NO DECORATION DAY PROGRAM IN THIS CITY.

Likely That Ceremonies Will be Dispensed with Aside from Placing Flowers on Graves.

Unless someone takes hold of the matter shortly, there will be no formal Decoration Day ceremonies in Marshfield next Saturday, May 30. Dr. C. W. Tower said today that the veterans here did not feel as though they were able any longer to bear the labor of preparing for extensive programs—that the work they have carried on so long should now fall on someone else. If anyone takes the matter up, the veterans, Mr. Tower says, will be glad to cooperate.

At any event, individuals will remember the day by beautifying and decorating the graves.

BORN—To the wife of Fred Tuttle of Bandon, on May 23d, a daughter. Mother and daughter are both doing well at the home of R. M. Wleder.

Extend Contract Time.—Owing to the unfavorable weather lately, Contractor Burns' time for completing the grading of Cedar street was extended from June 1 to July 1.

Will Give Dance.—The Hahatonka club will shortly issue invitations for a dancing party to be given under its auspices. The date has not been announced yet.

Well Known Man Ill.—Jas L. Ferry of the Blanco hotel, and one of the best known business men in Marshfield, was taken suddenly ill of acute indigestion last evening. He was reported a little improved today.

Has Sprained Wrist.—J. O. Stoop, the carpenter, is taking an enforced lay off as a result of a severely sprained wrist, sustained while working at the Smith mill. The injury while painful is not serious.

Take Up Ordinances.—The city council will hold a special meeting this week, probably Friday night, to pass several ordinances that have been hanging fire for several weeks. A banding ordinance, a plumbing ordinance and several others are likely to be taken up.

War on Rats.—The crusade against rats in Marshfield is going merrily on. Up to yesterday, Marshal J. W. Carter had paid a bounty of five cents each on 117 rodents killed during May. This makes a total of nearly three hundred killed since Mayor Straw placed a price on the tails of the rodents.

Will Aid Baseball.—Manager Arthur McKeown of the Marshfield baseball team, has been making a canvass of the business men for aid for the baseball team. He is meeting with very good success, about $350 being promised. However, some of the subscriptions are conditional and more certain money is required. Mr. McKeown is making arrangements to put in the best team that Marshfield has ever had and will do so if given the proper support.

Children Are Ill.—Madge and Maud, the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stutsman have been quite ill the past few days from a mysterious poisoning. Madge was taken ill first and the pain became so severe that convulsions developed. Three physicians were called. She is some better today. What the poisoning is or how the children became infected, is not known. Mrs. Stutsman thinks that possibly they became infected from fox-gloves or the Rhododendrons with which they had been playing.

Personal Notes

MR. and MRS. R. E. SHINE were up from Empire Monday.

MRS. HERBERT ROGERS of Coos River, was in town yesterday.

J. S. COKE went to Coquille on business today.

MISS MAUD PAINTER is suffering from a severe cold.

J. H. FLANAGAN has returned from a pleasure trip to San Francisco.

THE COOS BAY WATER CO. moved into their new quarters in the Bank building Monday.

L. A. LILJEQVIST is spending a few days in the Ten Mile country, fishing and otherwise living close to nature.

MRS. DUNHAM and daughter of Coquille, passed through Marshfield today en route to Portland where they will attend the rose festival.

MRS. L. C. GARRIGUS of Portland, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Golden, left this morning for her home.

MISS BETH BRADLEY will leave for Portland on the next Breakwater to spend a few weeks in the Rose City.

MISS MARY BLACK and Mrs. John Preuss left this morning for the Merchant ranch down the coast to be gone several days.

WALTER BUTLER, accompanied by his sister, Miss Alice Butler, left on the Alliance for Portland to attend the Rose Festival.

L. W. PLANZ has returned from Salem where he attended the Odd Fellow's State Convention. He reports that everyone had an enjoyable time.

A. J. WEINER, traveling representative of the Henry Rhine Candy Company of San Francisco, arrived yesterday to cover the Coos Bay country.

H. W. BURNHAM and wife, C. Langlois, J. W. Bush and W. R. Bush were Coquille people who took passage from Coos Bay to Portland on the Alliance today.

CONTRACTOR C. D. LASH left this morning for Carlton, Ore. His family have been residing there and he will move them to Marshfield.

J. S. COKE and J. D. GOSS have moved their law offices from the Lockhart building on Broadway to the First Trust and Savings building where they have an excellent suite.

LITTLE MISS CORNELIA ROBERTSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Robertson, is reported some better today. She has been very ill of scarlet fever.

W. W. CASE of the Bonesteel, Richardson Paper Company of San Francisco, arrived yesterday to call on his trade in the Coos Bay country. He says that business has been very good.

MR. and MRS. O. OREN left on the Alliance this morning for Denver where they will spend sometime. J. E. Oren also left with them and will accompany them part way, he going to Minneapolis and visit his wife and child.

MRS. M. A. MITCHELL and daughters, Blanche and Gertrude, left this morning for Portland where they will probably remain. Mr. Mitchell took the stage route instead of accompanying the family on water, he being afraid of seasickness.

WM. CANDLIN of Coquille, is in Marshfield on business today. He reports everything flourishing in the valley. A new cigar factory is being built in Coquille, a bowling alley put in and other improvements made. He is lined up against the plan of allowing cows the freedom of the town as it took him nearly a day recently to repair his fence where the wandering bovines broke it down.

NOTICE.

All members are requested to be present at the meeting of the Marshfield High School Alumni Association at the School building Wednesday evening, May 27, at 7.30. Business of importance to be transacted. MAMIE MAHONEY, Pres.

Some of the Costs of the Saloon

Careful Investigations, authorized by legislatures, have proven:—
That 84 per cent of the crimes are due to intemperance.
That 82 per cent were "under the influence of liquor" when crime was committed.
That 48 per cent of pauperism is due to "drink habit."
That 35 per cent of insanity is due to "drink habit."
