

PROFITABLE INVESTMENT Advertisers get good returns from announcements placed in The Daily Times.

Coos Bay Times

KEEP WELL POSTED On the current events of the world's progress by reading The Daily Times.

BRILLIANT FORMAL OPENING OF THE MILLICOMA CLUB Ladies' Night a Charming Social Function in Which Music, Mirth and Pleasure Mingle and Make An Evening that Will Linger Long In Memory.

WOMAN WHAT TRADITION SAYS AS TO HER CREATION

AT THE beginning of time, Twashtri—the Hindu mythology—created the world. But when he wished to create a woman he found that he had employed all his materials in the creation of man. ... My lord, my life is very solitary since I returned this creature. I remember she danced before me, singing. I recall how she glanced at me from the corner of her eye and she played with me, clung to me. ... Three days only passed and Twashtri saw the man coming to him again. ... My lord, said he, "I do not understand exactly how, but I am sure the woman causes me more annoyance than pleasure. I beg of you to relieve me of her."

A Toast to the Men. (Dedicated to the Women) Here's to the men. Since Adam's time They've always been the same; Whenever anything goes wrong, The woman is to blame. From early morn to late at night, The men fault-finders are; They blame us if they oversleep, And that's what causes far, They blame us if, beneath the bed, Their collar buttons roll; The blame us if the fire is out Or if there is no coal. They blame us if they chance to get While shaving, and they swear That we're to blame if they decide To go upon a tear.

Here's to the men, the perfect men! Who never are at fault; They blame us if they chance to get The pepper for the salt. They blame us if their business fails, Or back a losing horse; And when it rains on holidays The fault is ours, of course. They blame us when they fall in love, And when they married get; Likewise they blame us when they're sick And when they fall in debt. For everything that erisorous goes They say we are to blame; But, after all, here's to the men, We love them just the same! A. FAIRONE.

The formal opening of the Millicoma club last evening was a brilliant success. In character it reached the dignity of a social function. The recent informal dedication by the members was only a prelude as it were to last night's performance; the overture of the orchestra while last evening was the play. The rooms had been transformed into a veritable bower of beauty. Great clusters of green foliage, Oregon grape, ferns and potted palms added to the rich and simple elegance of the furnishings made the entire interior a picture that charmed. Add to this handsome setting, the animated groups that moved almost kaleidoscope like through the various rooms, the gay hues of the women's beautiful evening gowns standing out in marked contrast with the dark colors of men's evening dress, music, laughter and mirth made it an occasion that will long be treasured in the pleasant memories of the participants. Upon arrival guests were greeted in the spacious reception hall by Mesdames: W. S. McFarland, Alice Ford, J. A. Matson, E. E. Straw, and W. T. Merchant and Messrs. E. K. Jones, W. S. McFarland, Wm. Ford, J. A. Matson Claude Nasburg, constituting the receiving line the gentlemen bidding welcome on behalf of the Millicoma club and the ladies acting as patronesses of the affair. An inspection of the rooms was necessarily part of the introductory ceremony, this being the first formal gathering in the new home of the club. The expressions of surprised delight at their elegance and sumptuousness were many. The evidence of the club's hospitality followed in serving Millicoma punch. The Coos Bay Orchestra stationed in the reception hall enlivened the early hours, preceding the regular musical program arranged for the occasion, with several selections. The dedication was made by W. S. McFarland in a neat little speech welcoming the guests after which an excellent musical program was rendered, as follows: "Cavalier" . . . . . Orchestra Cornet Solo, "Schubert's Serenade," Hayes Howard. Accompaniment . . . Wilson Kauffman Vocal Solo, "Bonnie Dean," Jay B. Tower. Encore—"I Am Lonesome." Accompaniment Miss Susie Eickworth. Vocal Duet—"Litet B. O.," Isaacson Bros.

There is a little story told of old Indian lore and in the selection of the name "Millicoma" for the club, it might be well to repeat it after accepting the great hospitality of the club which shows how well the members have lived up to the meaning of the word. Many, many years ago when this beautiful Coos Bay country was only inhabited by the primitive redman, there was a famous Indian chief who owned the hunting grounds, situated on what is now called the North Fork of Coos River, or Millicoma river; his name was Millicoma, and in the seasons for the great games that were held, his camp was preferred for these meetings by all the chiefs and warriors of the various tribes, as his hospitality knew no bounds; his wigwam was open to all true and fair minded chiefs or warriors of the neighboring tribes, as well as to strangers that might come to his hunting grounds. In fact his hospitality became a phrase that was passed down from generation to generation, as Millicoma's hospitality, meaning the greatest. The members of the "Millicoma Club, a part of the successors in possession of this great Coos Bay country, wish to perpetuate the name of the noble Indian chief and more particularly his great characteristics, and in the organization of the club, have incorporated hospitality as a slogan, opening its doors to the chiefs of our present day, professional and business men, as well as the strangers that may visit this great country.

