Man Who Was Associated With Kline Confesses and Says Matter Was Deliberate Trap.

Goldfield, Nev., Nov. 7 .-- V. L. Kline, who was shot and fatally injured while in the act of stealing amaigam at the Virginia reduction works last night, is dying with a bullet in his brain, although he is clinging to life tenaclously. The sheriff today arrested Ralph S. Gipple, who was with Kline at the time of the attempted robbery. Tonight Gipple broke down and confessed to the story of attempted robbery, G:pple, in his confession, accuses the night watchman of the mill, a man named Jones, with having deliberately en'rapped Kline and himself into taking amalgam off the plates. He says Jones showed them where the plates were, and while they were at work some one cried "Hands op." He does not know whether Kline 10 sisted, but that he (Gipple) .an when he heard the command and succeeded in making his escape. He ran home and waited for Kline, in hopes he had also escaped. Ktine, came here from Bellingham about 18 months ago and opened a large jewelry and hardware store. It is reported he recently paid $40,000 for a residence at Los Angeles. Gipple came here from New York, his antocedents being unknown.

Beltingham, Nov. 7 .- V. L. & Lac is well known here, having lived here for nine years. For some time he conducted a jewelry store here. Kline's mother, sister and brother live here. When Kline left Bellingham he disposed of all his interests

PROTESTS THE ACTION OF NEW YORK BANKS

Senator Heyburn Says No Further Aid Should Be Extended Until West Is Settled With.

Washington, Nov. 7 .- A protest was made to President Roosevelt, by Senator Heyburn of Idaho, today, against the further deposit of Government money with New York banks until these institutions consent to pay the reserves of Western banks in cash instead of cashiers' checks. Continuing, Senator Heyburn's protest says: "The tying up of many millions of dollars or Western money representing reserves of Western banks held by New York banks must inevitably result in empowering New York banks to determine the time and conditions of free resumption of banking functions by Western banks, whereas, if the reserves of Western banks could be converted into available money at once, the financial situation of the West would be free from domination on the part of the East, and the West would become a valuable ally of the East in restoring desirable financial conditions rather than remain as at present a fellow sufferer.

DAUGHTER WRITES

Mr. P. A. Devers, of the Securities Investment Company, who does considerable advertising in Eastern papers, has received a request for information concerning a missing man. His advertisement appeared among other papers, in the Butte Miner, and a young woman wrote him from there respecting information about her father who started for Coos Bay in June. The missing man is John J. Dunseth, and the young woman wrote that he had started for Coos Bay sometime in June, but they had never heard anything from him since he left. He had been engaged in insurance and real estate business when in Butte. He is a man of dark complexion, weighing about 180 pounds, 57 years of age, and with gray hair. The daughter's letter is freighted with sorrow, and she tells that she is by reason of the father's absence left as the sole support of an invalid mother. Inquiry in Marshfield develops nothing regarding such a man, and it is probable he did not come to Coos Bay.

COLONIST RATES WILL NOT BE DISCONTINUED

Railroads Refuse to Abandon Cheap Tickets for Home Seekers.

Chicago, Nov. 7 .- At a meeting in Chicago yesterday, representatives of the larger railways systems agreed not to abandon the home-seekers' excursions to the west. Since the in many of the western states there has been talk of discontinuing the rate. For three days the general passenger agents of the larger systems have been in conference here considering the question. There was a minority of the opinion that the rate should be wiped out and regular tariff charged to all. Representatives of the Union, Burlington, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Northwestern and Rock Island said that under no circumstances would they agree to abandon these rates, as they had resulted in building the west.

It was agreed, however, that the home-seekers' rates be slightly advanced after January 1. The maximum advance will be $5 on each round-trip ticket. To illustrate, the round-trip, home-seekers' fare, Chicago to Texas and other southwestern states, will go from $25 to $30; to Wichita, Kan., from $20.65 to jury than the skin, can grow again. $22.65, and to Denver from $25 to $32.15. It is planned to advance the $33 one-way California rates in the spring to $38.

The result of the poll was 352 affirmatives and 21 negatives, so the rule will be continued.

President Compbell Holds Up the Ideal of College Sport.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 7 .- "Studies and training rules" were the themes of addresses to the football squad last Friday aight by President Campbell, of the iniversity, and Coach Frost. he football men were called together for the talk after supper.

