

An Open Letter To The Ladies of Coos Bay

There is nothing that is so important to the women or that adds that dainty and delicate touch of womanly refinement, as her toilet accessories. There are women whose presence is made known by the subtle fragrance of their favorite perfume. It should not be too pronounced, but delicate and soft as the fragrance of the natural flower, evasive but pervading. Our line of Toilet waters is unsurpassed. Everything that the ladies of any city can find are at this store. Here is a list with prices:

J. J. O'NEIL, of Bandon, was a Marshfield visitor Friday.

W. R. ROHER, the well known Coquille carpenter, was in Marshfield yesterday.

C. I. NEFF, of the Beaver Hill coal mines, paid a short visit to Marshfield yesterday.

J. W. LAPP, of Coos River, came to Marshfield on the boat this morning to spend the day.

MISS MARION, of Coos River, was visiting friends in Marshfield Friday.

MESDAMES R. and W. SIMPSON, of North Bend, were Marshfield visitors yesterday.

F. B. WAITE, who has been away from the bay for some time, arrived on the Breakwater Friday.

E. O. ENGLE, representing L. Dinkelspiel & Co., of San Francisco, is on the bay calling on the merchants.

MRS. R. SUMERLIN and daughter, of North Bend, and Miss Claire Cavanagh are down with the mumps.

MRS. A. VINEYARD, of East Side, is very ill at her home. Two physicians have been called to attend her.

M. ENDICOTT and P. S. Ensley, both of Myrtle Point, were on the bay transacting business matters yesterday.

MAYOR E. E. STRAW and Officer Walter Condon returned to Marshfield on the Breakwater after their brief stay in Portland.

MISS EMMA JOHNSON, of North Bend, was visiting with Mrs. Max Timmerman at her home in Marshfield Friday.

MRS. GERALDINE MORRIS, recently of Seattle, will arrive on the next Breakwater to open a music studio on Coos Bay.

E. W. WRIGHT, with Murphy, Grant and company, of San Francisco, departed Friday morning for points along the Coquille river.

MRS. TOM HARVEY returned to Marshfield yesterday overland. She has been visiting her brother in Grant's Pass for some weeks. Her brother, Ralph Dean, returned with her.

HARRY AMES, a friend of O. W. Briggs, arrived on the Breakwater yesterday from Portland and will spend a week or ten days on Coos bay. Mr. Ames is from Streator, Illinois, and in case he decides to locate here, which is his aim, will add materially to the Illinois contingent on Coos Bay.

H. E. BACON, of Toppendish, Washington, who is interested in the fruit business in the Yakima district is on Coos Bay looking over its resources and prospects. Mr. Bacon is very favorably impressed with the bay country and leaves today for the Coquille valley and will spend Sunday in Bandon, to inspect the prosperity of that busy city by the sea.

SY NOAH, of Coos River, was down from his ranch today.
J. LANDRETH, of North Coos River, is in town today.
MRS. H. H. ROGERS and daughter were shopping in town today.
MRS. BROCKMAN and daughter, sister of Charles Walter, the expressman, arrived on the Homer.
A. DAVISON, of Portland, who conducted the sale at Fennell's, came over on the Breakwater and came over from the Coquille to take the steamer Breakwater for the north. Mr. Davison will be missed by some of the fairer sex.
RALPH DEAN, of Grant's Pass, arrived in town yesterday via Drain. Ralph is a brother-in-law of Tom Harvey, the furniture man. He will be employed at that place this summer, or until he regains his health. That's right, Ralph, Coos Bay's climate will cure you.

Spitter in Hand.—J. E. Hodson, of the Simpson mill at old North Bend, met with a painful accident Friday, when, while running a lathe saw, he ran a splinter into the index finger of his right hand. Surgical aid was necessary. He will be laid up for some time.

Council Meets Monday Eve.—The city council of Marshfield will meet Monday night. The last meeting of the body was postponed owing to the absence of Mayor Straw. There are a number of matters to be disposed of including street work and the proposed ferry landing site.

Surprise Party.—Friends pleasantly surprised Miss Villa Melin at the residence of Mrs. E. C. Drews at the residence of Mrs. E. C. day evening with an informal party. Music, singing and cards were enjoyed, and towards the evening's close refreshments were served. There were about twenty-five young people in attendance.

Cal Wright for Sheriff.—Cal Wright, the well known game warden, is seeking the democratic nomination as sheriff of Coos county. He is now circulating a petition to secure the required number of signatures to allow him entering the race. His many friends, both democratic and republican, are wishing him success in his new political venture.

James McConihie Dies.—James McConihie died in the hospital at Myrtle Point Thursday. Father Donnelly went down to administer the last sacrament, but the man passed away before the priest's arrival. The remains will come to Marshfield where they will be shipped to the home of deceased in San Francisco on the steamer Homer.

To Build Pleasure Launch.—Max Timmerman, the Marshfield boat builder, is planning the building of a pleasure launch for himself when the large boat now under construction for the Coquille river is completed. Mr. Timmerman has made no plans as to the style or specifications but it is assured that the boat will rank with any on the bay.

Hoys Give Good Show. Notwithstanding counter attractions, the "Two Hoys" Thursday drew a large audience at the Masonic opera. The former's sleight of hand work was equally mystifying and interesting, while Mrs. Hoyt's serpentine dance on a rolling sphere, under the rays of colored lights, was something entirely new to Coos Bay.

Fire Department Meets.—The Marshfield fire department held a meeting Thursday night and transacted some routine matters. The question of quarters for the department was taken up, but remained undisposed of owing to the fact that the committee appointed by the city council has not taken any action as yet. The members of the department believe that the members of the council will take definite action at its next meeting. The exempt members of the department demonstrated Thursday night that they are still as young and zealous as ever, when a number of them asked to be put on the active list. This adds considerably to the fire fighting strength of the department.
