WANTED
 Mrs. Timmerman's Injuries Severe.—It was learned today that the injuries sustained by Mrs. Max Timmerman are more severe than were at first thought. She accidentally slipped and fell down stairs, sustaining a fracture of the hip.
 Butter Is Cheaper.—There has recently been quite a slump in butter, Superintendent Bessey of the local creamery announcing that the price had dropped from 40 cents to 36 1/2 cents. Good dairy butter is reported to be selling for about 24 cents.
 Buys Launch.—Robert Marsden has purchased the launch Millanta from George Thrush. The latter is now negotiating with Fred Messerle for the Buffalo Bill, Mr. Messerle having decided to take the engine out of it and put in a new and smaller launch.
 St. Patrick's Concert.—A pleasing St. Patrick's day concert was given in the Claymore concert hall yesterday and last evening, and was largely attended. The majority of the orchestra numbers were Irish pieces that brought forth hearty applause. Prof. Bucey lead the orchestra.
 Open Printing Office.—Stephens & Mills have opened a job printing plant at the corner of Sherman avenue and Lombard street, Plat B. They have a brand new outfit thru-out. They will obtain power from the new extension of electric light wires, which will furnish that vicinity with light.
 Launch New Boat.—The Ranger, John Swing's new boat, has been launched at the Holland ship yard. She is forty-six feet long, five feet deep, with a ten-foot six inch beam. A fifty-horse power engine has been installed in her, which will make the vessel suitable for outside work, as well as towing on the bay.

PORT ORFORD ITEMS.
 (From the Tribune.)
 The dairies in this vicinity expect to start up operations about the 15th of this month.
 Miss Myrtle Hodge, of Coquille, was in town Friday night on her way down the coast to teach a term of school in the Brushes creek district.
 Mr. Ames, the Bandon butcher, passed up the coast last week with some 12 or 15 head of beef cattle, which he had purchased at Euchre Creek from Delos Woodruff.
 We note by the Radium that A. Adolphson has secured the contract from R. D. Hume to erect a cold storage plant at this place. It is to be hoped that the statement is correct, and that the plant will be built during the summer, not on paper, as has been the case with the life saving station, but in reality. It would mean much for our little town.
THREE GOOD BUYS IN REAL ESTATE.
 Lot 40x140 and 3-room house on C street; this is an exceptional snap; $500.00, $400.00 will handle this deal. A block of 40 lots in Railroad Addition; we can give you a special price on these lots that will surprise you. Lot 70x140 in East Marshfield and a six-room residence; this is a bargain for $1,300.00.
 Don't fail to see us for good bargains.
