COOS BAY TIDES
The following tables give the hours of high and low tides for every day this week:

eral months, returned lately and has gone to Bandon where he will visit his father, T. B. Wheeler, of that city. He has almost entirely recovered from the injuries received in a runaway accident while in Arkansas. Mrs. Wheeler who was so fortunate as to escape unhurt returned several weeks ago.

Eagles Buy Site.—The local Aerie of Eagles have purchased a lot 75x140 on the east side of Sheridan street, between California and Oregon streets from Wm. Holland for $1,800 as a site for their proposed home. Some of the preliminary work for building, including the incorporation of building company, has already been perfected.

Locates at Bandon.—L. C. Durkee who was engaged in the contracting and building business in Marshfield for some time but who recently gave up his business here to go on the road has decided that he doesn't like traveling and has located at Bandon. In a letter to The Times, he extends thanks to friends here for the courtesies shown him and says that he will always be a Coos Bay booster.

BAD ATTACK OF DYSENTERY CURED.
"An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told that I kept it in stock and lost no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by JOHN PREUSS.

Takes Fourth Degree.—The local Aerie of Eagles conferred the fourth degree on Harry Adler Wednesday evening. There is no fourth degree in the regular ritual of the order but the local members decided that they had to arrange one to show their appreciation of Adler. If there was anything that they forgot to inculcate in the degree, Adler hasn't been able to remember it.

Fruit Men Coming.—Dr. M. G. Pohl, fruit inspector for Coos county, is at Myrtle Point but is planning to come to Marshfield and North Bend soon to arrange for public meetings for the president and district director of the Oregon Horticultural society when they visit here June 12. Dr. Pohl wishes every one to attend this meeting, especially those interested in fruit culture. In addition to these, he believes that everyone interested in Coos Bay will be interested in the meeting as the development of the fruit culture in this section will be one of the greatest factors in developing the country.

Will Move Soon.—Pettyjohn and Nicols are arranging to move from their present quarters on 'C' street into their commodious new home in the Williams building on lower Broadway. It is expected that they will move within a few days.

Breaks Leg.—The nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Bay City, sustained a broken leg as a result of a fall from a pile of lumber on which he was playing with other children. While the injury is painful, no lasting ill effects are anticipated by Dr. Dix who attended him.

Sell Courtney Mill.—Sheriff Gage has issued notice that the Courtney Lumber mill will be sold at auction at the courthouse in Coquille Saturday, June 20, to satisfy the claims of creditors. There is about ten acres in the mill site in addition to right of way for water mains and a railway track.

Buy Hume's Horse.—It is announced that William Walker has purchased Marwood, R. D. Hume's promising galloper. Marwood was entered by in the selling race at "Frisco" and won. It was understood that it was Mr. Hume's intention to buy him but he was absent and by a fluke Mr. Walker is said to have got the animal.
