The Way to the Station.

A party of automobilists was touring through Virginia. An accident to the car forced them to take a train home. As they walked down the road seeking some one from whom they could inquire their way they met an old darky, says the Success Magazine. "Will you kindly direct us to the railroad station?" one of the party asked. "Cert'n'y, sir," he responded. "Keep a-goin' right down dis road till yo' gets to where two mo' roads branches out. Den yo' take de lef' one an' keep on a-goin' till yo' gets to where de ole postoffice uster be."

Creative.

A certain man coming from abroad was taken up by the smart set.

"We'll make a lion of him," quoth they, "for the distinction he will thereupon reflect upon us." But the man was too little. It takes much material to make a lion.

"Then we'll make a monkey of him," said the smart set, determined to have some exercise for their creative genius. Nor was the world the worse off. For, after all, it is the contribution to the gayety of nations that is especially needed.-Puck.

Disappointment.

Amateur Sportsman (after shooting best friend)-Too bad, too bad, but I thought you were a deer. The Victim -Don't fret. Amateur Sportsman-Don't fret! Why, man, I promised my wife a pair of horns.-Illustrated Bits.

The Main Trouble.

Wise-Oh, give us a rest for awhile, won't you? Doubley-Well, every fellow has a right to his opinion and-Wise-Yes, but the trouble is that he can't be made to realize that there may be a wrong to it .- Indianapolis News.

Patience.

Traveler (after waiting patiently for train for four hours)-She'll no be comin' the day, I doot? Porter-Hoots, mon, hae ye no patience? Ye'll just bide a wee while an' she'll be by!-Punch.

Indiscretion, malice, rashness and falsehood produce each other .- L'En-
