THE MESSAGE IN TABLOID FORM

President's Thirty Thousand Words Billed Down for Readers of the Times.
It is the height of foolishness to hoard money.

War against successful dishonesty must be vigorously prosecuted. Federal governments must absolutely control interstate commerce. Railway securities should not be issued without permission of the interstate commerce commission.

A national incorporation law should be passed. Combinations that do no injustice to the public should not be prohibited.

Combinations against public policy should be prevented from engaging in interstate commerce. Provisions should be made for complete publicity for all corporations.

Trust companies should be brought under the same supervision as national banks. Central bank of issue is needed. An emergency currency is absolutely necessary.

Income and inheritance tax measures should be passed. Federal inspection of railways and equipment to protect public and employees required.

General introduction of eight-hour day should be provided for. Tariff reform is needed, but should not be attempted until after the next presidential election.

Abuse of the injunction in labor disputes should be curbed. Compulsory investigation and adjudication of industrial disputes. Deep waterways from lakes to gulf. Legislation to protect honest settler against land thieves.

Prosecution of all land thieves, grazing, timber and mineral. Coal lands retained and worked under lease for the benefit of the whole people.

Postal savings banks and parcel post should be provided for. Inexpensive and ample form of self government for Alaska.

Citizenship should be conferred upon the people of Porto Rico. The nation should pay expenses of presidential campaign.

Increase in personnel of army and naval officers required. A country banker out in Kansas called up a long distance telephone and asked for the cashier of a west side bank, which is a reserve agency for several country banks, says a Kansas City Exchange.

"What's the trouble down there—are you in distress?" the city cashier inquired.
"Distress! Well, I should say," came the response over the wire.
"Are you short of currency?"
"Short, no! We've got more currency than we know what to do with, but the blamed stuff is all in tens, fifties, twenties and hundreds."

"Well, what on earth do you want?" the city cashier growled.
"Well, if it's all the same to you, I'd like to swap a peck of twenties for a bushel of fives," the country banker yelled back, apologetically.
"Very well, send it along and we'll swap," the city cashier replied, as he hung up the telephone receiver.

"That was easy," the cashier said as if much relieved. "I thought sure there was trouble coming then. A peck of twenties for a bushel of fives."

FIRE THE FOREIGNERS
MYRTLE MAKES THE JAPS AND GREEKS MOVE ON.
MYRTLE CREEK, Dec. 11.—Following the usual course adopted elsewhere, the Southern Pacific sought to displace the white labor on the section at Myrtle Creek by the cheap, lazy, and insolent foreigners imported for that purpose. First came a band of "Japs" and their first night was made an unpleasant one, so they decamped. Then came a band of Greeks, but they did not like the looks of things so they walked out of town. The Mail says the next crowd will no doubt be of Hindu nativity and they will, no doubt, be "induced" to "vamoose."

When it gets so that those Myrtle Creek fellows can't have some fun, there is surely "nothing doing."
Notice to the Public.
—Mothers Delicatessen and lunch room is now open for business with everything in the bakery and cooking line strictly home made. Special dinners for private parties gotten up on short notice. Give us a bid on Socials and Banquets, and don't forget the location on Broadway, opposite Times office.

—Footballs, punching bags, boxing gloves and dumb bells at Milner's.
—Empire Clams at Ellerby's Fish Market.

Tattle of the Town

Little grains of fact sifted from the chaff of gossip flying up and down the town.
Mrs. H. F. Morrison is a visitor in the city today from Bandon.

E. A. Howey, of Coquille, spent Tuesday in the city on business.
G. Book and daughter, of Bandon, are spending a few days visiting in the city.

W. H. Butten, was a pleasant visitor to friends in Marshfield yesterday.
J. F. Bridges was a business visitor in Marshfield yesterday afternoon and evening.

J. W. Duncan, of North Bend, was a business visitor in Marshfield yesterday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Beaver, of Coquille, arrived in this city on the noon train for a visit with friends.

J. O. Stemmler, the well known rancher of the Coquille Valley, is spending a few days in the city on business.
Roy Lawhorn returned to his office this morning after a short absence on a visit to friends in the county.

F. S. Dow left for Coquille on the morning train to superintend the erection of a gasoline derrick, which will be used at his warehouse for the transfer of freight between the railroad and the river boats.

"Dock" Maple, who was arrested Monday night by officer Condron on a charge of disorderly conduct, was ordered discharged in Recorder Up-ton's court yesterday afternoon on the motion of Attorney Ferrin that there was no case against him.

Louis Olson, who was arrested by Officer Condron several days ago, and who was dismissed from trial on Monday afternoon, was arrested again this afternoon by Officer Carter, who found him wandering around under the influence of liquor to such an extent that the man did not know where he was going.

Ducks are reported to be very thick on the harbor and inlets during the past few days and a large number of people have been enjoying pretty good shooting. The birds are reported to be very wild because of being chased by hunters in gasoline launches. As the chug chug of a launch approaches them is generally accompanied by a fusillade of fire arms, they are learning to keep entirely away from the chug chug.

Quite a large number of travelers are waiting in the city during the past few days to take the boat for Portland. The delay has caused considerable inconvenience as the Drain stage can only take a limited number and orders for seats have to be made in advance. The delays caused on the Roseburg stage line have caused travelers to turn their attention to other routes, and those preferring to go by steamship will await the departure of the Breakwater and Alliance next Tuesday morning.
