WEATHER FORECAST.

WESTERN OREGON.—Showers tonight or Tuesday. Possibly a light frost tonight with westerly wind.

Suffers from Boils.—W. A. Davenport is just recovering from a siege of boils. He claims to have had fifty of them.

Eugene O'Connell to Return.—Eugene O'Connell has written to Marshfield that he will shortly return to Coos Bay from Southern California where he has been spending the winter. His health is much improved.

New Quarters Ready.—The Christian Endeavor Society of the North Bend Presbyterian Church occupied their new quarters for the first time last evening. A suite of rooms in the basement of the church has been properly fitted up and decorated for the society which is rapidly becoming one of the leading factors for good in North Bend.

No Baseball Sunday.—The baseball practise yesterday was called off on account of rain. A large number of candidates had prepared for a workout and were much disappointed by the unfavorable weather. The North Bend team has organized with A. Whistnant as manager, Charles Kean captain and W. H. Wilson coach.

Urged Carter to Get Uniforms.—It is announced that Marshal Carter's appearance before the city council Friday evening to outline the need of uniforms for the Marshfield police force was in compliance with a special request. The idea that the Marshfield police should be properly uniformed was not original with Marshal Carter, it having been urged upon him by many who had seen the officers in Grants Pass, Roseburg and other cities, smaller than Marshfield, nicely uniformed and who thought that Marshfield should not remain in the rear. These facts, Marshal Carter simply presented to the council in order that the councilmen would be better able to judge the proposition.

BRIEF BANDON NEWS

Events of Busy City By The Sea as Told in the Recorder.

Mr. Scotton, who has so ably handled the editorial department of the Recorder for some time past, has resigned the position for business reasons and is no longer connected with the paper.

The "Bandon Concert Band" members on their return from Marshfield are loud in their praise of the hospitality and good treatment tendered to them by the people of Marshfield, also the railroad company and steamboat company and others along the line. The boys report having a first-class time and are anxious to go again.

A junketing party of several prominent Marshfield men was in Bandon a few days ago. They are reported to have been after Bandon real estate. Rummell, Flanagan, Sweetman, Stutsman and Dimmick were among the bunch. While here they offered Mr. Marshall liberal inducements to accept a site in Marshfield whereon to build the pulp and paper mill.
