GOOD STYLE
Good style in dress,
So say the press,
Is a matter of individual taste.
Some like extreme
And others seem Not to have such idle time to waste.
Good style then
In clothes for men
All simply amounts to this:
Your measure I'll take Your clothes I'll make To conform to your individual wish.

REV. HORSFALL held Episcopal services in Bandon on Sunday.

M. SS EDNA WIEDER spent Saturday with friends in North Bend.

MRS. J. HODSON, of North Bend, was shopping in Marshfield Monday.

MR. AND MRS. E. RIGGS and family spent Sunday at Charleston Bay.

MRS. C. CAVANAUGH, of North Bend, was a Marshfield shopper Monday.

S. WILSON, a Coos Bay pioneer, and now a resident of Gardiner, was a Marshfield visitor Monday.

CLAUDE NASBURG left yesterday on a fortnight's business visit to San Francisco and vicinity.

MRS. JOHN LENNON and MRS.
Keiser, of Porter addition, were shopping in Marshfield yesterday.

MAYOR L. J. SIMPSON and MRS.
SIMPSON, of North Bend, are rus-tivating for a few days at Sunset Bay.

MISS MARGARET HODSON, of North Bend, is spending a few days with Mrs. W. Lawhorn on Broadway.

SEYMOUR H. BELL will return on tomorrow's stage. He has been on a business visit to Portland and the Sound.

E. L. C. FARRIN AND WIFE, Coos Bay, are registered at the Portland Hotel in Portland, according to the Oregonian.

MRS. I. FREELAND, who spent last week with relatives and friends on North Inlet, returned to her home in North Bend Saturday.

WILLIAM STAUFF and MISS MAY
few months' visit with relatives and friends at Portersville and other points in California.

MR. and MRS. EUGENE O'CONNELL are spending a few weeks in rest and recreation in southern California. They are making their temporary home at the Hotel Lankershim, Los Angeles.

Out Again. M. A. Sweetman was able to be on the street yesterday for the first time since the accident in which he shattered a few ribs. He is still pretty sore, but pleased to be able to be about.

Coos Inventors.—The following patents have been granted to Coos county people: C. E. Ryder, Myrtle Point, planing saw; A. E. Shuster, North Bend, device for supporting umbrellas and the like.

Home Again.—Arno Meehan, general superintendent for the C. A.
Smith Co., has returned from a business trip to San Francisco, where he made an investigation of the distributing yards of the company near that point.

Expenses of Curry.—The total expenses of Curry county for 1907 was $12,152.02; the county received $924.10 from fees collected by the county clerk, and $350.17 from U. S.
5 per cent fund, making a total of $1,274.27.

Visitors Here.—Mrs. A. J. Krantz, who has been visiting her relatives here, left by Monday's stage for her home in Portland via Coos Bay, where she will visit her sister, Mrs.
T. L. Carey. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. F. A. Stewart, who will spend a few weeks at North Bend before returning.—Port Oxford Tribune.

Alliance Due Out.—The Alliance is due to leave Wednesday morning at the service of the tide.

Council Meeting.—The Marshfield city council will meet in regular session tonight.

Lumber From Reynolds Mill.—The Reynolds mill sent a scow load of spruce lumber to the box factory at North Bend Monday.

"Mazook" Recovers.—Mazook Anderson, having recovered from his late attack of illness, is again on duty at the Hermitage saloon.—Bandon Recorder.

Afternoon Tea.—A number of her lady friends were most delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs.
Charles Nicholson, Marshfield, yesterday at afternoon tea.

Condensary Location.—Jas. Stitt, of Portland, representing a condensed milk factory machinery company, is now looking for a suitable location for a condensary in Coos county. He will investigate the field around Ban-don.

Temperance Lecturer Coming.— Miss Rose Adella Davison, national organizer of the W. C. T. U., is planning to come to Coos Bay next month on a lecture tour which she is now making of the state of Oregon.

A Good Plan.—Senator Fulton has introduced a resolution in congress calling for the use of the unexpended portion of a recent Coos Bay appropriation in the dredging of the harbor. Several thousand dollars are in the fund.

Ladies Art Club.—The Ladies' Art Club met Friday with Mrs.
George Shelly. A pleasant afternoon was spent and dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. W.
Snover on Friday, February 28.

Picnic in Park.—Miss Mabel Mitchell, music teacher in the North Bend school, last Saturday took about twenty-five of her pupils to the Simpson Park in North Bend, where an enjoyable picnic in celebration of Washington's birthday was had.

K. of P. Celebrates.—Saturday night, in North Bend, the K. of P. lodge celebrated its anniversary by a banquet and general good time.
Over forty guests were present, and all enjoyed thoroughly the excellent table delicacies which were prepared by home cooking.

