Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a Class by Itself.
"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. E. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough Medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of coughs and colds of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine, it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by John Preuss.

A stunning girl wass wont to say,
"Who is that man with dress so neat?
He's all in style from head to feet."
Her friend looked up and said with a smile,
"His clothes are made in the best of style,
If you can find better I'll stand a treat,

Breakwater in Friday.—The steamship Breakwater will reach Coos Bay early Friday from Portland.

Undergoes Operation.—Mr. Berken of the Umpqua Life S. S., was operated on yesterday at the General hospital for abscess of appendix.

Doctor Removes.—Dr. B. P. Bambaugh is removing today from the Lockhart building into new offices in the Coos building.

Win Honors in School.—Rufus Weaver was second and Fred McCormac, third in the drawing contest of maps of South America in the Seventh grade. The work done by these pupils is pronounced excellent.

Electric Power Off Today.—Firms relying on electric power today had more less difficulty by the current going off. At the office of the Gas and Electric company it was stated that the trouble was due to repair work in progress on the down town lines.

Site Not Yet Secured.—The Eagles have not yet closed the deal for the lot at Queen and Sheridan where they expect to erect a club house. The lodge meets tonight and it was hoped to have the site secured so that other preliminaries could be attended to.

Occupy New Offices.—Dr. A. L. Houseworth and Dr. E. E. Straw are today moving into their new offices in the Planagan and Bennett bank's new building. They will have suites on the second floor and while they are not in partnership, they will have a reception-room in common.

Circulate Petitions.—H. E. Wilcox of McKinley, formerly captain of a life station, is entering the field as a candidate for county commissioner. His petition to go before the Republican primaries is being circulated by C. J. Mahoney. Mr. Wilcox aspires for the seat now held by Lloyd Spires.

Cardwell Will Speak.—W. W. Cardwell, the Roseburg lawyer who is a candidate for district attorney, is in Marshfield today. He has accepted an invitation to speak before the Chamber of Commerce Friday night. He is greatly interested in the Second Southern Oregon district fair and expects to have several horses entered for the races.

Mrs. Bargelt to Return.—Mrs. E. S. Bargelt who has been seriously ill at Portland has written to her husband that she is recovering rapidly and hopes to return to Marshfield in about a week. Mr. Bargelt returned from Portland a few days ago, having remained there until Mrs. Bargelt was out of danger. The favorable news concerning Mrs. Bargelt's condition will be welcomed by the many friends of the couple on Coos Bay.
