Move Offices Today.

The Pettyjohn and Nicols Company today moved its offices from 'C' street to the new Williams building on Broadway where they will have commodious quarters to accommodate their growing business.

Will Drive Piling.

The Chandler Hotel Company is planning to let the contract for driving the remainder of the piling foundation at once so that everything will be in readiness for the structural work to begin soon after June 16, when bids will be opened.

Breakwater In Tonight.

The Breakwater is expected to reach Coos Bay from Portland this evening, having sailed from Portland last night. The Zarinna is due in Friday from San Francisco. The Eureka is due in Thursday from Eureka.

Longshoremen Quit.

Owing to a disagreement, a number of longshoremen quit work at the C. A. Smith mill yesterday. The loading of the Nann Smith was continued by mill hands. The longshoremen claim that the C. A. Smith Company have violated the longshoremen's rules.

Work On Ferry.

The dredger will start work tomorrow cleaning out the east end of the channel for the new ferry. County Commissioner Anderson has arranged for the construction of the slip and all will be in readiness soon. The city will Alumni Ball.

The annual promenade of the Marshfield High School Alumni Association will be held at the Odd Fellows Hall this evening and it will probably be the most largely attended social event of the season. The hall has been handsomely decorated for the event.

Improve North Front Street.

The city council is planning to have North Front street improved. The street is now in bad shape and the property owners are discussing the advisability of having a permanent paving put in instead of temporarily repairing it with plank.

Margaret Iles Company Pleases.

A good sized audience was present at the presentation of "The Unwritten Law" by Margaret Iles and Company, at the Masonic Opera House last night. The company was enthusiastically applauded, the vaudeville features especially making a hit. The company is making a week's stand here.

Fine Window Display.

The show window of the "Bird Billiard Parlor" is enjoying a great deal of attention today. It has been dressed entirely with fireworks, whose bright colors make a very pretty appearance, and remind us that the "Fourth" is no great distance in the future.
