Ex-Supervisor Jas. L. Gallagher has Narrow Escape From Bomb in Oakland.

HOMES WRECKED BY THE EXPLOSION.

Gallagher Has Been Giving Principal Evidence for State Against Ruef.

(At Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29—Former supervisor of the city of Oakland, Calif., was narrowly missed by a bomb recently. The home of Mr. L. S. Clark, who owns the building in which the bomb was planted, was wrecked. The explosion occurred while the defendant was returning home. The building had been closed for some time.

DASTARDLY ATTEMPT TO KILL "FRISCO BRIEBRY CASE WITNESS"

In the absence of any further information, the following is copied from the telephone wire:

"The explosion occurred while the defendant was returning home. The building had been closed for some time."

PAPER TRUST IS CONDEMNED

Members of Associated Press
Also Criticise Congress And Census Bureau.

By (Associated Press).

WASHINGTON, April 30—The annual meeting of the Associated Press
at the home of its treasurer-Washington, D.C., was attended by several hundred members, a large number of whom were from the west. The members of the Press were interested in hearing the address of Mr. J. B. Bridges and his statement as to the future plans of the Press.

BUILD HOTELS INDEPENDENT

J. B. Bridges and Coos Bay Hotel Company Will Not Merge Proposals.

At a meeting today members of the Coos Bay Hotel Company, organized by Mr. J. B. Bridges, and the Coos Bay and White Salmon Hotel Company, were present. The meeting was held in the White Salmon Hotel. The president, Mr. J. B. Bridges, announced that the company would not merge the proposals.

MANY HOMES BEING BUILT

Eureka and Breakwater in Contest Despite Extremely Rough Sea.

(At Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 30—A large number of vessels are building with great interest to the owners of the vessels. There are over 100 vessels in construction. Some are having their keels laid and others are being completed. The largest vessel in construction is the "Elks," which is expected to be ready for service in the spring.

VESSELS RACE TO PORTLAND

Large Number of Substantial Improvements Planned in North Bend For 1908.

Numerous new improvements are underway in North Bend and the owners of the various businesses are spending large sums of money for the goal of bettering the business. The first improvement is the laying of a new water main along the main street.

MANY ELECTRIC LINES TO BE BUILT IN OREGON SOON

Network of Interurbans for Northern and Central Part
Of State Projected by Syndie
Dwight Bank of New York
Banking House—Salmon Will Be Hub.

(Special To The Times.)

PORTLAND, April 30—A project for the development of the interurban electric system has been announced by the Dwight Bank.

California Mob Hangs Murderer to Telegraph Pole

FLY WHEEL KILLS TWO

Belt Catches Fire and Hupe Wheel Breaks Near Chicago. III.

(At Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 30—As a result of the burning of a fly wheel at the North Shore Electric Company plant at Washington at midnight, two men were killed and two seriously injured. The fire of the fly wheel caught fire and when the belt of the fly wheel burst into one of the

WOLVERINE MAKES FAST RUN FROM BAY TO BENDIXTON

New Road Between Twin Bridges and a Willamette River Bridge Completed.

(At Associated Press.)

TWIN BRIDGES, April 30—Work has been completed on the new road between Twin Bridges and a Willamette River Bridge. The road is expected to be ready for use by the public in the near future.

COURT TERM OPENS FRIDAY

Large Number of Cases On Docket for Trial at This Session at Coquille.

The Coquille Circuit Court is to open the session on Friday, May 1, with about 240 cases on the docket. The session will run until the end of June.

WOLVERINE MAKES FAST RUN FROM BAY TO BENDIXTON

New Road Between Twin Bridges and a Willamette River Bridge Completed.

(At Associated Press.)

TWIN BRIDGES, April 30—Work has been completed on the new road between Twin Bridges and a Willamette River Bridge. The road is expected to be ready for use by the public in the near future.

Calif. Mob Hangs Murderer to Telegraph Pole

FLY WHEEL KILLS TWO

Belt Catches Fire and Hupe Wheel Breaks Near Chicago. III.

(At Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 30—As a result of the burning of a fly wheel at the North Shore Electric Company plant at Washington at midnight, two men were killed and two seriously injured. The fire of the fly wheel caught fire and when the belt of the fly wheel burst into one of the