REQUEST GOOD CITY PAVING

a remonstrance against the proposed improvement of that thoroughfare. It was declared that the remonstrance was too late and it was laid on the table and the resolution ordering it passed. The time for doing the work was fixed as sixty days after the contract is let.

The improvement of Nevada avenue from Marion to Graham was also ordered and ninety days allowed for its completion.

The citizens of Laurel street presented a remonstrance against its proposed improvement but City Attorney Farrin said that it was presented too soon so it was laid on the table.

A petition from property owners asking that Flanagan street be opened to Nevada avenue was referred to the Street Committee and the city engineer to investigate. Councilman Lockhart, who owns property that would be affected, objected to opening the street now, claiming that it would cost $125 per lot when the lots were only worth $75. Mayor Straw asked Mr. Lockhart if he would take $75 for his lots there, but Mr. Lockhart didn't respond. Whether the street shall be opened twenty-two feet wide or the regular width is the question, the heavy grade making a full width street there quite expensive.

To Rename Streets. J. W. Snover requested that the city council name a committee to cooperate with a committee from the Chamber of Commerce in renaming and numbering the streets of Marshfield in a systematic manner. The

FEAR ARMOUR MEAT TRUST

REPORT THAT AMERICAN PACKERS WILL BEGIN RETAILING IN GREAT BRITAIN CAUSES GREAT ALARM THERE.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, May 15.—Charles W. Bowerman, representing the meat market districts in the House of Commons, has notified Winston Churchill, president of the Board of Trade, that he will question him on what steps he proposes to take to prevent the reported establishment in England of numerous retail meat shops by the Armour's. The query is based on a statement that the Armour's are adding $5,000,000 to their capital for the purpose mentioned.

DENY THE REPORT.

Armour's Say They Will Not Enter Great Britain. (By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, May 15.—It is denied that Armour & Co. will enter the retail meat business in England.

Saloon licenses were issued to Ferry and Ireland, A. B. Smith and Reese and Sneddon until July 1st. Some of the applications were for a period of six months but it was decided that they could only be granted now until July 1st.

RECEIPTS ARE FOR BASEBALL

Fans Urged to Patronize Boxing Contest Saturday Night to Aid Team.

To those who want to see a good baseball team in Marshfield: Every one knows that in order to make the National Game "Base Ball" interesting you must have players that can play the game, and every one should know that baseball is a profession, and that in order to have our amateurs become baseball players we must educate them in the way they should go. In order to get players that know the game we have got to give them some inducement to come and stay here. We can get plenty of would be players but what Marshfield wants and needs is actual ball-players and in order to get and maintain that class of players we must have money. Therefore, in view of the fact that the citizens and business men of Marshfield have been and are being taxed to the limit with the Fair and other things, The Baseball Association did not deem it advisable to try and place any further expense upon them as heretofore, i.e., to contribute to the support of a baseball team. But as means of raising the expense money necessary to properly equip and maintain a winning team here in Marshfield it was concluded to try to raise money enough by giving a boxing contest which will give all lovers of athletic sports an opportunity to not only see four good men who are artists in their line contest for supremacy, but also to contribute towards getting material for the winning baseball team here in Marshfield. We know that every other town in the league is fortifying themselves with the best material they can get, and it is reported Bandon's business men have donated $200 toward their organization, and now it's up to Marshfield fans if they want us to have a ball team that they won't be ashamed of let them turn out Saturday night, they will get their money's worth that night, that is assured, and will be helping the baseball movement along. All the contestants are getting themselves in the best possible shape as they realize that being as evenly matched as they are condition will have a whole lot to do in the result and the Marshfield Baseball Association feels confident that they can assure everyone who patronizes them Saturday night that they will not only be satisfied that they done their best, but that it is their earnest purpose to give Marshfield the winning baseball team of the season. CHAS. A. HOWARD.

When Life Was Little Valued. The 223 capital offenses which the old English law recognized as punishable by death did not keep down crime, and with the abolition of the death penalty for all crimes but murder crime in England, as well as everywhere else all over the world where the death penalty has been modified, lessened markedly, notes the Boston Traveler.

Edmond Burke said that he could in his time obtain the assent of the house of commons to any bill that carried the death punishment.

A man's life was not very valuable in these strenuous days. If he scratched his name on Westminster bridge, if he wore a wig or false mustache or any other disguise on a public road, if he cut down a young tree, if he stole property worth more than $125, if he had been transported for crime and returned a day ahead of the expiration of his term of punishment, if he wrote a threatening letter, if he stole a hide from a tanner's, for any and all of these things and for 200 more than these he was hanged by the neck until he was dead.

SNOWFLAKES.

OUT of the bosom of the air, Out of the cloud folds of her garments shaken, Over the woodlands brown and bare, Over the harvest fields forsaken, Silent and soft and slow Descends the snow.

Even as our cloudy fancies take Suddenly shape in some divine expression, Even as the troubled heart doth make In the white countenance confession, The troubled sky reveals The grief it feels.

This is the poem of the air. Slowly in silent syllables recorded, This is the secret of despair, Long in its cloudy bosom hoarded, Now whispering and revealed To wood and field. —Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

No Choice. "How did you like the play?" "Not at all. How did you?" "I had to get my money's worth. I was sitting in a seat that cost me $3."

Needs Backing. Truth crushed to earth will rise again, Subdued, but not undone. But what's the use of doing that Unless it has a gun?

SPERRY IN CHARGE.

Succeeds Thomas to Command of the Battleship Fleet. (By Associated Press.) SAN FRANCISCO, May 15. — Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas lowered his flag on the battleship Connecticut today and that of his successor, Rear Admiral Charles S. Sperry was run up.

PASS BUILDING BILL.

The Merry Widow. It's the Merry Widow this And the Merry Widow that; It's the Merry Widow kiss, And the Merry Widow hat.

It's the Merry Widow craze, And the Merry Widow dance; It's the Merry Widow plays, And the Merry Widow glance.

It's the Merry Widow dinner, And the Merry Widow waltz; It's the Merry Widow sinner, With the Merry Widow faults.

I've a Merry Widow wife, And a Merry Widow brat; I've a Merry Widow knife, And a Merry Widow cat.

I've a Merry Widow auto car, With a Merry Widow toot, And a friend whose wife has sued him, Has a Merry Widow suit.

And if I die tomorrow Why, let them play real loud, The Merry Widow waltz song For the Merry Widow crowd.
