

FAIR PREMIUMS FOR MANY EXHIBITS

AWARDS OFFERED FOR LARGE VARIETY OF ARTICLES FOR EXHIBITION AT THE SECOND SOUTHERN OREGON DISTRICT FAIR IN MARSHFIELD IN AUGUST.

The premium lists for the fifteenth annual exhibition of the Second Southern Oregon District Agricultural society which will be held on Coos Bay August 26 to 29, inclusive, will be issued shortly. Walter Lyon has been at Roseburg several days conferring with the directors regarding the premium lists.

In addition to the regular fair exhibits, the races will be one of the most attractive features. Large purses have been hung up and more horses will be entered than have ever competed in this section.

Concerning the premium list for exhibits, Mr. Lyon has issued the following statement concerning the exhibits for which prizes will be awarded:

Under the head of Live Stock there will be premiums on Horses, thoroughbreds and all grades, Cattle, including Shorthorn, Herefords, Galloways, Jerseys, Holsteins, Polled Angus, Ayrshire, Guernseys, Brown Swiss, Devons, Red Polled, including a premium for full blood and grades of each class.

In the line of sheep there will be premiums for Merinos, Lincoln, Leicester, Cotswolds, Southdowns, Shropshires, Dorset Horns, Ramboulllets and Oxford Down. There will also be premiums for Angora goats of all ages.

There will be prizes for swine including the Poland-China, Chester White, Duroc-Jerseys and large Yorkshires.

Recognizing the opening for poultry raising in this district and to encourage improvement of the stock, prizes will be offered for every breed of chickens known. Prizes will be awarded for single chickens, for exhibits of three and for pens of chickens.

There will also be awards for turkeys, including Bronze, Narragansett, White Turkeys, Black turkeys, Buff turkeys and Slate turkeys.

Premiums will be awarded for flocks of ducks, including the Pekin, Crested-White, White-Muscovy, Colored-Muscovy; for geese the Toulouse, Embden, Brown-Chinese, and White-Chinese, Guinea-fowls and Pea-fowls will also be recognized.

Under the head of Farm Products there will be prizes offered for best samples of wheat, rye, barley, oats, buck-wheat, sweet-corn, pop-corn, tobacco, peas, beans, flax-seed, Timothy-seed, clover and grasses.

Under the head of Horticulture, there will be as a starter, premiums of $25 offered for the best display of Gravenstein apples. There will be awards for the Bartlett pears, Sugar pears, Swans orange pears, Vicar of Wakefield, Winter Nellis, the Idaho and other varieties.

There will be awards for all the different varieties of plums, peaches, quinces, grapes and berries, the latter including black-berries, raspberries, gooseberries, strawberries, loganberries, cranberries. Prizes will also be offered for dried fruit.

A large display in the line of vegetables is expected and there will be prizes for specimens of beets of the various varieties, cabbage, cauliflower, carrots, parsnips, potatoes, kale, kohlrabi, melons, onions, sweet-potatoes, rutabagas, squashes, pumpkins, celery, turnips, pepper, tomatoes, cucumbers, radishes, eggplant, pie-plant, beans, etc.

There will be prizes for the best exhibit of any of the different varieties of flowers.

Suitable prizes will be offered for the best display of the different Oregon manufactured articles, such as agricultural implements, wagons, racks, buggies, woolen blankets, patches, articles of tinware, sash, cots, blinds, furniture, barrels, buckets, churns, drain-tile, gates, boots, shoes, harness, saddles, soap, mattress, mattresses, paints, bees-wax, brooms, candy, Oregon woolen goods, Oregon made cutlery, etc.

Recognizing the importance of the dry interest there will be suitable prizes awarded for the best specimens of butter, creamery butter, dry butter and butter made on the farm. There will also be prizes for cheese, new and old.

MOST BACKWARD SPRING IN OVER TWENTY YEARS.

J. J. Clinkinbeard Says Coos Bay is Experiencing Unusual and Unseasonable Weather.

"This is the slowest and most backward spring that I have seen on Coos Bay in twenty years," remarked J. J. Clinkinbeard, the well-known Coos River rancher who spent Sunday in Marshfield. "The long continued cold is affecting crops and unless there is a sudden change and weather attains a normal condition, the damage may be considerable."

The weather in this vicinity has been peculiar this season, many of the older residents being puzzled by it. Only a few weeks ago, there were a couple of unusually warm days—the thermometer going higher than it usually gets at the warmest season of the year. The warm spell was brief, though and has been followed by cool, rainy weather, the extent of which has been seldom known on Coos Bay after April.

RACE HORSES WILL COME TO COOS BAY.

Roseburg Owners Will Bring Large String—May Hold Meet Here July 3d and 4th.

Secretary Walter Lyon, who returned recently from Roseburg, says that W. W. Cardwell, Frank Ailey and C. H. Brown of that city expect to have a large string of animals entered in the races at the Southern Oregon District Fair here in August. They have some of the most promising animals in the West. A number of them may be sent over soon for training here, and in case they are, efforts will be made to pull off a race-meeting here July 3d and 4th. W. W. Cardwell says that he expects to make almost a clean-sweep of the big first prizes in the big races at the fair.

Two fast horses for the C. A. Smith Lumber Company were brought up from San Francisco Saturday.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

Items of Interest Taken From The Enterprise.

Misses Bertha and Belle Braden, formerly of this place, have been engaged to teach school at Elgin, this state, for the ensuing school year.

