

Week in Society

The social gayeties of the past week have been as numerous as ever but many of the most delightful affairs were so informal that the hostesses did not care to have them chronicled. Several small luncheons and a number of sewing parties, teas and card parties fill the calendar. The season of church bazaars is now on with their attendant train of sewing bees and the dances will increase in numbers up to and through the holidays.

Mrs. Rose Sumner entertained the members of the Ladies' Art Club at her home in South Marshfield on Friday afternoon. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Snover.

Mrs. J. T. McCormac entertained the ladies of the A. N. W. Club on Thursday. Dainty refreshments were served and many beautiful selections of music were enjoyed. There will be no meeting of the club this week on account of its being Thanksgiving day. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Wm. Merchant on the first Thursday in December.

On Tuesday evening Miss Minnie Harkensee was surprised by a large number of friends at her home in Ferndale, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. There were thirty-two guests present and all enjoyed a fine time. Many presents were extended among them was an elegant gold ring presented to her by a number of her friends in the abstract office.

The members of the Methodist choir had practice on Friday evening, about fourteen young people being present. After the meeting was over Rev. W. R. F. Browne and wife entertained those attending. Chocolate and cake were served late in the evening, and a good time continued until time for departure.

The Priscilla Club met on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. Preuss a pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. The date of the next meeting will be given later.

The Sisters of Bethany met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Ben Swanton and business and pleasure were intermingled during the afternoon. The next meeting has been postponed for two weeks.

Mrs. C. E. Nichols entertained the members of the Bridge Whist Club on Saturday afternoon from two to five thirty. Mrs. E. E. Straw won the first prize and Mrs. S. E. Bargelt won the consolation. Miss Stella O'Connell will entertain next meeting at the home of Mrs. B. Richardson in this city.
