

The Social Side of Coos Bay

WOMEN

When Eve brought woe to all man-kind, Old Adam called her wo-man;
But when she woo'd with love so kind, He pronounced her woo-man.

But now with folly and with pride, Their husbands' pockets trimming,
The ladies are so full of whim,
The people call them whim-men.

THE DEBUTANTE PLAYS BRIDGE.

Let's see—what's trumps? O, Grace, your hat's a dear.
And so becoming, too. Girls, did you hear That Clara Gotrox is engaged at last,
And to a Count with a dreadful past And not a penny to his titled name?
(I dote on bridge; it's such a clever game.
Let's see—what's trumps?)
There's Catherine over there, And, entre nous, I hear she dyes her hair
And paints; but I might, too, with such a face!
(Oh, partner, did I really trump your ace?)

Who is that freak three tables to the right?
I saw her at the Wilbur-Brownes last night;
Some parvenu, no doubt, and, goodness knows,
I think a blacksmith must design her clothes.
(Are hearts or diamonds trumps?
Oh, that's a fact,
It's clubs.)
Some girls are so devoid of tact; That Carleton creature in the last year's hat Just makes me mad as mad—she's such a cat,
And nearly snaps your head off if you don't Keep absolutely dumb; of course I won't.

Oh, girls, Jack's so devoted it's a joke;
He's quite my shadow. What! Did I revoke?
Well, anyway, I think it's mean to take Three tricks from me for just that small mistake.
Bridge bores me frightfully, I'm bound to say, Though Jack says it's astounding how I play.
Why will some hostesses invite such frumps?
Oh, dear—my lead again? Let's see —what's trumps?
—Puck.

CLUB CALENDAR.

In the future this department will be a regular feature of the Saturday issue of The Times. The complete roster of officers will not be published every week but meetings will be announced and such other items of general interest as the Secretary or other members may prepare and forward to the Editor. It should be remembered that The Times is a tabloid journal with only a limited space and items, and articles must be brief.

An effort has been made to have this list complete and if any have been omitted it has been because the data could not be secured. The Times would be pleased if anyone knowing such omission would forward name of club and list. Secretaries of the different clubs are kindly requested to forward notices of meetings and other items of interest regularly each week to SOCIETY EDITOR TIMES,
Marshfield, Ore.

THIS WEEK

has been reported
"very full" socially each individual, while at the same time supposing it to have been very quiet for everyone to whom the announcement was made. This is accounted for by the fact that no large events are taking place in Lent, but small "evenings" and "afternoons" with just a few in attendance—"my most intimate friends, you know" —have been noticeable this week and everyone thinks that no one else did anything. Just as sure as Lent advances, those who have the habit of something doing all the time, must soak their accustomed recreation and the result is a growing number of these small affairs, and toward the latter part of Lent, the "small affairs" generally gather courage and develop into quite presentable society events.

The coming week will be much livelier. Already there is evidence of the awakening. Society is preparing to lay aside sack cloth and the ashes will be turned over to the garbage man. Several small "affairs" are scheduled now and others are in prospect. Maids and matrons are requested to assist in keeping the record by advising of the Editor of all little social events that the reports may be completed. You must not forget that The Times is your paper and that part of your share in its welfare is a little effort now and then as well as the contribution of cash. We trust you will pardon this "talking shop" but The Times desires very much that you not only feel a good paper and interesting but that you also prove your sincerity of purpose by your good work.

To change the subject abruptly perhaps the readers of The Times will be interested in the following story and possibly some of them would prefer this manner of handling social items. If so we will be glad to receive suggestions to that effect.

"Young man," said the editor to the new reporter, "you lack caution.
You must learn never to state a thing as a fact until it has been proved a fact. You are apt to get us into libel suits. Do not say, 'The cashier stole the funds,' say, 'The cashier who is alleged to have stolen the funds.' That's all—Oh, get something about that First Ward social tonight."

The next day, half-way down the social column, the editor saw the following cautious paragraph:
"It is rumored that a card party was given last evening to a number of reputed ladies of the First Ward.
Mrs. Smith, gossip says, was the hostess and the festivities are reported to have continued until 11:30 in the evening. The alleged hostess is believed to be the wife of John Smith, the so-called low-priced grocer."

Mrs. John S. Coke will entertain at Bridge on Thursday, April 23d.

Miss Agnes Hutchison will entertain the Priscilla Club on next Friday evening.

Congratulations are being offered to Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wright on the birth of a son.

Mrs. Henry Sengstacken will entertain the Progress Club on April 28th. The afternoon will be devoted to the study of the life and writings of the poet, Tom Moore.

Mrs. E. Mingus will entertain on Easter Monday. Bridge will be played. A number of invitations have been issued.

The Biographic Club will meet with Mrs. Otto Schetter on Thursday next. The subject for the afternoon will be William Cullen Bryant.

The Ladies Art Club met on Friday with Mrs. M. F. Flye. An industrious afternoon was spent after which a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Mrs. A. L.
Housewirth will entertain the club on Friday, April 24th.

Miss Nann Smith, Miss Adeline Smith and Mrs. Irwin who have been visiting on the Bay for several weeks will leave on the Nann Smith for San Francisco, Saturday, April 25th. Several hostesses have entertained for the Misses Smith and many have regretted not meeting Mrs. Irwin who has been ill ever since her arrival.

The A. N. W. Club was entertained by Mrs. John Bear at her residence on Pine street, Thursday, April 16th. Elaborate refreshments were served and a most enjoyable afternoon spent by the large number who attended. The subject of installing a public drinking fountain was discussed and also the advisability of inaugurating a cleanup day. The club will meet with Miss Susie Eickworth next Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mary Ethel Boone of Sumner and Mr. Lorenzo Dow Belleu of Marshfield, were quietly married on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kardell of South Marshfield.

A few guests witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev.
W. R. F. Browne of the Methodist Episcopal church. The bride is the daughter of Captain Boone of Sumner, and has lived on Coos Bay since her birth.

The groom is a lineman in the employ of the local telephone Company and has lived in Marshfield for several years.

Miss Boone wore a white gille dress trimmed in lace, while the groom wore the conventional black.
The decorations were unobtrusive of Oregon grape ferns and huckleberry.
A dainty luncheon was served and enjoyment lasted far into the morning. Mr. and Mrs. Belleu began housekeeping immediately in their new home in South Marshfield.

The guest present were the immediate relatives and Misses Eva Wilson, Bessie Cowe, Mildred Coke, Marjorie Cowan and Myrtle Cowan.
