Preaches Against Hoppicking.

OREGON CITY, April 28.—(Special)—Rev. John M. Linden, pastor of the First Baptist church, has instituted a vigorous crusade against the members of his church picking hops, stating that it is encouraging the liquor interests. In a sermon Sunday night, before a crowded church, he said, "It requires a quickened conscience to crystallize action against hop-picking, which is part of the process of beer-making."

A Sermon and a Suggestion

What do you think of the prohibition side of the question? It's in the sermon.

In 1907 Oregon hop growers raised and marketed FOUR MILLION DOLLARS worth of hops.

If Oregon is voted "dry" no market in the world will take Oregon hops.

If Oregon votes for prohibition, Oregon brewers will have no use for barley or hops.

Do Oregon hop growers want to pay FOUR MILLION DOLLARS a year for the experiment?

Let us stop closing business up and try opening it up instead

Son Is Born.—Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Seeley are rejoicing over the birth of a son yesterday at the General hospital. Mother and child are doing well.

Council to Meet.—No meeting of the city council was held last evening, the next special session having been called by Mayor Straw for Wednesday night, May 14th. A large amount of important work is slated to come up then.

Start Work Soon.—Surveyors will begin work in a day or two on the survey of the site for the proposed $75,000 Chandler hotel. As soon as this is done, the four test piling will be driven to determine the depth it will be necessary to go to secure a solid foundation. The contract for driving the piling has been let.

Post Office at Ten Mile.—M. S. Olsen of Ten Mile, who recently circulated petitions asking for the establishment of a postoffice at Ten Mile has just been notified that the Postal department has granted the request. He has forwarded the necessary bonds and it is expected that the official order will be forthcoming soon. It is expected that daily service will be given.

McLain Starts Campaign.—Hugh McLain, the Democratic candidate for State senator from Coos and Curry counties expects to leave tomorrow for Curry county where he will formally open his campaign. He expects to make a complete canvass of that section. He has done some preliminary work in Coos county but expects to make another round up of the county before election.

Puts Up High Awning.—George Goodrum is having an awning put up around his store and has agreed to put high enough so that the wearers of Merry Widow hats can walk under it without stopping. The fact that awnings of some stores are so low is causing much inconvenience to the owners of Merry Widows, especially if they are tall. W. J. Duncan is putting up the awning at Goodrum's.

"WAY DOWN EAST."

The moving picture dramatization of "Way Down East" at the Crystal Theatre, proved to be a success from all points of view. It is a drama of New England life and has been played for years on the legitimate stage. From the time when Sanderson confronts Anna to the final meeting at the old sugar house where villainy is unmasked the play held the attention of all. "The Soldier" is a comedy film and kept the audience in an uproar of laughter. The illustrated songs are of the latest and the slides are exceptionally clever and well-done.

Brief News of Busy Town as Told By the Enterprise.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Button at their home on the North Fork on Sunday, May 3d.

Lawrence, the little son of J. Machado, suffered a bad fracture of one of his arms. He was riding in the back of the wagon his father was driving when he fell to the ground and received the painful hurt. Surgical attendance was summoned and the bones set.

The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weekly of the North Fork, is minus the tip of the fore finger of his right hand. His little brother, a year or two older, trimmed it off with a pair of pruning shears. Mrs. Weekly dressed the wound, but it later required the attention of a surgeon.

J. L. Lewellen met with a painful accident while working on his new home last Monday. He was working on a step ladder when one foot slipped off and he fell, cutting a very bad gash in his right temple and tearing the ligaments and muscles of his side. He did not lose consciousness, but sustained injuries that placed him on the retired list for several days.

A large audience attended the gold medal contest at the Benson opera house in which twenty-five pupils of the public schools from the primary up to and including the Fifth grade, contested for the prize. In addition there were musical numbers and drills, the children giving the program throughout and with pleasing effect. There were thirty-three numbers on the program. Miss Annie Johnson, who spoke "Nobody's Child" costumed, was given the medal, and Miss Marguerite Hayes was given second place, speaking, "The Death of the Flowers." The judges were Mr. and Mrs. W.
