The Woolen Mill Store

Mill to Man Clothiers

Open for Business

TODAY

In starting the Woolen Mill Store in Marshfield we do so believing there is a splendid future ahead of this section of Oregon, and that there is an opening here for a strictly First Class Up-to-date Clothing and Woolen Goods Store.

To many people in Coos county, the names of the old reliable

BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILLS and SALEM WOOLEN MILLS

with both of which we are closely identified are household words. The Woolen Mill Store in Portland, which is the Parent of this store has for over thirty years held its place as the leading clothing house in the Northwest.

Popular Low Prices on Clothing and Woolen Goods

We make clothing clear from the sheep back to the men, and there is no cotton added while the cloth is in the making.

The policies here as well as in Portland are to give every man a Square Deal, no Cotton or Shoddy Clothing will be sold over our counters.

Popular low prices will prevail on all lines of goods. Men's Suits start at $8.50, and splendid patterns can be had at $12.50 and $15.00. Oregon flannel Overshirts, Underwear, Blankets, and Hosiery will be carried in large quantities.

We cater especially to the boys—who will be the men of the future—here are many surprises in store for them. Beautiful and useful presents will be given free with boys suits: Watches, Knives, Balls and Catcher Mitts are all absolutely free with Boys' Suits.

We extend a hearty invitation to every man, woman and child in Coos county to visit us. We want to get acquainted and show

Did He See the Point?

A young woman of the official set in Washington at a public function found herself bored by the attentions of a fresh young man, the son of a senator. Soon after his introduction he proceeded to regale her with a story of some adventure in which he had figured as hero.

"Did you really do that?" she asked, not knowing what else to say.

"I done it!" was the proud response, and he began forthwith another lengthy narrative, more startling even than the first. The young woman again politely expressed her surprise.

"Yes," said the hero, "that's what I done!"

A third story followed, with another "I done it!" whereupon the girl remarked:

"Do you know, you remind me so strongly of Banquo's ghost in the play?"

"Why?"

"Don't you remember that Macbeth said to the ghost, 'Thou canst not say I did it!'—Lippincott's."

Men Don't Change.

Dad (severely)—And look here, Ethel, you musn't encoura that young man to stay so late every night. It's disgraceful. What does your mother say about it?

Ethel—She says men haven't altered a bit, dad.

What She Was Working For.

Mrs. Jenkins had missed Mrs. Brady from her accustomed haunts and, hearing several startling rumors concerning her, went in search of her old friend.

"They tell me you're workin' 'ard night an' day, Sarah Ann?" she queried.

"Yes," returned Mrs. Brady, "I'm under bonds to keep the peace for pullin' the whiskers out of that old scoundrel of a husband' of mine, and the magistrate said that if I come afore 'im ag'in or laid me 'ands on the old man he'd fine me 40 shillin'!"

"And so you're workin' 'ard to keep out of mischief?"

"I'm what! Not much! I'm workin' 'ard to save up the fine!"

The Winds of the World.

Apart from the winds of regular habit there are the many local winds which occur in different parts of the world and are generally unkind in character. Of such may be mentioned the monsoon, simoom, sirocco, harmattan, the puna of Peru, the bitter north-easter of Britain, the mistral of Marseilles and that coast, the rampero of the Andes. With all these local breezes, though, in fact, they are oftentimes gales of some velocity, many curious effects are coupled, and one of the most noticeable of these is that the blowing of the genuine nor'easter at home is always coincident with the greatest number of deaths from consumption and brain disease. — Singapore Free Press.

Twelve stamps were sent, and the instructions given were:

The annual income of a successful bullfighter attains enormous proportions. It is not infrequent for one of these popular heroes to make something like $50,000 a year. Frequently they are mere boys, and very few of them remain in the ring after thirty-five years of age.
