Rear Admiral Evans gives up command of the fleet.

Commander of the Atlantic Battlefront Squadron Forced to Retire.

He may be made a vice admiral.

Admiral Thomas Temporarily succeeds—Spyring new commander.

(To By Associated Press.)

The Navy Department announced today that Rear Admiral Thomas on the Mississippi was named as the successor of Rear Admiral Evans, who was named Commander of the Atlantic Battlefront Squadron.

The news was confirmed by Rear Admiral Charles Evans, who was named by Rear Admiral Evans as the successor of Rear Admiral Thomas.

Evans entered the Navy in 1900 and was commissioned as a lieutenant in 1905.

The appointment of Rear Admiral Evans as Commander of the Atlantic Battlefront Squadron was made on the recommendation of Rear Admiral Thomas, who was named as the successor of Rear Admiral Evans.

The appointment of Rear Admiral Evans as Commander of the Atlantic Battlefront Squadron was made on the recommendation of Rear Admiral Thomas, who was named as the successor of Rear Admiral Evans.

The appointment of Rear Admiral Evans as Commander of the Atlantic Battlefront Squadron was made on the recommendation of Rear Admiral Thomas, who was named as the successor of Rear Admiral Evans.

A Real Newspaper, ALCAT, OR. 31-9-1917

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

VOL. II.

NO. 261.

A REAL NEWSPAPER.

Coos Bay Times, BAY, OREGON, SATURDAY, MArch 9, 1908.

KILL SOLDIER AND TRY TO CREMATE REMAINS IN FURNACE.

GHOSTLY CRIME IS REPORTED TO HAVE OCCURRED AT FORT WORDEEN LAST NIGHT.

MONEY LENDER IS VICTIM OF RAGE.

Two Members of Sich Artillery Under Arrest For Outrageous Crime.

(To By Associated Press.)

In King's County, N. Y., yesterday, the press reported that several members of the Sich Artillery, a New York State National Guard unit, were arrested for the murder of a money lender.

The men were arrested for the murder of a money lender.

The men were arrested for the murder of a money lender.

The men were arrested for the murder of a money lender.