PLEADS FOR FAIRNESS.

Colored Man Objects to Belote's Intemperate Address.

MARSHFIELD, Ore., June 1. — Editor Coos Bay Times: Please allow me space to ask Mr. Belote, the man who made the intemperate address at I. O. O. F. Hall, Sunday, May 31, on temperance, will he in his next speeches not direct the attention of his audience to "ignorant niggers of the south," but that he will stop and consider (as he said) their opportunities before assailing them.

R. WYATT.

A daughter was born Thursday to Mrs. P. McDonald who is making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vineyard of Eastside during the absence of her husband in the north.

Moved Into New Home.—E. D. McArthur and family have moved into their beautiful new home in South Marshfield. It occupies one of the most sightly locations in that section of the city.

Entertains Friends.—The local branch of the Degree of Pocahontas entertained a large number at a social and musicale following the monthly business meeting last evening. Refreshments were served.

Open New Delicatessen.—Hagquist & Stone have opened a delicatessen and confectionery in the elegant new store room in the Knights of Finland Temple. Their friends will wish them a successful career in their new business venture.

Aid Society Meeting.—The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church will hold its monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m., at the church hall. All members are requested to be present as business of importance is to be transacted.

Junior Ball Teams.—The Marshfield juniors defeated the North Bend sluggers by a score of 20 to 9, yesterday. The batteries for North Bend were Gaffney and Noble. For Marshfield Rufus Weaver and Clifford Downs. The features of the game were the home runs by Rufus Weaver and Harold Martin. The teams will play again next Saturday.

Move to Port Orford.—A. M. Barcus and wife of North Bend, left this morning for Port Orford, where they go to locate on a ranch near that place now occupied by their son. Mrs. Barcus will spend the summer there but Mr. Barcus may return in a few weeks to look after business affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Barcus have many friends whose best wishes will follow them to their new home and hope for their return to Coos Bay.

Popular Actress Coming.—The San Diego, Cal., Union has the following concerning Margaret Iles, who opens a week's engagement in Marshfield Monday evening: "Miss Iles wore some of the most stunning gowns ever seen in this city, and is a very charming and capable actress. Her visit to San Diego has been the subject of much pleasant discussion and after seventy-six continuous weeks Miss Iles is one of the most popular actresses that has ever visited us."

Previous Prohibition Vote.
The local option question was voted on in Coos county in 1906 and in 1907. In 1906, the vote was on the county as a whole while in 1907, the vote was by precincts. In 1906, Sumner, Rowland, Riverton, Norway, Myrtle Point, Missouri, Lee, Four Mile, Dora, Coquille, Coos River and Bandon voted dry but in 1907 Bandon and Coquille went wet by small majorities. In 1906, the county went wet by 122 while in 1907, it was a trifle larger.
