The Southern Oregon State Normal School

At ASHLAND, Ore.

Offers especial opportunities for teachers to review for the teachers' examinations in February and August, and to take work in Pedagogy and in Special Methods of teaching in the various grades of the training school. Since the public schools of Oregon are calling for teachers who can teach manual training, many are taking advantage of the industrial work lately installed in the school. Expenses of board and lodging and tuition nominal. The State Normal School at Ashland is enjoying the largest appropriation of state funds ever granted a Normal school in the history of Oregon. Catalogues sent on application to the PRESIDENT.

Tattle of the-Town

Little grains of fact sifted from the chaff of gossip flying up and down the town.

WEATHER FORECAST

Western Oregon—Occasional rain or snow tonight. Colder north portion except near coast. Thursday, rain or snow. West-erly winds.

LOCAL REPORT

For 24 hours ending at 6 p. m. January 28. Furnished by Dr. E. Mingus, government cooperative observer. Maximum 52. Minimum 41. 6 p. m. S. W. Precipitation .10. Cloudy.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, of Gardiner, a daughter, January 24.

Breakwater Sails Tonight.—The steamer Breakwater is due to leave Portland tonight for Coos Bay. She is due in this port Friday morning.

Open Cabinet Shop.—Bohlen and Cosmey are preparing to open a carpenter and cabinet repair shop opposite the Smith Lumber company's retail yard on Broadway street.

W. C. T. U. to Meet.—The W. C. T. U. of Eastside will hold its monthly meeting at the school house tomorrow, January 30, at 2 p. m. Business of importance will come up and everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Socialists Organize.—The socialists of Coos county are going to organize and get into the political game. A meeting has been called for February 14 in Coquille at which time the party will register and make nominations.

Alliance Late.—The Alliance will be one day late arriving at Coos Bay. Reports from Portland say the boat was delayed until this morning getting out of the Columbia river on account of a heavy fog, which made it impracticable to cross the bar.

Ladies Will Hold Fair.—The ladies of the Catholic church will hold a bazaar in the vacant store in the O'Connell block next Saturday for the purpose of raising money for church work. They will have on sale all those delectables which tickle the palate and it is thought they will meet with success.

Baby Girl Arrives.—A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr and Mrs. George Snyder, of Marshfield, on January 26 and both mother and child are doing well and grandfather Snyder and Great-Grandfather Hayes are enthusiastic over the growth of Oregon while George is the proudest papa on the bay.

Raises Bull Frogs.—It has been left for Myrtle Point to become the home of the bull frog industry. B. C. Lehmanosky of that place shipped out four boxes of the aquatic hoppers on the last Plant. It is said that he intends raising them on an extensive scale and hopes to realize heavy profits in due time.

Interesting Debate.—An interesting debate is scheduled to take place on Sunday, February 2, at 2:30 p. m. in Longshoremen's hall on Front street. The subject of the debate will be: "Resolved, that, Capitalists Shall Not be Recommended for Industries Taken Over by Socialism." The debate will be free and all are cordially invited.

Pupils Leave School.—A number of Eastside pupils attending the lower grades of the Marshfield public school left yesterday. The reason given is that the rate of tuition here is more than the parents felt able to stand and as a school is to be opened in Eastside shortly for the younger pupils they feel that the children will not suffer by the short absence from their studies.

New Lutheran Minister.—The Rev. William F. Hall, recently of Minneapolis, Minnesota, has arrived on Coos Bay and will endeavor to organize an English Lutheran church. He comes highly recommended and is personally acquainted with C. A. Smith, the lumberman. Services will be held in the Redmen's hall on

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS

The Week News as Told in The Columns of the Enterprise

E. J. Pierson has rented the Gent place from R. C. Dement and the house is being placed in repair for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Bryant made a trip to Marshfield on Tuesday.

Rev. L. E. Stebbins the new pastor of the Christian church has arrived.

L. W. Shaw, Marshfield agent of the popular steamer Alliance, was in Myrtle Point yesterday attending to business for the company owning that boat.

James Pearson, the shooting gallery man received an anonymous communication last week that was very acceptable as it contained $7.25 in cash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pike have returned from Camas Valley where they went to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. W. Kinnicut, sister-in-law of Mrs. Pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnson welcomed a son to their home on Sunday, the 19th.

W. A. Border and his daughter, Mrs. L. W. Traver, are up from Marshfield this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dodge are the proud and happy parents of a bouncing baby boy that arrived at their home in this city on Tuesday, the 21st.

B. F. Crutchfield has sold his ranch of 35 acres on the South Fork to O. K. and W. F. Neal, the consideration being $3,500. Mr. Crutchfield expects to leave in February for Idaho where he will make his future home near Kendrick. His son-in-law, John Craver, will accompany him.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bender leave today for Portland where they expect to remain for a month. While there Mr. Bender will undergo an operation for trouble with his ear that has been bothering him for a number of years. During their absence George Rackleff will have charge of the jewelry store.

Sunday February 2 at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school services will be held at 9:45 a. m.

Many Houses Building.—January promises to be a banner month in the matter of local business for the C. A. Smith lumber company. Lumber has been sold for ten houses in Marshfield and vicinity. The record will exceed that of last year while it is almost equal to that of November and December combined. Much lumber has been sold to Eastside where a remarkable number of houses are being constructed.

Plant Sails.—The Plant sailed this morning at 5 o'clock from North Bend. The boat carried a full cargo of freight as well as a full list of passengers. Following is the passenger list: Young Show company, George Gravin, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Sheldon, Mrs. Bickford, John Pruess, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mahlen, Ed. Harris, Sarah Harris, N. Jensen, T. Bradley, S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Aiken, John Tierney, E. R. Hodson, B. S. Coleman, C. D. Miner.

Say Dog Tax Is Illegal.—It is reported from Coquille that the city council has refunded license fees paid on 52 dogs. They had been informed that dogs, being personal property, were not entitled to having an additional tax levied against them by the city.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

City attorney Farrin of Marshfield says the Coquille city council is in error on the dog license question. Therefore there is no ground for anticipation on the part of Marshfield dog owners.

A Special Ranch Bargain.—200 acre ranch, about 60 acres bottom land, the balance can be used for fruit and pasture land. Good 8 room house, good barn, modern improvements and farming implements of all kinds, Jersey cows, horses, chickens and all go for $7,000.00. For full particulars, see Stutsman & Co.
