Will Build Residence. — T. M. Dimmick is planning to build a fine new residence on his holdings in Centerville addition, north of the cold storage plant.

Gets New Launch. — W. H. Kennedy has received a small gasoline launch from Portland. It is fast and is especially adapted for trips up the inlets and around the Bay.

Santa Fe Gets Land. — The securing of a tract of government land in Coos county by the Santa Fe railroad recently caused some comment in real estate circles. The land was secured by script and was probably merely an investment.

Leaves Hospital. — James Bludsoe, the longshoreman who was injured by a fall while helping load the Esther Buhne a short time ago, has recovered sufficiently to leave Mercy hospital where he has been cared for.

Get Fine Horses. — F. P. Norton has received two fine new blooded horses from Frisco and friends who have seen them say they are promising animals. One is a trotter and will be tried out in the local races this summer probably. J. W. Bennett has also bought a fine black roadster for his own use.

Harrington Is Improving. — W. S. Harrington, the lineman of the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company who was severely injured a short time ago by falling thirty feet from the top of a pole in Ferndale, is improving. He was able to be moved from the Emergency hospital to his home. His many friends are hoping for his continued rapid recovery.

Retires From Firm. — As will be seen by the official notice published elsewhere in The Times, W. J. Smith has retired from the North Bend Hardware Company. His partner, P. N. Reberg takes over Mr. Smith's holdings in the company and will conduct the business henceforth. Mr. Smith's future plans are not announced.

Will Lose Sight. — Wm. Wade of the Nelson Iron Works, who recently went to Portland to have a piece of steel removed from his eye has written friends here that the physicians hope to save the member, but it is not likely that the sight of the optic can be preserved. While receiving treatment, he and Mrs. Wade are visiting relatives at Salem.

Wild Pigeons Here. — Ranchers on Coos river report that an unusually large number of wild pigeons are seen in that section this spring. Owing to the carelessness of hunters, which has resulted in injury to livestock and the narrow escape of residents, the ranchers no longer welcome the nimrods on their places. The birds are a nuisance, eating the green fruit but the ranchers say they would rather lose the fruit than to run the risk of being shot.

Codding Has Problem. — "Commodore" Chas. Codding is busy today trying to determine whether or not the reason why the people of

Personal Notes

D. BEAKEY, an organizer for the Woodmen of the World in Southern Oregon, is spending a few days in Marshfield.

J. D. STEVENS of Portland, a well-known lecturer on Socialism, is in Marshfield. He will speak at the Skating Rink tonight.

T. A. KING of Coquille, has returned from California where he spent the winter and is visiting friends on the Bay before returning to the valley.

CHARLES WILSON of Prosper, has gone to Forest Grove to secure the position of game warden for Coos and Curry counties, according to the Bandon Recorder.

F. R. BRIDGES and wife and J. B. Forman and wife of the Bridges Concrete Company, passed through here today en route to Florence from Coquille where they have recently been.

THE SCARLET FEVER quarantine has been removed from the home of Mrs. Barringer, her little daughter having completely recovered. Little Miss Farringer had but a light case of the disease.

L. B. COMPTON of Eureka, and M. C. Collins returned today from Ten Mile where they have been fishing for a few days. They had fine luck and brought back one of the finest strings of fish that has been seen in many days.

HUGH McLAIN returned today from Curry county where he has been campaigning for several days. He says everything looks good over there and is elated over the prospects for his election as State senator on the Democratic ticket.

L. D. PETTYJOHN has returned from a business trip to the Coquille valley. He says that much interest was taken over there in the passing of the fleet, scores of people going from Coquille to Bandon yesterday in hopes of getting a glimpse of the Armada.

MISS GRACE WELLS, a well-known Marshfield young lady is ill of appendicitis and owing to other complications setting in, it will be necessary for her to undergo an operation tomorrow. Her many friends are hopeful for the successful outcome of her illness.

NORTH BEND NEWS

J. J. Sullivan was transacting business in Marshfield this week.

Miss Lizzie Tellefson and Mrs. Wm. Lawhorne of Marshfield, were visiting relatives in North Bend yesterday.

Miss Walker and Miss Heinsey, two popular clerks at the Myers Store, are spending their vacation on Ten Mile.

The tug Columbia towed the barkentine Chehalis out to sea this morning. The Chehalis is laden with lumber for San Pedro.

Richard Coke of North Bend, has gone to Salem to represent the local Odd Fellows' Lodge at the State Convention of the order there this week.

Mrs. Frank Stoner of Eastside, was reported quite ill yesterday but her friends will be glad to learn that she is somewhat better today.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Mather, Miss Lillian McCann, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelly, Dale Minot and B. R. Burnie have gone to Sunset Bay for a day's outing today. When the trip was originally planned, it was expected that the fleet would pass this vicinity today.

Coos Bay didn't see the fleet was because the battleships were equipped with or were not equipped with Gray engines. If they had Gray engines, he believes the fleet ought to have been off Coos Bay early yesterday afternoon and if they didn't have them, they should not be off here until noon today. He is afraid to ask others to help him solve it because he fears they might blame him personally for the fleet not stopping off Coos Bay.
