RANDON NOTES

Bandon, Nov. 2 .- J. S. Lawrence, days on business and visiting friends.

The Bandon left for Coos Bay with for San Francisco.

The Halloween masque ball, given his home at the former place. in the Bank hall by the Ladies' Art club, was a big success. The costumes were especially fine. A large crowd for October show a total of 2,635,000 was lovely except that spectators 164 tons manufactured broomhanand a few of the more timorous ones woolen goods and 50 tons miscellaneobjected to the flourishing of fire- ous goods shipped out, and 550 tons arms by characters representing cowboys, clowns and burglars.
