VOL. II.

THE DAILY COOS BAY TIMES, MARSHFIELD, OREGON, MONDAY, MARCH 30, 1908.

Former Speakeasy Man Electrocuted for Murdering Sweetheart.

ADmits Brutal Crime to His Clergymen.

Letters of Grace Brown, His Victim, Recalled as Classics of Simplicity.

AUBURN, N. Y., March 16.—Chester Gillette today told the facts of the murder of Grace Brown when he went to his electric chair without a sign of weakness. Gillette appeared to be confused by his sentence and in a statement by his spiritual advisors immediately after the execution, one of them made a confession of his guilt.

The statement, which is signed by the Rev. Henry McVurry and the Rev. Christian Lindley Ewing, says: "Because our relationship with Chester Gillette was privileged, we do not feel it wise to make a detailed statement. We can only say that no legal mistake was made in the case. Gillette, so far as the public was measured, presented, before and after his death, the public malefactor, public after his death, Gillette工业化"

Chester Gilbert, 27, electrocuted at Auburn, New York, March 16. (By Associated Press.)

Conclusions Successfully Defended.

The public was successful in its effort to bring to the bar of justice a man who had defied all attempts to bring him to book.

Considerable evidence was secured and to be presented in the case of the murder at Underwood, New York, of Grace Brown, who was murdered at the hands of Chester Gilbert, the man who was electrocuted at Auburn, New York, March 16.

to the bar of justice a man who had defied all attempts to bring him to book.

Considerable evidence was secured and to be presented in the case of the murder at Underwood, New York, of Grace Brown, who was murdered at the hands of Chester Gilbert, the man who was electrocuted at Auburn, New York, March 16.

to the bar of justice a man who had defied all attempts to bring him to book.

Considerable evidence was secured and to be presented in the case of the murder at Underwood, New York, of Grace Brown, who was murdered at the hands of Chester Gilbert, the man who was electrocuted at Auburn, New York, March 16.

to the bar of justice a man who had defied all attempts to bring him to book.

Considerable evidence was secured and to be presented in the case of the murder at Underwood, New York, of Grace Brown, who was murdered at the hands of Chester Gilbert, the man who was electrocuted at Auburn, New York, March 16.

to the bar of justice a man who had defied all attempts to bring him to book.

Considerable evidence was secured and to be presented in the case of the murder at Underwood, New York, of Grace Brown, who was murdered at the hands of Chester Gilbert, the man who was electrocuted at Auburn, New York, March 16.

to the bar of justice a man who had defied all attempts to bring him to book.

Considerable evidence was secured and to be presented in the case of the murder at Underwood, New York, of Grace Brown, who was murdered at the hands of Chester Gilbert, the man who was electrocuted at Auburn, New York, March 16.

to the bar of justice a man who had defied all attempts to bring him to book.