

RICH KANSAN GETS MONEY FROM WUMAN

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 28.—Sylvester Harrison, a note character of Southern Kansas, is missing from the city and charges have been made against him in the Sedgwick county court by Mrs. Katie Cathers, in which she alleges that he has with him $10,000 of her money, secured from her in what she says was a clever real estate swindle. Harrison is a rich retired farmer, inheriting more than $50,000 from his wife. He drew out of the local banks something like $20,000 and with the $10,000 drawn out of the National Commerce Bank on a check signed by Mrs. Cathers, he left the city. Charles Carrey, cashier of the National Commerce Bank, saw Harrison place the $10,000 in currency in a grip. At the Fourth National Bank he drew $2,500, placing it in the grip also. Three other banks report similar drafts from them, the money being placed in the grip. The telegraph and telephone wires are being used in every direction in order to get trace of Harrison. He stated to a local newspaper man that he had a scheme to clean up $10,000 besides the charge of embezzlement of the $10,000 from Mrs. Cathers, Harrison is also charged with passing spurious checks aggregating more than $1000.

The accused was shot through the head at Bonesteel, S. D., during the land opening at that place, and since that time has been tried for insanity, but found sane. In these proceedings his only son was taken from his care by order of the probate judge.

JEFFRIES IS OFFERED THOUSAND EACH WEEK

Los Angeles, Oct. 28.—The champion high price in local theatricals was made by Oliver Morosco's offer yesterday of $1,000 a week to James J. Jeffries, on condition that the champion appear in a brief revival of "Quo Vadis." Morosco proposed to give the piece a good cast and assign Jeffries to the role of "Ursus," the giant slave who, in a spectacular conflict, rescues the Christian maid from the horns of a bull in the arena of the Coliseum. The fighter said that on account of his business he will not accept.

Western Union Opens Offices.
Chicago, Oct. 28.—The Western Union, for the first time since the strike of the telegraph operators, reopened a number of branch offices in this city. Within the past two days, 29 operators have returned to work in this city and 26 in St. Louis.

SHEEP DYING IN EASTERN OREGON

Some Sheeppmen Say Poison Weed—Others Say Dry Feed Does It.

Pendleton, Ore., Oct. 28.—As a result of the long dry spell and the resulting lack of succulent food sheep are dying all over eastern Oregon. Thus far the losses of individual growers have not been heavy, but almost all of those whose sheep have been placed on winter ranges have suffered some.

It appears the loss has been heaviest in Morrow and Gilliam counties. Umattilla growers have lost some. At Arlington, Smythe & Son have lost in the neighborhood of 200 head, and William Smith, another large grower of that section has met with a similar loss. Several are losing at the rate of 10 a day.

The sheep men vary in opinion regarding the cause of the deaths, some believing that the sheep are being poisoned, and others that the change to the dry grass after being brought in from the green mountain grass is harmful.

Under the rules of the forestry bureau the sheep must be taken from the summer range in the reserves by October 18, and as a result the sheep were brought in early in October. Since then they have been dying slowly in various localities. The sheeppmen say a good rain would relieve the situation.

—On Wednesday we will offer some decided bargains in Shirts, Don't fail to see them. Ladies' Emporium.

Petty Thieving at Flagstaff.

Mrs. C. E. Potter, of Flagstaff, who was in the city yesterday, told of an unusual number of petty thefts which have occurred in that neighborhood. Mrs. Potter is treasurer of the Sunday School, and somebody stole two dollars from her the other day while she was absent from the house. Several people have lost money, and one man lost a valuable watch. Mrs. Potter believes she knows who is doing the work and says a vigilant watch is being kept for the offender. Likely the next time he tries to search out something valuable he will be apprehended in the act and brought before the officers of the law.