In Conclusion. In every way the dedication was one of the notable events in the annals of Coos Bay. Every member of the Millicoma club and every citizen on the Bay has cause to be proud of last night's brilliant success. The club members are all entitled to share in the honors of the evening, but especially the house committee, of which E. K. Jones is chairman, which labored to zealously and who

Encore—"He Goes to Church on Sunday." Mandolin Duet—"Keystone Schottische," Isaacson Bros. Violin Solo—"Traumerl," H. Baily Accompaniment . . . Mrs. Farringer. Orchestra Sextette . . . From "Lucia." Vocal Solo—"Till Death," Miss Maude Painter. H. Baily. Piano Accompaniment Mrs. Farringer. Orchestra. Clarinet Solo . . . Dr. W. A. Toye Piano Solo, "Rhapsodie," Listz, Elmer A. Todd. Encore—"Norwegian Bridal Procession" . . . . . Grey Vocal Solo "Three Green Bonnets," Mrs. C. W. Tower. Encore—"Love's Dilemma," Cornet Solo "Rosary," Hayes Howard. Vocal Solo "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," Warren Painter. Encore—"Since We Parted," Piano Solo "From Flower to Flower," Greig . . . . . Elmer A. Todd. Encore—"Octave Etude"—Kulok. Orchestra. All numbers on this varied and interesting program were excellently rendered and the applause was generous and expressions of approval sincere and enthusiastic. The music was under direction of W. R. Haines and he received many compliments for his direction of this feature of the evening's entertainment. At the conclusion of the musical program J. W. Bennett, by request delivered a little talk on woman and then a light luncheon was served, during which the orchestra rendered some charming music. The Ladies' Gowns. All the ladies were charmingly and beautifully gowned and presented a picture that added the crowning touch to the evening. Among the many beautiful and elaborate gowns worn were the following: Mrs. W. T. Merchant, blue silk with lace. Mrs. E. E. Straw, white chiffon over silk. Mrs. George Flanagan, a Paris gown of net over silk. Mrs. E. L. C. Farrin, pink silk mull, handsomely embroidered. Mrs. L. J. Simpson, crepe de chene with lace and embroidery. Mrs. H. S. Tower, blue silk with white lace. Miss Mullen, silk crepe with lace trimming.

Encore—"He Goes to Church on Sunday." Mandolin Duet—"Keystone Schottische," Isaacson Bros. Violin Solo—"Traumerl," H. Baily Accompaniment . . . Mrs. Farringer. Orchestra Sextette . . . From "Lucia." Vocal Solo—"Till Death," Miss Maude Painter. H. Baily. Piano Accompaniment Mrs. Farringer. Orchestra. Clarinet Solo . . . Dr. W. A. Toye Piano Solo, "Rhapsodie," Listz, Elmer A. Todd. Encore—"Norwegian Bridal Procession" . . . . . Grey Vocal Solo "Three Green Bonnets," Mrs. C. W. Tower. Encore—"Love's Dilemma," Cornet Solo "Rosary," Hayes Howard. Vocal Solo "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," Warren Painter. Encore—"Since We Parted," Piano Solo "From Flower to Flower," Greig . . . . . Elmer A. Todd. Encore—"Octave Etude"—Kulok. Orchestra.

All numbers on this varied and interesting program were excellently rendered and the applause was generous and expressions of approval sincere and enthusiastic. The music was under direction of W. R. Haines and he received many compliments for his direction of this feature of the evening's entertainment. At the conclusion of the musical program J. W. Bennett, by request delivered a little talk on woman and then a light luncheon was served, during which the orchestra rendered some charming music.

The Ladies' Gowns. All the ladies were charmingly and beautifully gowned and presented a picture that added the crowning touch to the evening. Among the many beautiful and elaborate gowns worn were the following: Mrs. W. T. Merchant, blue silk with lace. Mrs. E. E. Straw, white chiffon over silk. Mrs. George Flanagan, a Paris gown of net over silk. Mrs. E. L. C. Farrin, pink silk mull, handsomely embroidered. Mrs. L. J. Simpson, crepe de chene with lace and embroidery. Mrs. H. S. Tower, blue silk with white lace. Miss Mullen, silk crepe with lace trimming.