Miss Frances E. Jarvis, formerly of this city and related to J. M. Arrington, was married on May the 4th, at 463A Linden avenue, San Francisco, to Mr. Curtis C. Jackson of that city.

J. H. Matheny suffered a stroke of paralysis Tuesday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Corbin, and is confined to his bed. The paralysis has affected his limbs and he is unable to walk, but his friends hope for his early and complete recovery.

The new pastor of the Christian Church, the Rev. Mr. Norgross, will arrive in Myrtle Point soon.

Harry A. Kribs is enjoying a visit from his brother whom he has not seen before in 34 years, and it can be imagined that the visit is proving enjoyable to both. Mr. Kribs' home is in Portland.

At the monthly meeting of the board of education, held Monday evening of this week, the old corps of teachers were re-elected throughout for the coming school year, and date for the opening of school year, was set at September 15. The following are the teachers chosen: Principal R. E. Baker, Mrs. Minnie Hermann, Miss McCracken, Miss Wise, Miss Prey, Miss Deyoe and Mrs. Daisy Short. The date for the graduating exercises of the public schools has been set at Monday, the 25th. W. Greenleaf, the impersonator, who made a favorable impression in Myrtle Point some days ago, has been engaged as the principal speaker.

The different wood grown in this section will come in for suitable prizes.

To stimulate interest in the culinary art, premiums will be offered for the best cakes, pies, bread, etc., and prizes will be offered for the best get-up of millinery, sewing and knitting, point lace, battenberg, best embroidery, drawn-work, crocheting, etc.

There will be prizes for the best exhibit of paintings, photography and all departments of art.

Liberal prizes will be offered for the best display of coal, for collection of minerals and geological selections; of Oregon marble, bluestone, limestone, etc.

SAYS DRY TOWNS ARE NOT WEEDY

Mayor Matlock Proclaims the Gospel of Dryness at Oregon City.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)

OREGON CITY, May 16.—Mayor Matlock of Eugene, fired another gun last evening in the Clackamas county local option campaign. A very enthusiastic audience greeted the mayor and loudly applauded him in his statements. He said in part:

"I come to you not as an orator, but as a farmer of Lane county and by good fortune, the mayor of Eugene. I come not seeking political honors, because my best days are gone, but I come in behalf of good government, the elevation of character and good citizenship.

"Eugene went dry two years ago under very unfavorable circumstances. The mayor of the city at that time, a man honest in his convictions and a good man, too, was not in favor of it, because he honestly believed that there was not sufficient public sentiment in Eugene to make the law effective. There were predictions of failure on every hand and it was said that our prosperity would be trampled in the dust.

"But what are the facts about Eugene today? Instead of grass growing in the streets we have paved mities of them, under prohibition. The 11 empty saloon buildings were soon rented. Eugene prospered in spite of the loss of saloon revenue. The last two years have seen the largest increase in business and money in banks, in fact, in bank deposits, Eugene stood at the head of the list in Oregon, leaving out Portland. We have better collections. Factories and mills are running full time. Last year we put up from 200 to 300 dwellings, with an increase of population of 4,000.

"Let me give you a fair sample of business prosperity in the case of my own son. He was doing a business of $30,000 a year. After the first year of prohibition it was increased to $45,000, the second year to $60,000, and this year it is larger than ever before.

"The first year of prohibition we decreased our city debt by $2,000, besides purchasing a site for a new city park, a team and chemical engine and hiring an engineer and surveyor and all this at an expense of $12,000 over the last year. No, the grass is not growing in Eugene streets; they were paved to the extent of $15,000 worth during prohibition and this year we are making public improvements to the extent of $815,000 and the building department shows that $83,000 in permits was taken out in a month for dwellings alone.

"Eugene has two daily and three weekly newspapers, and all of them are prospering."

COQUILLE CULLINGS.

Items of Interest at Coos County Seat As Told in the Sentinel.

Bandon defeated the Coquille high school team in the joint debate at Bandon.

Miss Cora Belloni, composer on the North Bend Harbor is spending a ten days' vacation with her parents south of town.

We have received a copy of the Two Rivers, Wash., Tribune, which is published by I. S. Bath late proprietor of the Bandon Recorder.

On account of the business of county court it was decided that the commissioners should have six meetings a year instead of four. Hereafter these meetings will be held the first Wednesday in January, March, May, July, September and November.

The last echo of the municipal campaign was heard Wednesday when a complaint was lodged with the grand jury of illegal voting on the part of Joseph Jones, Jack Bester, Charles McCray and Geo. Jacobs. After hearing the testimony of several persons and examining these men they were discharged, as it was proved conclusively that they had resided in this city for the past two or three years.

Miss Lucia Sperry, together with friends, will sail from Montreal for Liverpool, June 6th, spending her summer's vacation in travel on the continent. She expects to visit Holland, Belgium, Germany, France and Switzerland, before returning to her native land. While in London Miss Sperry will represent her diocese in Oregon at the Pan-Anglican Congress which is to be held in that city in June.

ILLEGAL VOTING $25.00 Reward

The Law and Order League of Coos County will pay a reward of $25 to the person furnishing the first evidence that will lead to the conviction of any person who shall vote illegally at the election on the first day of June 1908.

A report of the Grand Jury, filed in the Circuit Court of Coos County, May 14, 1908, is as follows: "Complaint has been made to us concerning alleged irregularity in certain elections heretofore held within this county.

"It is earnestly hoped that the judges of election and our officers will see that all Laws regulating elections are rigidly enforced, and that all violations thereof shall be vigorously prosecuted."

The above recommendation will be carried out to the letter.
