To enjoy to the fullest your Thanksgiving turkey, so tempting, tender and spicy, it is necessary that you have new, crisp linens with which to serve it.

In taking advantage of our very special prices at this time, you will not only have the use of them Thanksgiving day, but on many future occasions of festivity, as well.

Our linens are guaranteed. They are sun-bleached (not chemically bleached), and will wear just like the linens our grandmothers talk of. So in buying linens of us, you are buying what will remain in the family for years.

Fine Table Damasks

Our Table Damasks are guaranteed to be exactly what we claim them to be. If we say they are all linen, you may rest assured they are such. All the better grades of damasks are sun-bleached in the open, on the grass. This adds materially to the life of the fabric, for no chemically bleached linen can be durable.