BOY CAUSES ARREST OF FATHER FOR WIFE BEATING

Oakland, Oct. 28.—John Gillespie, a fifteen-year-old boy, today swore to a complaint charging his father with wife beating. The boy declared in the police court, where he went in search of somebody who could issue the warrant, that his father was in the habit of coming home intoxicated and attacking the members of his family.

NOTES OF OREGON'S CONSTANT PROGRESS

(Special Correspondence.)
Portland, Ore., Oct. 28.—Business men returning from the East are unanimous in predicting an enormous immigration to Oregon during the coming year. People residing in the great cities of New York, Chicago, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburg, Cincinnati and other populous centers never expressed so much anxiety to hear about this country as at present and the same idea is reflected through the correspondence of the Portland Commercial Club, much of which is originating in the cities named above.

Judge John M. Scott, of Salem, president of the State Good Roads Association, is conducting an active campaign in behalf of the Good Roads Meeting to be held in the rooms of the Portland Commercial Club November 14 and 15. Judge Scott desires that every commercial, industrial, agricultural, horticultural, and irrigation organization in the state to send delegates.

President Ed. T. Judd, of the Oregon State Dairy Association, reports constantly increasing interest in the big state meetings to be held in Portland December 12th and 13th. Constant additions are being made to the prizes, and an active committee is at work. It is desired above everything else that the farmers be present on this occasion.

Oregon never received a stronger endorsement than the following from the pen of Professor Charles Curtis, of the Ames, Iowa, Agricultural College:

"There is nowhere on the face of the globe a land or people so dominant in the improvement of live stock or so potent in the production of the highest types of domestic animals as the British Islands. There is nowhere on the American continent a region affording conditions so closely allied to those of Great Britain as on the North Pacific Coast of the United States. The similarity is noticeable, not only in climatic conditions and natural environment, but also in the genuine enthusiasm and deep-seated faith in the industry possessed by the tillers of the soil."

The Eugene Commercial Club has employed Mr. John H. Hartog, of California, to take charge of their publicity campaign at a salary of $5000 a year. Mr. Hartog will be an important factor in the development of Oregon, for California has never developed a brighter man in the advertising line.

The exhibit of samples of the Iron ore from Columbia county is promised at the Portland Commercial Club this week. The development of all in Western Idaho and Eastern Oregon is bringing absolutely new capital and new people that no other industry would have attracted.

Escaped Drowning.
The four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mills had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday at noon. He was on the water front and somebody induced him to get into a row boat. He landed in the bay, but clung with one arm to the boat. Several people around the premises did not have presence of mind to rescue the little fellow, but three boys came to his aid, George Davenport, Albert Dawson and James Barnett, and got him safely out. He was none the worse for his ducking and was not frightened.

Chance for a Big Race.

William Gamble was in Marshfield yesterday looking for a pig, which may be a hog by this time. The animal was a pig in September when Mr. Gamble brought it here for the greased pig race at the time of the Labor Day celebration. The race was postponed that day, as there was no pig when the race was called. The managers of the celebration said Gamble did not bring the pig, but he convinced them of his loyalty by showing them the box from which somebody had freed the pig. Since then the animal has been roaming about the outskirts of the city and has frightened a number of people, men and women, who have often been startled in the night time by coming across the porcine unexpectedly. There is no reward for his capture, but since he is an est-ay, the small boys could make a stake by having a pig race and capturing it.

Card of Thanks.
—Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Mauzey and family take this method of expressing their profound thanks to the many friends who were so kind and sympathetic during the illness and at the time of the death of their son Basil, especially do they remember and appreciate those who sent flowers and the choir which rendered music at the funeral.

Alfred Farley Declares That No Other Person Shall Head His Church.

Boston, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy is to have no successor as the head of the Christian Science church, according to a statement issued by Alfred Farley, the spokesman for the church. The statement reads:

"In the first place the well preserved condition of Mrs. Eddy, as recently discovered by the public, makes the question of a successor very much out of time. Christian Science is already discovered and established and the Christian Science church shall never have any other personal leader."
