J. H. BRIDGES GIVES UP GULOVSON CORNER LEASE Decides to Take Another Location in Marshfield for His Proposed Improvement. It was announced today that J. H. Bridges, just prior to his departure on the M. F. Plant for San Francisco, had relinquished his twenty-year lease on Peter Gulovson's property at the southwest corner Broadway and 'C' streets. Mr. Bridges, through his agents, Stutsman and Company, however, announces that the action does not mean that he will leave Marshfield or give up his proposed building. It is stated that he has another site that he deems better for his venture. It is also announced that Mr. Bridges will return with his family from Frisco in about two weeks and will be in readiness to begin building operations at once on the new site.

Will Erect Building. — Mrs. Lizzie Bentz will erect a two-story cottage in Bunker Hill addition.

Will Hold Social. — The Baptists Young People's Union will hold their regular monthly business meeting and social session with Claude Stutsman at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Stutsman, Friday evening.

Boy Not Found. — No trace has yet been found of Allen Varney, the five-year old Eastside lad, who suddenly disappeared last week. Careful watch is being kept so that the body will be recovered, should it be washed up soon as will be the case if the boy was drowned, as is now generally believed.

Will Occupy Building. — The Title Guarantee and Abstract Company will shortly move into the building on Front street, which was vacated by the Flanagan and Bennett bank. Negotiations are now on for the leasing of the quarters now occupied by the Title Guarantee and Abstract Company.

Stage to Sunset Bay. — Announcement was made today that commencing Monday, May 3d, the North Bend Stables will operate a stage regularly between Coos Bay and Sunset Bay, leaving Coos Bay on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays. This will be a great convenience to pleasure parties desiring to secure the advantages of Sunset Bay as a resort for little outings.

No Council. — No meeting of the council was held last evening, City Recorder Upton being busy at court at Coquille. At the next session, it is expected that the proposed West Marshfield and Baines street sewage systems will come up for discussion. City Engineer Sandberg now being busy preparing plans for them. The West Marshfield sewer is to empty into Mill Slough and the Bain street system into Coal Bank Slough.

Returns With Bride. — Waldo L. Waley, manager of the Coos Bay Bedding and Upholstery Company, has returned from the East and much to the surprise of friends here brought with him a bride, and Miss Grace Merriman having been united in marriage at her home in Chicago a few weeks ago. While Mr. Waley's friends are a little bit angry because he did not let them in on his secret, still the host of them unite in extending congratulations and a welcome to himself and bride.

MESSIAH chorus rehearsal tonight. We are now prepared to store your goods. Bay Side Paint Co., North Bend.

Personal Notes

D. R. HATCHER of Coquille, is in Marshfield on business. W. O. BRIGGS has returned from a business trip to Coquille. CAPTAIN BOWDICH of Florence, came down to Coos Bay yesterday on business. JOE SCHOOLY has accepted a position as clerk with Ekblad & Sons Hardware Company. C. E. HOUSER, the well-known merchant at Bridge, was in Marshfield yesterday on business. HUGH McLAIN went to Coquille today on business and incidentally to do a little handshaking in behalf of his candidacy for state senator. MR. GEO. EKBLAD left this morning on the Alliance. Mr. Ekblad is going to North Dakota on business and will be absent an indefinite time.

MISS BLANCHE CAMPBELL is taking a vacation from her duties in the J. W. Bennett office and will spend most of the time with a sister in Portland.

WM. PANTER, a merchant at Bandon, was on Coos Bay yesterday arranging to take the examination for an engineer's license to permit him to operate a launch in those waters.

THOMAS CARTER will leave in the morning for Florence, covering his territory en route, and thence going overland to Drain where he will take the train for San Francisco to visit the home offices and incidentally to see the demonstration for the fleet.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Mrs. Nelson of North Inlet, was a North Bend shopper yesterday.

The schooner Advent, which loaded here will sail sometime today for San Francisco.

Dr. O. E. Smith of Eugene, who is visiting here, went to Marshfield yesterday on business.

Miss Emma Jacobson spent yesterday with her mother, Mrs. Hunter, in North Bend.

A. B. Daly of Marshfield was here yesterday looking after business interests in North Bend and Porter.

Mrs. Evan Hodson of South Coos River, who was quite ill at her home last week is reported improving.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Riggs, Miss Anna Jacobson and Goldie Riggs of North Bend, and Mrs. J. W. Riggs of Marshfield spent Sunday with O. Peterson and family at May's Inlet.

The Bridges quartette of Chicago, will give their farewell concert at the Methodist Episcopal church in North Bend tonight. Professor Forman of the quartette, is the son of a classmate of the Rev. Lacey of North Bend, when the latter was attending college in Nebraska.

W. A. Willard, who was foreman of the Dean Lumber Company's mill twenty years ago, has written friends here that he now has a nice farm at Sumner, Wash., and is enjoying rural life. Two of his daughters, Belle and Mable are married while Ralph and Hulda, his other children, are still at home. He had recently been suffering from poor health but hopes to rapidly recuperate now.

THE CHANGE of program at the Crystal last night was presented to capacity houses. "A Perfect Nuisance" and "Scratch My Back" are laugh producers from start to finish. The illustrated songs rendered by Demaris Gabbert made a distinct hit. "If I Only Had a Home Sweet Home" is a child-song that appeals to everyone, and "Come and Put Your Arms Around Me" is one of the latest catchy love songs. The whole program is entertaining and thoroughly enjoyable.
