Two Have Chicken Pox. — Mary Louise McArthur, the little daughter of E. D. McArthur, is ill of chickenpox. Perry Clarke, a son of Francis H. Clarke, is also ill of the disease.

Paving Contractor Here.—W. O. McCann, a street paving contractor from Eureka, Cal., is here to look over the proposed paving in Marshfield with the intention of bidding on the work.

M. F. Plant.—The M. F. Plant, which was due in this morning from San Francisco, had not been sighted up to 3 o'clock this afternoon. The cause of the delay is not known. She is due to sail from here tomorrow.

Repair Phone Line. — The telephone line from Lakewood to North Inlet, which has been down for some time has been repaired and is again ready for service. A number of Marshfield people, including Dr. Horsfall, have cottages on North Inlet, near the terminus of the line, and have been greatly inconvenienced by the lack of service in the past.

Postpone Drawbridge Decision.—The Coos county commissioners have adjourned until May 25th, when they will take up the South Inlet drawbridge proposition. L. J. Simpson, Henry Diers and other North Bend citizens appeared before the commissioners in behalf of the project. It is understood that the commissioners are favorable to the project. They requested that plans, specifications and estimates be submitted at the meeting, May 25th, and this will be done.

DISTRICT LOCAL OPTION VOTE IS KNOCKED OUT.

Judge Hamilton Makes Temporary Injunction Against it Permanent —Vote on County as a Whole. (Special to The Times.) COQUILLE, Ore., May 9.—Judge Hamilton in the Circuit Court has made his temporary injunction against local option, being submitted by districts in Coos county, permanent. This will result in the local option matter being submitted only to the county as a whole. Judge Hamilton's decision was on the point raised by E. A. Becket, a Coquille liquor dealer, who held that the law prohibited the submitting of the question in district oftener than once in two years.

Personal Notes

ACKERMAN WILL SPEAK MAY 20

State Superintendent to Deliver Addresses in North Bend and Marshfield.

State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman of Oregon, will deliver the commencement address before the graduating class of the North Bend High school, May 21st, and on the previous evening, May 20th, will deliver an address at the Masonic Opera house in Marshfield under the auspices of the local schools.

Superintendent Golden of the Marshfield schools had written Mr. Ackerman requesting him to speak here during his visit to Coos Bay and today received his acceptance. Owing to a change in the course of the Marshfield schools, there will be no commencement exercises here this year.

Mr. Ackerman will probably take education as the theme for his address here, reviewing what has been accomplished and outlining some needed changes in the public school course of Oregon to bring it to a still higher standard.

SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY.

If no New Cases of Scarlet Fever Break Out in Marshfield.

Dr. J. T. McCormac of the Marshfield school board, announced this morning that school would be resumed Monday morning if no new cases of scarlet fever break out among the pupils meanwhile. It is believed that all danger from the contagion has passed. All of the children afflicted with the disease are reported getting along nicely.

The North Bend schools, which have been closed for a few days owing to a peculiar skin disease troubling the pupils, will also resume Monday morning.
