned to this city after an extended trip through Europe and the east. During her absence Miss Johansson visited with relatives in Germany.

Mr. Paulson, the Coquille lumber merchant, is a city visitor for a few days. Mr. Paulson remarked that he had come to Coos Bay to see how the second Chicago was getting along.

Mr. O. D. McLain, of Los Angeles, is on Coos Bay looking over the country in prospect of locating here. If conditions are satisfactory Mr. McLain will reside here permanently and later on will bring his family here.

Mrs. A. H. Hogans brought in a beautiful bouquet of assorted flowers yesterday to the Chamber of Commerce, where they are now on display. The bouquet was greatly appreciated by the secretary and the many people passing.

Miss E. A. Dolby, of San Francisco, is visiting in this city for a few weeks. Incidentally Miss Dolby will visit friends at Bandon and Coquille, leaving at the end of her visit for Portland, where she will enter a hospital and train for a nurse.

Misses Stella and Florence Brown left this city yesterday after an extended visit on Coos Bay and surrounding country, for their home in Denver. The Misses Brown will remain in that city until the holidays and then return to Marshfield for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. W. P. Smith, of Portland, has leased the famous "La Bon Vivant" restaurant and started a good eating house. It will be called the "Melrose" after a restaurant of that name run by Mr. Smith on Alder street in Portland. He has a thorough knowledge of the business and the start already augurs success.

Mrs. Lyman Noble returned to this city yesterday after having been absent two months on an extended trip through Oregon and California. Mrs. Noble visited for some time in Portland with friends, and from there went overland to San Francisco, where she remained until Wednesday returning then to this city on the M. F. Plant.

While playing with her brother yesterday, little Jessie Cottell received a bad injury from a hatchet in the hands of the boy. The ring finger was cut almost off, and hung by a small shred of skin, and the second joint of the second finger was dislocated. The injury was dressed and the severed finger will be saved to the child.

Miss Howlett, who will start on the Breakwater with the body of her mother enroute to the east where the corpse will be interred, is a woman who deserves a great deal of credit for her faithfulness to her mother. Miss Howlett came here seventeen years ago to care for the deceased who was then thought to be near death. But she lingered. Miss Howlett had been preparing to become a bride when she left the east on her errand of fealty to home ties, and departed with the usual vows of constancy on both sides. But the wedding never came off, and the romance of her life is now a memory.

Three or four months ago, Mr. D. Bogart came to this city on a business tour, and before leaving his home his mother requested him to find out if a family by the name of Campbell lived on Coos Bay, as she had a brother by that name living somewhere in southern Oregon. At that time Alec Campbell happened to be absent from Marshfield so little was found out. Mr. Bogart left this city, continuing his work, and not until a few days ago had not returned to Coos Bay. Upon his return to this city, Mr. Bolt, the hot air merchant, informed Mr. Bogart that Mr. Campbell was now in Marshfield, which pleased the gentleman so greatly that he immediately began making inquiries in regard to Mr. Campbell's whereabouts. A few moments later Mr. Bolt met Mr. Campbell and gave him some desired information which set Alec hunting for the cousin he had never seen. The last thing known by the reporter was a hearty clasp of hands and words of welcome.

"SWELL HEAD" SAY EXETER STUDENTS

Young Teddy Got Well Bumped in College Football Game.

Exeter, N. H., Oct. 24.—That Exeter academy made a deliberate attempt to do up Theodore Roosevelt Jr. in the game with Harvard's second eleven is now generally admitted, that the original reason was that he had a "swell head" on account of too much newspaper notoriety.

Direct evidence of this comes from one of the best known men in New Hampshire, who has a son there. His son said to him:

"Father, young Roosevelt is going to play here with the Harvard second eleven on Saturday. If he does, they are going to do him up."

"Is that so? Why?" asked the parent.

"He has got a swelled head. He is getting altogether too much newspaper notoriety."

When Saturday came Young Roosevelt played, and when the tangle, which lasted a good many seconds, was unwound, Roosevelt limped slowly to the side lines, and there he had to be taken care of.

—Prentiss & Co. are closing out their lines of clothing for men, women and children at heavy reductions.

Gas Machinery Coming. Four cars of gas machinery for the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company will arrive on the Breakwater next trip. The machinery makes nearly the entire consignment for the gas plant now being erected at Porter.

—A. H. Eddy has been busy since coming to town. New cottage designs.

The "Yale" Avoid "Common," "Ordinary" Clothes

IN most Young Men's Clothes the same common, ordinary look is always evident. They're unattractive.

—Not so with the "Yale."

It's refreshing to see a young fellow dressed in this Ederheimer-Stein suit, the newest, neatest, most distinctive style of the season.

There's better tailoring, better style, better fabrics; a garment that represents our high standard as merchants; one that indicates good judgment and good taste on the part of the wearer.