Bandon Route to Frisco.—People at Coos Bay anxious to reach San Francisco in a hurry found the steamer Elizabeth going out of Bandon last Thursday a very convenient means of travel. Purser Biely told us that he sold eighteen tickets, and could have sold twenty more if accommodations offered.—Bandon Recorder.

Keane Takes New Job.—Edmund Keane has severed his connection with the Beaver Hill coal mine to accept a more remunerative position in a lumber camp farther up the railroad. He will be succeeded in his old job by Tom Moffett, formerly of Decatur, Ill., but recently of Old Mexico, and who came to the bay at the instance of Rex Large on the last Homer.

A Tip for Coos Candidates.—The Globe in speaking of J. S. Kennedy as one of the many candidates for sheriff of that county, has the following to say: "Tanbark is a game sport and promises a lively race for some of his opponents. He can open a Jack pot with ease, and can bet a bob-tailed flush harder than any other man in Curry." He is well known in Coos county.

Columbia Arrives.—The tug Columbia came into North Bend Monday, towing the Repeat from San Francisco. The Repeat will take a cargo of lumber from the Simpson mill for San Francisco. Captain Hansen of the Columbia did not learn the sad news of his wife's death until the boat's arrival. The captain's many friends on Coos Bay extend their heartfelt sympathy to him in his hour of bereavement.

Trout Biting Well.—Nimrods will be pleased to learn that fishing days are here again. Yesterday afternoon Jay Tower and his brother, I. R.
Tower, were up North Coos River and as a result of a few minutes fly casting they brought back a string of five trout, which are now on exhibition in the "Gunners" window on Front street. Trout are biting at Bend with an avidity which presages well for fishermen this year.

Meets Accident.—The gasoline engineer Berwick, which was scheduled to sail from Portland Thursday

NEXT FRIDAY, THE LADIES

Announcement was made at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce at its last meeting that on Friday night the library association would conduct the meeting. The occasion will be doubly interesting, because of the fact that the ladies of Marshfield, who are interested in the library movement, will conduct the meeting, and that the evening's program will be a decided departure from the usual Friday night proceedings of the Chamber was well attended. Three of Coos Bay's prominent attorneys delivered interesting talks on the general future prospects of this section. Judge Guerry, of North Bend, spoke on the need of harmony, not only on Coos Bay but in Coos county.
Attorneys Goss and Snover also gave expositions of the country's resources and unusual advantages.

Friday night's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. Although the exact nature has not been made public, assurance is given that the program will be unusually entertaining, and a large attendance is already assured.

for the Rogue river and the Siuslaw, was prevented from sailing by the accident to Captain Bowditch. The latter fell and broke his leg while attempting to board his ship. It has been impossible to get another captain for the craft and it is possible that she will be compelled to lay up until Captain Bowditch is able to return to duty.

Coal Bunkers Enlarged.—Masters & McLain have just completed an improvement to the coal bunkers that greatly facilitates and economizes the handling of coal for the local trade.
A chute has been installed from the north end of the bunkers which dumps when thrown into wagons standing on the new wharf. With this improvement the old method of loading on scows is dispensed with.

Progress Club to Meet.—On Tuesday, March 3, the Progress club will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Sengstacken. At this meeting the ladies of Marshfield's literary organization will discuss Samuel Taylor Coleridge and Robert Southey; Mrs.
M. C. Horton will give a paper on the former and Mrs. D. Y. Stafford will give a paper on the latter. As usual the trend of current events will be reviewed.

Leap Year Girls.—Two dainty little bits of lovely femininity arrived Sunday to bless and gladden two Coos Bay homes. William Strang, of the Finnish Co-operative Store, is the proud papa of one that tips the beam at 7½ pounds. The other came to the home of J. F. White, and weighs ten pounds. The mothers are both well and it is thought the fathers will recover by the time the little ladies arrive at an age to appreciate leap year possibilities.

New Jail Assumes Shape.—Under the skillful manipulation of the smithies a pile of long slim iron bars is gradually assuming the shape and character of what is officially termed a jail. From present appearances it will bear more resemblance, when completed, to a fish trap. It is to be divided into three cells, each of which will be utilized, under stress, for the sleeping off of those mental cobwebs commonly known as "toots," "packages," or "souzes."

Crystal Leap Year Program.— Leap year brides—and others—are especially requested to contribute their presence at the Crystal Theater this week. Messrs. McCullough & McCullough have had this week's program made to order for the newly-weds. No efforts have been spared in its cut and workman ship—even to the minutest detail—and they guarantee a faultless fit in every case. Tonight the special program will be put on. Demaris Gabbert, who made a tremendous hit last night, will render some delightful songs, and on the picture screen will be thrown among others, "The Magic Drawing Room," a lesson on how to furnish a cottage on Coos Bay; and "Her First Cake," which is a warning to prospectives to master the art of cooking before entering double harness.