There is a little story told of old Indian lore and in the selection of the name "Millicoma" for the club, it might be well to repeat it after accepting the great hospitality of the club which shows how well the members have lived up to the meaning of the word. Many, many years ago when this beautiful Coos Bay country was only inhabited by the primitive redman, there was a famous Indian chief who owned the hunting grounds, situated on what is now called the North Fork of Coos River, or Millicoma river; his name was Millicoma, and in the seasons for the great games that were held, his camp was preferred for these meetings by all the chiefs and warriors of the various tribes, as his hospitality knew no bounds; his wigwam was open to all true and fair minded chiefs or warriors of the neighboring tribes, as well as to strangers that might come to his hunting grounds. In fact his hospitality became a phrase that was passed down from generation to generation, as Millicoma's hospitality, meaning the greatest. The members of the "Millicoma Club, a part of the successors in possession of this great Coos Bay country, wish to perpetuate the name of the noble Indian chief and more particularly his great characteristics, and in the organization of the club, have incorporated hospitality as a slogan, opening its doors to the chiefs of our present day, professional and business men, as well as the strangers that may visit this great country.

In Conclusion. In every way the dedication was one of the notable events in the annals of Coos Bay. Every member of the Millicoma club and every citizen on the Bay has cause to be proud of last night's brilliant success. The club members are all entitled to share in the honors of the evening, but especially the house committee, of which E. K. Jones is chairman, which labored to zealously and who

J. G. HILL DIES OF HIS WOUNDS North Bend Man Passes Away In Bandon From Self-Inflicted Injuries. (Special to Times.) BANDON, Jan. 16.—J. G. Hill, formerly proprietor of "Our House" restaurant in North Bend, died in this city yesterday morning about 8 o'clock from wounds self inflicted about one week ago when he attempted suicide. It will be recalled that at that time he gashed himself severely with a knife in an attempt to end his earthly existence. He was not successful at the time and was given prompt medical attendance. On learning of his trouble his wife came here from North Bend and has nursed him carefully and constantly since, being at his bedside when he passed away. The remains will be taken to North Bend today for interment.

GERMAN WAR SHIP WRECKED Large Hole Torn in Her Bottom But No Lives Lost. (By Associated Press.) KIEL, Jan. 16.—The German armored cruiser Schornhorst ran aground near Buick last night while engaged in evolutions. It is reported a hole one hundred feet long was torn in her double bottom, requiring the closing of bulkheads to prevent sinking. She was docked under her own steam. There were no casualties.

BUSY BURYING THEIR DEAD Sad Scenes In Little Pennsylvania Town, Scene of Awful Fire. (By Associated Press.) BOYERTOWN, Pa., Jan. 16.—This little borough is today engaged in burying its dead. All night long the work of preparing the bodies for interment proceeded and today scores of funerals were held. It is believed fifty bodies will never be identified. had charge of the decorating, are entitled to thanks. North Bend Represented. North Bend was represented at the opening of the Millicoma club by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Winsor, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bode, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoeck, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Gale, Mrs. Frame, Mrs. C. M. Byler, Miss Flanagan, Charles J. Keane, W. J. Smith.

—You can not make any mistake in buying in Boise addition. Eastside, for a quick money maker. —Lumber is ordered for seventeen new houses in East Marshfield. —Good climate, good water, good roads, good schools in Eastside. —Try a want ad. BELIEVE in newspaper advertising a great deal more than you believe in show windows—your store can always have show windows. "Convincing" advertising is usually put forth by the "convincing store"—the store that has something worth while to offer you.

ED. HARRIMAN MUST ANSWER THE COURT TO TELL TRUTH OF DEALS. (By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—E. H. Harriman was directed, in a decision given by Judge Hough, in the United States Circuit Court today, to answer all questions propounded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, except those relating to the purchase of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Railroad stock in connection with the dividend in August 1906. Judge Hough also directed Otto H. Kuhn, of Kuhn Loeb & Co. to answer all questions asked him by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

