Personal Notes.

Mrs. Kruse was a city visitor Friday.

Miss Nash was shopping in this city yesterday.

Mr. F. Pederson was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. W. A. Luse, of Coos River, was a city visitor Friday.

Mr. A. R. McDougal, of Ten Mile, was a city visitor Friday.

Mr. A. Anderson, of North Bend, was a city visitor yesterday.

Mrs. L. J. Simpson, of North Bend, spent Friday in this city with friends.

Mrs. S. W. Sherman and daughters of Coos River, were city visitors yesterday.

Mrs. A. J. Snyder has returned from an extended visit in Washington and Oregon cities.

Mrs. Perry, of North Bend, is spending a few days at El Creco, the guest of Mrs. Robinson and family.

Mr. B. Doyle, of this city, leaves today for California, where he will remain for some time visiting Mr. John Yoakum.

Miss Black passed through this city yesterday on her way to Roseburg, where she will remain for sometime visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. C. W. Sanford passed through this city yesterday on her way to her home on Haines Inlet, after having spent a week visiting with her son at Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie, of North Dakota, have rented rooms in the Orren residence, and have begun house-keeping. Mr. Leslie intends entering into business of some kind before long.

Captain Peasley left Marshfield yesterday on the Alliance for his home in Seattle. Mr. Peasley has spent several weeks on Coos Bay visiting friends and transacting business affairs.

Miss Georgia Gould, of Coquille, passed through Marshfield yesterday on her way to her home at Elk Horn Ranch, where she will remain for a week or ten days visiting with her parents.

Miss Jennie Tellefson, of this city, is spending a very pleasant visit with Miss Lilly Way, of Myrtle Point. The Misses Way and Tellefson are both employes of the telephone company, and we dare say that there will be many happy "hellos" during their vacation.

To Whom It May Concern.
I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by Mrs. George Elliott.

LINDENBERGER CO. HAS FAIR PACK

John Angus, of the Lindenberg Company, which operates a salmon-packing establishment in Marshfield, reports that the company has shipped four carloads of prepared fish from Marshfield during the present season. One carload was chinook and the other three silver-sides. It was thought last week that the run was over, but the present week has been quite profitable, and the catch is considerably increased. The Lindenberg Company expects to have another carload for shipment before the season is over.

THAW'S ATTORNEYS WILL PLEAD INSANITY

Chief Counsel for Defense Convinced That White's Slayer Is Insane.

New York, Nov. 8.—Announcement was made today that insanity is to be the plea in the defense of Harry Kendall Thaw, whose second trial for the slaying of Stanford White will begin on December 2 next. Martin W. Littleton, chief counsel for Thaw, it is stated, has decided on this course. He is said to be convinced that Thaw is insane and has not adopted this course as merely a theory on which to conduct a successful defense, but because he feels certain of the unsound mental condition of his client.

Ever since he took charge of the case, it is said, Mr. Littleton has given the question of Thaw's mentality careful study. He has traced the Thaw family tree, and, it is said, has decided that the insanity of Thaw may have been an inheritance. In this connection it is recalled that Mrs. William Thaw, mother of the accused, emphatically denied during the last trial that in the direct line of descent there had been any trace of either epilepsy or insanity.

Seven alienists testified, however, that Thaw, in their opinion, was insane, and had been insane for some years. Much testimony along this line was brought out in the trial, which reached a climax when District Attorney Jerome, in tears, gave his opinion that he was trying an insane man, and that he felt that it was wrong to proceed with the trial under those circumstances.

EUROPEAN LUNATIC KILLS LITTLE GIRLS

Bell, Nov. 8.—A series of crimes resembling those of "Jack the Ripper" murders, only here the victims were little girls instead of women, has been cleared up by the confession of a printer's apprentice named Paul Minow, an epileptic 22 years old, who recently was confined in an asylum for insane at Herzberg. Authorities of the institution were informed that Minow had been talking in a rambling manner of murders. Suspecting him of having committed murders, they encouraged him to talk, with the result that he freely related in a heartless manner, how he had been taunted by his mother and sister with laziness. He had gone out into the streets in a rage and vented his feelings by stabbing four little girls, one after another. He then rambled about the city for a while, and eventually returned home. His mind became so disordered that he was sent to an asylum a week later. The police have confirmed Minow's confession.

CHICAGO POSTOFFICE COMES TO RESCUE

Chicago, Nov. 8.—The Chicago postoffice went to the rescue of post-offices in the West in a material way yesterday as a result of the financial stringency. Postmasters in many towns were seriously handicapped by the lack of currency with which to pay money orders, and a hurry call was sent to Chicago for aid. The appeal will probably result in this city sending out a considerable amount of currency, as at Postmaster's Campbell's office it was said there was plenty of money on hand.

Services at Presbyterian Church.

All the regular services of the First Presbyterian Church will be resumed tomorrow. The church has been very tastefully renovated on the interior, which makes it one of the most pleasing and attractive audience rooms in the city. It is expected that a solo by Mrs. J. W. Ingram will be one of the special musical features of the preaching services. The pastor, the Rev. H. H. Brown, will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening.
