

CLEANUP DAY PROVES GREAT SUCCESS IN MARSHFIELD TODAY

Everyone Enters Into the Spirit Of the Plan and Wonders Are Accomplished.

TONS OF GARBAGE ARE HAULED AWAY.

Transformation in Appearance Makes City Look Like Spottless Town.

The transformation accomplished in many sections of Marshfield this forenoon by the "Clean-up day" program was marvelous. That such a comparatively small amount of work by each one, but great in the volume, could accomplish so much was a wonder even to the most enthusiastic advocates of the project.

Nearly everyone entered into the spirit of the day with enthusiastic cooperation. A dozen or more teams started at work early this morning hauling away the debris and rubbish that was raked into piles along the streets. The volume of garbage to be hauled, however, was greater than anticipated and scores of loads of it were still heaped up on the streets this afternoon. The teamsters are still busy and it is expected that everything will be removed by tomorrow.

The women and children proved to be the best workers generally, they doing the work around the residences. They started early this morning and in some neighborhoods it was a race to see who could finish first and do the best job.

Broken Utensils Go.

The number of old tin cans, broken stoves and castoff household articles was a surprise and the bad effect their old locations in the yards had on the appearance of the places was not realized until they had been removed.

At any rate, nearly everyone got the "Clean-up day spirit and the effect of it will be felt tomorrow, the next day and many days to come. More slightly yards, back yards, streets and alleys will be presented by Marshfield in the future.

The few who were not able to get the work underway this morning were preparing to get at it late today and early this evening. The few who are holding back will probably be forced into it by tomorrow when they see what their neighbors all around them have done.

Dr. E. Mingus, city health officer, and Marshal J. W. Carter will now continue the campaign for "Marshfield beautiful" and the ones who have not voluntarily entered into the movement for a prettier and more sanitary city will be compelled to by law.

Everywhere were words of praise spoken for the members of the A. N. W. Club and the women of Marshfield in general for starting and carrying out the project and also for the Chamber of Commerce which extended every possible aid.

CLOSE NORTH BEND SCHOOLS

Various Kinds of Ills Among Pupils Caused Board to Declare Vacation.

Owing to illness of various kinds among the pupils of the North Bend, Dr. Gale, the health officer, and Superintendent Raab this morning decided to close them for a week. The pupils were dismissed and immediately the fumigation of the rooms and buildings was begun under the supervision of Dr. Gale.

"There have been a few cases of scarlet fever here but not sufficient to warrant the closing of the schools," remarked Dr. Gale this morning. "The principal reason for closing the schools was a peculiar skin disease that has been bothering the pupils for the past month, indicating that it was contagious to a certain extent. We have also had trouble with the mumps and measles during the winter and we decided that it would be the proper thing to close down for a while and permit the fumigation of the rooms and a general cleaning up."

COURT FINES WILCOX $650

Liquor License of North Bend Man Also Revoked as Result Of Offenses.

(Special to The Times.)

COQUILLE, Ore., May 6.—Judge Hamilton in the circuit court today imposed sentence on J. C. Wilcox, the North Bend dance hall proprietor, who was found guilty of conducting a house of ill-fame and selling liquor to minors. On the first, he was fined $500 and on the second a fine of $150 was imposed and his liquor license revoked.

Some expected that Wilcox would be punished with a jail sentence, but the action of the court will, it is understood, practically put Wilcox out of business.

Wm. Ferry of North Bend, who was found guilty of gambling has not been sentenced yet.

The case of the Pioneer Hardware Company of Marshfield vs. Geo. Farrin resulted in the company being given a verdict for $190.

Today, the damage suit of Grace Fielder, administratrix of the estate of James Fielder vs. the Local Railway Company, is on trial today.

WELCOME FLEET TO SAN FRANCISCO SERIES OF CRIMES THOUGHT TO BE REVEALED IN INDIANA

Battleships Come to Anchor in Golden Gate Harbor This Morning.

MANY UNITE IN GREETING.

Thousands From Throughout The West Gather at San Francisco For Event.

THE FLEET ON THE COAST.

Out there in California They are pawing up the soil, They are letting go of business And neglecting of their toil; They're forgetting their religion In the house and on the street, And likewise too their politics— They're dotty on the fleet.

They are loading up the jackies With a cargo of pink teas, They are crowding them with welcome As the heroes of the seas; They've taken off the lid of things And made the whole coast free For every tarry visitor Who came to them by sea.

They have set the valiant officers On pinnacles of fame, They've filled their veins with native blood Which gets there just the same; They have given them the climate In its glory and its bloom, With an affidavit showing It will drive away all gloom.

