

PROSPERITY IN MARSHFIELD

Fifteen Thousand Real Estate Sale Is Made Monday.

INVESTOR FROM ILLINOIS

Faith in Coos Bay Continues in the Face of Financial Flurries.

Price Indicates a Substantial Advance in Price of Business Property and Marks Continuation of City's Progress.

A sale of Front street property was closed Monday by W. J. Rust which shows that Illinois people think well of Coos Bay. The Adams property, consisting of fifty feet, between A and B streets, extending back to the low water line of the bay and with two story buildings, sold for $15,000, where, a year ago, it was purchased by Mr. A. A. Adams, of Los Angeles, for $13,000. The buildings are occupied on the first floors by the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph offices and S. Lando, as a general dry goods store. Mr. Robert J. Montgomery, of Decatur, Ill., is the purchaser. Mr. Montgomery was here last summer and spent about three weeks on Coos Bay and the neighboring country. He has other valuable interests near Marshfield, which came to him before the present increase in prices occurred. This is the largest sale made since the Seaman property changed hands last spring, going to the First Trust and Savings Bank, which company is erecting a fine building on it.