President Campbell spoke at length of the new rulings of the faculty, which compel all students taking part in any student activity to be in good standing or to drop the activity until the work is up to grade. Statistics showed that the average work of the members of the football team was higher than the average of all the students, which shows that the football men do somehing else than play foo will. President Campbell gave his personal observations at Harvard ween the irst Larvard gym of any a te was opened. He said the colleg- life in general was greatly benefited by TO FIND FATHER athletics, and the standard of morility at the institution was raised. He congratulated the members of the second team on their loyalty for coming out every night and being beaten about by the varsity. Coach Frost and Mr. Campbell both said that the training rules are to be adhered to strictly by all squad men. as well as first team men. This means no more theaters or parties until after Thanksgiving.

No Mail Yesterday. The daily mail failed to put in an appearance yesterday, and upon inquiry of agents of the stage line it was learned the wagon had broken down near the summit of the mountains. The consequent repairs and the delay following put the country out to the excent of being without mail for the full day. But an extra day's consignment should come in this morning with the other, and thus make us all happy again.

HOW WE ARE FORMED.

A Faw of the Many Marvels of the Human Body.

On an average man's body there are 340,000 hairs. Plucking one every second it would take him twelve eighthour working days to pull them all out. In his blood there are 25,000,000,000,000 red corpuscies. Laid out side by side they would cover a surface of 3,130 square yards.

The whole of the blood passes through a man's heart nearly twice in every passage of the two-cent fare laws minute. It weighs one-thirteenth of the entire body weight, and it moves in different parts of the body at speeds varying from ten feet to 1,606 yards (nearly one mile) an hour.

The fat of your body is fluid. It becomes solid only when the body cools after death. It is one of your most useful constituents, forming a nonconducting sheath to protect you from cold, acting as pads to preserve from shock, on the tips of the fingers, the toes and the heels and lying always ready as a reserve food supply when you can get nothing to eat.

A little artery passes from your brain through the skull into the scalp, which acts as a safety valve when the brain is conges at with blood.

The skin cannot grow again once it is destroyed; hence the unsightly scars left by burns and severe wounds. Only the surface layer can renew itself. When the whole thickness is destroyed, it never reforms. This is the more curious as muscles, nerves, blood vessels and bones, all less liable to in-

You are really a water rather than a land animal. Although as a whole you live on dry land, your body consists of countless millions of separate living particles, and these are all immersed in the water which constitutes four-fifths of your substance.

Within the inner part of your ear, deep in the bone, is a quantity of fluid which acts as a spirit level and enables you to keep your balance. Chicago

A WISE BRITON.

He Half Suspected at the Start That the Feathers Weren't Edible.

A Brooklyn man who entertained an English relative tells this without the quiver of an eyelld: "My cousin from London reached

New York last summer, along with a hot wave. The crowds were deep before the sods water fountains on lower Broadway. He remarked that he did not comprehend how Americans could swallow that 'nasty slush.' "'A mere preference,' I explained. 'We have many curious examples of that kind in this country. One of the most remarkable evidences of insatiable appetite for froth rather than substance is that of the American poultry lover who daily advertises in our New York papers for 1,000 feather beds. As you may well imagine, he is said to have entirely lost his taste for the flesh of the fowl.'

"'Oh, really!' exclaimed the Englishman in quiet surprise. Nothing more Was said till nine months later, when I opened my mall one day and found a marked copy of the London Times. I opened my mail one day and found a marked copy of the London Times, which he had sent to me. He called my attention to this extract in an article on mob rule and lynching in America, 'It can hardly be possible that the supply of tar and feathers in the United States will be sufficient at the rate the mobs are covering the Trains to and from Beaver Hill daily bodies of the poor wretches who are fortured and humiliated before they are drawn and quartered or burned at the stake." "I fancy you will see your error after reading this,' he wrote. 'It is quite plain the man wanted the beds for another purpose and not, as you believe, to eat." "-Brooklyn Eagle.

rival of the train for Seattle, which is due at Napavine about 3 A. M. The domestic relations of the Bridghams are said not to have been the happiest, quarrels occurring from time to time. Yesterday trouble and quarreling between Bridgham and his wife continued during the day. The husband went over to town and returned home late at night, when another row was started which ended by his firing one shot at the woman.

It is said that Bridgham was jealous of an old gentleman named Baldwin, a pioner of the Cowlitz Valley, 70 years of age. Bridgham is 48 years old and his wife about 40. They have a 17-year-old daughter, two small children and a married child.

Bridgham has broken down since being lodged in the county jail here at an early hour this morning. He professes now not to know why he shot his wife and said that he intended to kill Baldwin.
