Young Couple Weds.—Alexander Hongell and Irene Strang were united in marriage at the Swedish Lutheran church Saturday evening, May 2, by the Rev. Bengtson. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Kroonquist. Only immediate relatives and intimate friends were present. The groom is a ship carpenter.

Court Will Last Several Days.—Judge Hamilton has decided to continue the session of circuit court at Coquille longer than he originally expected and will endeavor to clear the docket. He has secured Judge Harris of Eugene to go to Roseburg and open court there and preside until he is able to leave Coquille.

Buys Fast Launch.—George Goodrum yesterday purchased a new launch from F. E. Boden that is declared to be the fastest craft on the Bay. The boat will accommodate eight passengers and has attained a speed of twelve miles per hour. Mr. Goodrum hasn't named it yet and is open for suggestions as to the proper appellation for the launch. It has been suggested that "Goodrum's Special" would be the proper name but the naming of it may be postponed until a few of the probable challenges for speed supremacy are settled.

SMITH MILL MAKES BIG CUT

Output Reaches 253,159 Feet of Lumber Daily Which Exceeds Planned Capacity.

The C. A. Smith mill made its record cut of lumber on Monday, May 4, when 253,159 feet passed the saws and sizers and entered the finished product of commerce.

Accomplishing this unusual record in so short a time from the commencement of operations of a new mill of large capacity is a remarkable achievement. The mill was planned Oren and Superintendent Meehan and their splendid staff of assistants in all departments.

In speaking with a Times reporter, Manager Oren said that while they were gratified with the showing they were not yet satisfied, but hoped to still further increase the output within the next few weeks, for 250,000 feet as the days work and within a few weeks with all new machinery and much of it of a character that was unfamiliar to the workmen the days cut exceeds the planned capacity by 3,159 feet. It reflects great credit on Manager

MESSIAH Chorus Ladies' rehearsal is postponed to Monday at 2 p. m., at studio of Mr. Todd, on account of funeral of Mrs. Owen.
