Daughter is Born.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vineyard of Eastside are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, the little Miss Vineyard arriving Thursday.

School is Out.—The winter term of the Daniels Creek school closed yesterday. The term has been very successful, and an appropriate program was held to mark the close. Robert Goetz, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for county school superintendent, was the teacher.

Art Club Meets.—The Ladies of the Art Club met with Mrs. Frank Sumner on Friday afternoon and spent the day in the usual industrious manner after which the hostess served a delicious luncheon. On next Friday, Mrs. B. C. Bradbury will entertain the club.

Bandon Prosperous.—M. A. Sweetman returned last night from Bandon where he has spent several days on business. He states that the town is enjoying an unusually prosperous spring, much building being underway. Everyone there is enthusiastic over the proposed paper and pulp mill which, they expect, will be built soon.

Hear Bad News.—Mrs. J. F. Stout, wife of the proprietor of the shoe shining stand in the Blanco barber shop was summoned to Portland by shop, was summoned to Portland by the announcement that their residence in Portland was burned. The message contained no particulars of the affair, and Mrs. Stout left on the Alliance Friday to learn the extent and details of the loss.

Coquille is Growing.—J. H. Crippen, the genial editor of the Coquille Valley Sentinel, spent yesterday and last night in Marshfield and North Bend on business. Mr. Crippen says that Coquille is prosperous, and that a large amount of building is being done there this spring. Mr. Crippen is an enthusiastic booster of Coos Bay and Coos county, ever talking and writing of its unbounded possibilities, and how it may be hastened by the co-operation of the citizens of the different cities and towns.

North Bend Party.—Mrs. H. E. Burmester entertained a large number of guests at her home in North Bend on Friday evening, in honor of her husband's birthday. Progressive bridge whist was the main feature of the evening's entertainment. Prizes were awarded, the consolations being given to Mrs. Hockett and Mr. Penoyer, and the first prizes to Mrs. F. H. Brigham and Dr. R. G. Gale. After whist a delicate luncheon was served by the hostess, and an interesting article was read by Mrs. Windsor in regard to the improvements accomplished by the ladies of the Beautiful America club. Among those present were: Messrs R. G. Gale, H. R. Bevier, C. J. Hockett, B. Penoyer and C. H. Brouillard; Mesdames R. G. Gale, H. R. Bevier C. J. Hockett, C. S. Windsor, F. H. Brigham and Misses Jennie Curren and Ruby Brigham.

BERWICK FAR ON THE SAND

Gasoline Schooner Which Ran Onto Spit Near Mouth of Siuslaw Still Fast.

Capt. Latham of the Roberts, which reached Coos Bay last night from Florence, stated today that the Berwick which recently ran on to a spit near the mouth of the Siuslaw during a storm, is still fast on the sands. Capt. Latham does not believe that the vessel is seriously damaged.

He stated this morning that she would probably remain fast on the sands for some time as she ran aground during flood tide and has been washed still farther on during the time that has intervened.

The Roberts' which is a steam tug owned by Wm. Kyle & Son of Siuslaw, brought down a load of salmon.

a visit for a few days with her mother, Mrs. Houton, of Myrtle Point.

MR. and MRS. ED. CLIMATE, of Portland, are late arrivals on Coos Bay. They may remain as permanent citizens.
