MISS EVA REED was a city visitor yesterday.

MISS AGNES EFFERS was a city visitor today.

MRS. FRANK ROGERS was a city visitor yesterday.

MRS. D. B. BOWER was shopping in this city today.

FRANK PIERCE, of Ten Mile, was a city visitor Friday.

MRS. M. MCGANN, of the Creamery, was a city visitor Friday.

SEYMOUR ERICKSON, of Ten Mile, was a city visitor Friday.

MRS. J. W. INGRAM was the guest of Mrs. Gale of North Bend Friday.

MISS EMMA ERICKSON has accepted a position as stenographer with Hall & Hall.

MAYOR L. J. SIMPSON, of North Bend, was a visitor at the C. A. Smith mill Thursday.

O. PETERSON is preparing to move to Eastside, where he has lately built a new residence.

ASSESSOR LAWRENCE is in Marshfield today taking a canvass of the city's wealth—and poverty.

DR. McCORMAC took a party of visitors over to the Smith mill this afternoon, on his launch Dixie.

MRS. WILLIAM HORSFALL, who has been in Portland for some time, returned on Friday's Breakwater.

MISS MINNIE PETERSON, of North Inlet, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. John Freeland, of North Bend.

MISS GENEVIEVE TELLEFSON, of Eastside, has been visiting with friends in North Bend for the last few days.

MRS. REUBEN CAVANAUGH, of Eastside, has been visiting with friends for some time past at Myrtle Point.

P. GULOVSEN, of South Marshfield, returned yesterday on the Plant from Los Angeles, where he has been for his health.

WILLIAM CANDLIN, of the Pacific Paper Co., returned to Coquille this morning after a few days business visit on the bay.

MR. PHELAN left Marshfield this morning for his home in Myrtle Point, having spent a few days on the bay attending to business affairs.

MISS EVA TYRREL has returned to Coos Bay after an absence of six years. Miss Tyrrel is visiting her mother Mrs. George Bolster, of North Bend.

CARL JOHNSON, of this city, departed from this city yesterday on the Plant for San Francisco, where he will remain for five or six weeks visiting with friends.

T. D. WRIGHT, of San Francisco, arrived in this city Friday and will remain for some time attending to business affairs and incidentally visiting with friends.

MRS. J. NOWLIN and daughter returned to Prosper today after having visited for about three weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Piper, of North Bend.

CARL HAYES, of North Bend, is spending the week with his grandmother, Mrs. Brown, at Coquille. Mrs. Brown has been seriously ill, but is now improving.

MRS. E. FAY and children, who have been spending the last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Simpson, of North Bend, left today for their home near Prosper.

HERBERT LOCKHART left yesterday for San Francisco for an indefinite period, during which he will attend to business affairs and also visit relatives and friends.

P. S. WEAVER, who has been very seriously ill for some time past, was at the last report improving. The sincere wish of his numerous friends is for his rapid recovery.

F. D. BRAKE, of Grant's Pass, is on Coos Bay investigating the resources of this country, with the intention of investing in real estate if satisfaction can be derived.

MISS MAY FISHER, of Portland, left here this morning for Bandon, where she will remain until the coming Wednesday, thence going by way of Roseburg on her return trip north.

R. S. KAUFMAN, representing M. Seller & Co., of Portland, who has been making his business circuit through Coos county for the past two weeks, leaves on the Breakwater for Portland.

E. B. NORRIS, the representative for Dunham, Carrigan and Hayden Co., of San Francisco, returned to Coos Bay today after having made a successful business tour of Bandon and the river towns.

MRS. A. RIDEOUT and children, formerly of Eastside, but late of Ashland, have gone to California for their health. The cold was too severe at Ashland for them, which necessitated a change of climate.

GEORGE WEAVER left this city yesterday for San Francisco, after having remained in Marshfield for a short time. Mr. Weaver was called to his home in this city on account of the illness of his father, P. S. Weaver, an old pioneer of Coos.

J. NELSON, and daughter, AGNES, left Marshfield yesterday for their old home in Minneapolis, where they will join Mrs. Nelson and remain permanently in the east. Mr. Nelson has been on Coos Bay for eight months in the employ of the C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing Co.

Fine Weather

like this will make anyone want to get into their glad rags and join the bunch. It's an easy thing to do if you happen to have the rags that suit you, but one sometimes finds it difficult to find what they want. Really, finding this I am making it my business to help you out. I can furnish you out with clothes made to order or I can make them myself for you.

Examine my sample books and you will be sure to find what you want.

The First Trust & Savings Bank Of Coos Bay

The largest capitalized and paid-in capital of any bank in Coos county, and, from depositors' standpoint, as well safeguarded.

Operating under new state law, it has broader privileges to extend to customers than under any other banking charter, and publicity as to its standing and condition is required, as well as having good bank supervision by a state bank examiner.

Special attention is called to the Savings accounts, which are received as low as $1.00, and upon which interest is paid. We solicit your business and invite your attention to its officers and directors.
