WHITING LIKE A WHIPPED CUR UNDER THE LASH OF HONEST CRITICISM

Goos Bay Gas and Electric Co. Replies To
Letter For Better Service With A Villainous Personal Attack On The Editor Of The Times

SOME PLAIN TRUTHS Plainly STATED

Seeks to Divert the Attention of the People by False and Foul Language About the Paper or Its Editor Has Nothing to Rebut and Seeks to Withhold from the People of Goos Bay.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.

The editor of the Times who, by circulation and personnel for engaging in a little veritable flattery, has succeeded in creating a false impression as to the quality and character of the Times, is today engaged in what may be called a deliberate attempt to divert the attention of the people of Goos Bay and its neighborhood by a personal attack upon the individuals associated with the Times.