They swim out in the briny deep By either day or night To meet the coming warships Before they get in sight; They flock around the anchored steel Like fish around the bait, And shout their joy along the coast Up to the Golden Gate.

Oh, say,
Out California way,
When they do things
They do 'em on wings,
It's the boast
Of the coast

That nowhere else on earth is found
The California greet,
And now they're handing out their best—
They're dotty on the fleet.

L'ENVOI.
And Roosevelt, as the fleet makes good,
Smiles some, but goes on sawing wood.
W. J. LAMPTON.

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—With many thousands of people on hill tops, along the wharves and in small vessels shouting and waving welcome, the Atlantic fleet of the United States Navy entered the world renowned Golden Gate Harbor this afternoon. No greater welcome could be accorded to anything anywhere than was given by Californians and the thousands of westerners who had gathered here to witness the arrival of the fleet. No definite estimate of the immense throng that witnessed the beautiful marine picture is obtainable.

The sixteen battleships, accompanied by six torpedo boat destroyers and a squadron of auxiliary and dispatch boats sailed into the harbor in a body ready to be reviewed two days hence by the secretary of the United States Navy in honor of the completion of the first great stage on the cruise around the world and to be entertained in the most picturesque fashion that the residents of San Francisco, having at their disposal an immense fund, can devise. Rear Admiral Evans who rejoined the fleet yesterday was in command on the flagship Connecticut. Fourteen vessels of the Pacific fleet will join the Atlantic fleet here in the greatest naval parade that America has ever known.

Represent the West.

The great crowd was not alone the outpouring of nearly every resident of the city who was able to drop their work or past time long enough to catch a glimpse of the incoming ships, but was a representation of scores of citizens of Calif., Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and other States, who were attracted here by the fame of the fleet whose progress has been watched almost every hour since it set out upon its epochal journey to western seas. Today, the city gave itself over entirely to the welcome. Affairs of the outside world held no interest.

MARTIN HAS BAD RECORD

Portland Man Accused of Murdering Wolff in Many Mixups.

(By Associated Press.)

PORTLAND, May 6.—Nothing of a startling nature developed today in the Nathan Wolff murder case. The police are more than ever confirmed that their belief that E. H. Martin killed Wolff. Martin is plainly showing the effects of the action of the police in shutting off his supply of drugs and it is expected that he will make some sort of a statement very soon. Today, however, he denies his guilt in every particular.

ACCUSED OF MURDER.

Martin Once Held For Killing Partner In Mining Claim.

(By Associated Press.)

PORTLAND, May 6.—A special to the Telegram from Lewiston, Ida., says that Edward H. Martin, under arrest in Portland for the alleged murder of Nathan Wolff, was suspected of the alleged murder of his partner in February, 1905, in the Thunder Mountain mining district where his parents had purchased an interest in a mining claim. The body of his partner was not found, and Martin was released the following October.

While confined in jail, he endeavored to secure his liberty by burning the jail building.

After his release, he came to Lewiston and afterwards was arrested in Moscow and Wallace on charges of insanity, but was discharged as his derangement was caused by the excessive use of drugs. No trace of his partner in the mining claim has ever been secured.

Many More Corpses Unearthed on Guinness Farm Near La Porte.

SEARCH OF PLACE IS BEING PUSHED.

Mysterious Murders Thought to be Explained—No Clues Found Yet.

(By Associated Press.)

LAPORTE, Ind., May 6.—A gang of men excavating on the Guinness farm today came upon a disturbed spot within six feet of the place where yesterday four bodies were dug up and, upon digging three feet down, struck a wooden box which fell in pieces. Search revealed the body of a man face downward.

Seventh Body Found.

The body of the sixth victim was unearthed about 11 o'clock, and this afternoon still another body was found.

The first of these two was of an adult and been buried probably two years. The latter was that of an adult but the sex was not determined because the body had been dismembered.

Suspect Mrs. Guinness.

From out of the tangled and sensational evidence, which indicates that Mrs. Guinness was one of the most monstrous murderers of this age, there developed today the startling theory that the woman did not die in the fire which destroyed her home on the night of April 28th, and that she is still alive and in hiding probably in Chicago. This theory is also strengthened by the fact that the head of the body of the woman found in the ruins of the Guinness home after the fire is still missing although every effort has been made to find it.

Killed Own Children.

Unless the head is found today, the officers will make a postmortem examination of the remains of "Mrs. Guinness" and subject them to a more careful analysis to learn whether the woman was herself killed or she substituted the body of one of her female victims for herself and then set fire to the house to cover up her crime. In case it is proved that Mrs. Guinness substituted the body of another woman for her own, it is very likely that she is also guilty of the murder of her three children.
