Will Open Camp.—The Smith-Powers Logging Camp, No. 2, will open for the season the first of next week. It is located near Cunningham.

Nann Smith In.—The Nann Smith arrived in Coos Bay today from San Francisco and went to her dock at the C. A. Smith mill where she will load again for the south.

Raises Much Celery.—Henry Graves of Shinglehouse Slough, was in Marshfield this week on business and while here announced his intention of engaging in the truck gardening business on a heavy scale. He has about two acres of celery beds this season.

Socialists Get Hall.—It is announced that the local branch of the Socialists will occupy the hall on the second floor of the Nelson building on Front street, across from the City Hall, the Finnish societies having given it up owing to their fine new temple on 'C' street in West Marshfield being almost ready for occupancy.

Racer is Improving.—"Teddy," the promising galloper of John R. Herron's string, is reported improving and may soon be able to be put into training. The horse suddenly went lame last season and while everything possible was done for him, he did not appear to improve until a few weeks ago.

News of Shipping.—The Alliance will sail from Portland at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, reaching Coos Bay early Monday. The Plant sailed from San Francisco Thursday afternoon and will reach here early Saturday. The launch Enterprise is being delayed here again for repairs to her engines.

Eagles Memorial Day.—The local lodge of Eagles will hold their annual memorial exercises Sunday. The members will meet at their hall at 9 o'clock Sunday morning and march in a body to the cemetery where they will decorate the graves of their departed brothers. The complete program will be announced tomorrow.

Lawyers Home Today.—A majority of the Coos Bay lawyers returned last night from Coquille where they have been in attendance at court. Owing to the Olin trial being on, it was decided that there would be no opportunity for a day or two to take up any other business. Court will last at least another week.

Will Help University.—Judge Potter of Eugene, who has been working in this section in behalf of the appropriation for Oregon State University last night, addressed a meeting of Coquille business men. Resolutions indorsing the appropriation were adopted.

The Crystal.—The film "In an Arm Chair" at the Crystal last night proved to be a genuine laugh producer. It is one of the funniest moving pictures ever shown here. "Reggy's Camping Party" was a close second in popularity. This film shows the amusing incidents and mishaps of a camping party, one of the scenes showing the original bear-bug. "Vestivus Near Naples" consists of actual scenes taken on and about this famous volcano. The illustrated songs were well presented.

Will Test Clay.—J. H. Bridges has informed friends here that he

Personal Notes

ROY GREGORY and wife, arrived on Coos Bay today from Baker City, Ore. Mr. Gregory is a pharmacist and will take a position at the Everitt pharmacy in North Bend.

W. R. F. BROWNE leaves tomorrow for Gardiner where he will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, in place of the Presiding Elder, Captain Schmebl of North Bend, will occupy the pulpit in the Marshfield Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning and evening.

The Rev. D. W. THURSTON of the Baptist church, will leave on the next Plant for San Francisco, to attend the annual session of the Pacific Coast Baptist Conference which will open at Oakland, May 11th, and last about a week. Some of the most prominent members of the Baptist church in America will be in attendance to address the conference which includes that section of the United States, between Denver and the Pacific. Alva Doll was elected as the other delegate from Coos Bay and will probably leave in a week. The object of the conference is to secure a greater unity in church work, the motto being, "Get Together."

THE handsome cue given as a prize for the highest run in billiards at the Bird Billiard Parlors, was won by F. M. Rummell, with a score of 20 points. Two more cues will be given away this month at this place one for the highest run in pool and one for the highest run in billiards.

will bring a brother, who is an expert brick-maker in California, here within a few weeks to test the clay deposits in this vicinity. While some brick are made here and some very good samples are shown, it is said that it has been almost impossible to burn an entire kiln of good bricks. Whether this has been the fault of the clay, method or machinery, Mr. Bridges will endeavor to definitely determine.