EXHIBITS FINE LOCAL BRICK Coos Bay Brick Firms Makes Hundred Thousand at a Burning. Brickmaking as an established industry in Coos county has been made successful by E. L. Dexter, who has just finished burning a kiln of 1000,000 building brick. Mr. Dexter is manager of the Coos Bay Brick and Stone company, located on Jessie Smith's property on the south fork of the Coos River. He came here last summer from East Washington and formed a company with Mr. Smith and other people to manufacture brick. Machinery was ordered but it did not arrive until the rainy season had set in, and this delayed matters considerably. The machinery composed partly of wire cut and dry-pressed brick machines, arrived last October and the work of making the brick commenced with Mr. Dexter in charge of the plant. Samples of the brick were brought to the chamber of commerce this morning and are on exhibition there. They have aroused much enthusiasm and admiration from contractors who have seen them. The brick is apparently perfect for building purposes and for front brick. There is also an excellent sample of dry-pressed brick, and the samples which were taken from the body of the kiln, are as fine as have been seen here. Mr. Dexter states that the plant has a capacity of 30,000 brick a day and that there is material enough to last indefinitely where the plant is located.

ALLIANCE LEAVES FOR PORTLAND Purser Skinner Lays Off For a Month's Vacation. The steamer Alliance left for Portland this morning from North Bend at 10 o'clock with quite a number of passengers and considerable freight. Dan Hogan, of San Francisco, acted as purser on this trip as Purser H. W. Skinner has taken a month's vacation and will leave on the next steamer for Frisco to visit relatives and friends. The following was the list of passengers: E. O. Emborn, N. A. Barrett, John Grant, John McDonald, A. P. Anderson, D. A. Utter, wife and baby, R. M. Rau, A. C. Tower, Frank March, C. R. Watson, C. A. Brand, I. E. Lawrence, K. Alexander, H. P. Mauzey, J. H. Robertson, A. P. Goss, James Merchant, Mrs. Hattie Pickens and baby, Arthur Murphy, Joseph Corolino, Charles Corolino, A. B. Dalley, Geo. Gibson, Frank McDonald.

—Use The Times want ads. You get a lot for a little. —Sengstacken's addition for sure savings bank.

BREAKFAST FOR EVELYN Harry Thaw Orders Eighty-Four Pounds Beef for Sick Wife. Much Additional Evidence As to Irrational Conduct of the Defendant—His Mother a Witness. (By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—More evidence of the alleged irrational conduct on the part of the defendant was offered in the trial of Thaw today, the most impressive witness being Abraham R. Beck, who taught a select school of fifteen boys in Pennsylvania in 1881 and 1882, young Thaw being among the number. Beck described Thaw as of an ungovernable temper and produced a letter from the mother of the defendant who said she feared Harry's mind was unbalanced, he was so different from the other four children. One of Thaw's recent eccentricities which it was said will soon be testified to was sending eighty-four pounds of beef to Sylvia Nesbit one morning when she was ill. Attorneys have receipts for the meat. Mrs. William Thaw, mother of the defendant has arrived in New York and may be called as a witness this afternoon or tomorrow.

NORTH BEND IS TO BE ACTIVE New Council Plans Wholesale Improvements in Neighboring City. Plans for extensive improvements to North Bend were laid out at the coming year at the opening meeting of the new city council of that place which gathered at the city hall Tuesday night. General and the improvement of the streets were the principal features which North Bend will attend to during the next few months, and earnest efforts are to be made to have this new city in all respects. Plans for the revision of the city charter were also discussed at some length. Mayor Simpson, G. D. Mandigo, president of the council, Councilmen Falkenstein, Hoeck, Vanzile and Coleman were present at the meeting, which was full of energy and enthusiasm. Don Gardner, the new recorder was also present. Lawyer McLeod was appointed city attorney at $250 a year. A. N. Arnoy, of North Bend, was appointed city engineer at a salary of $150 a month, and will start in today to improve a north side of Virginia street to Sheridan avenue by superintending the placing of caps, flooring, dicking and other parts of improvements to this street. The piling has been in place for a couple of years and the upper woodwork will be completed within a few weeks. The council is planning to establish grades in all parts of the city, in order that all street improvements, sewage, etc., will be done right to begin with and make way for a greater growth in North Bend. Another feature of the meeting was the ordering of a $4000 seal from Portland with which to look after the city records and istake funds. The council is also planning to establish city scales on the public dock. Judging from the action displayed by the council last night the new board is a live one, and three or four meetings a month of this body is planned in the interests of the city.

—For sale, 50x83 on cor. Third and Myrtle, $2500. 3 choice building lots in East Marshfield, $110 each. Lots in Eastside from $60 up, on easy terms by Title Guarantee & Abstract Co.