The last concert of the series given by Myers and Company of North Bend, was held on Saturday evening. These concerts have been held regularly once a week since the opening of the store two years ago. The musical program has always been excellent, and highly appreciated by the large audience that always attended. While it will be a loss to those seeking pleasure, it will greatly shorten the clerks' hours, enabling them more opportunity to indulge in recreation. Saturday evening's entertainment was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic audience, from Marshfield and North Bend.

WILLIAM LEE GREENLEAF will impersonate James Whitcomb Riley; Thos. Keene, Joe Jefferson, and others at the Opera House, Tuesday night, and will give scenes from Rip Van Winkle, Hamlet, etc. Don't fail to see him. Reserved seats, 50c at Tutler's.
