

BIG HIT BY BANDON BAND

Concert in Marshfield Saturday Night Enthusiastically Praised by Audience.

The concert given by the Bandon Band at the Masonic Opera House Saturday evening, was pronounced by local musicians and music lovers to be one of the best musical entertainments ever given on Coos Bay. The Opera House was well filled by an appreciative audience, all of the numbers being heartily applauded and many enthusiastically encored.

The program consisted of ten well selected numbers, a few of them being solos and duets. The rendition was good—especially good in view of the fact that few of the members of the organization are professional musicians as practically all of them have regular vocations and take up music only in spare moments. Director E. B. Kausrud was warmly praised for his work.

One of the hits of the evening was a short talk by Geo. P. Topping, who has "fathered" the organization and been a hard worker towards bringing it up to its present high standard, in which he thanked the audience for its liberal patronage and its praise. He said that the Bandon Band had not come to Marshfield exactly for the money there was in it, aside from the expectancy that the concert would at least defray the expense of the trip, but more for its own pleasure and for the purpose of furthering the harmony between Bandon and the other towns and cities of this vicinity. His declaration for greater harmony between the towns brought down the house and he was cheered lustily by practically every one in the audience showing that Marshfield is heartily in accord with this move.

After the close of the concert, a number of Marshfield business men discussed the advisability of having the band stay over and aid in the welcoming of the Nann Smith to Coos Bay. However, the organization could not remain. Nevertheless, it is the intention to have the band as one of the attractions at the Second Southern Oregon district fair on Coos Bay in August and also in Marshfield as often as the opportunity affords, the excellent impression made at Saturday night's concert insuring even a greater attendance at future appearances than welcomed it then.
