MARSHFIELD SCHOOL NEWS

In Little Boy Land.
Oh green are the meadows in Little Boy Land,
And blue are the skies bending over,
And golden the butterflies flitting about
To visit the pink and white clover.
There are cool running brooks where the cows like to stand,
And milky white lambskins in Little Boy Land.

Oh! down at the corner in Little Boy Land,
Is the prettiest shop full of candy,
And a dear little woman to give it away—
It's ever and ever so handy.
There are chocolate creams that the boys say are "grand,"
And, nothing costs money in Little Boy Land.

Oh! strange as it seems, there are no chores to do,
No errands to run for the mother,
And nothing to do but forever to play,
First one jolly game and another,
There's a beautiful circus and a lovely brass band,
And everything's free in Little Boy Land.

Oh! they say they do nothing in Little Boy Land
But play through the warm sunny weather,
And play through the winter;—Oh! then it is fun
To slide down the long hills together.

There's no school to go to,—now, please understand,
It's all play and laughter in Little Boy Land.

Oh! there's bicycles, tricycles, wagons and sleds,
And donkeys and ponies by dozens:
So each little fellow can ride if he will—
Each one of the brothers and cousins.

There's fun and there's frolic on every hand—
Oh! who wouldn't like it in Little Boy Land?

Oh! who wouldn't long for this Little Boy Land
Where's there fun going on every minute,
And candy for nothing and peanuts the same,
And a good time with everyone in it?

Oh! grown-ups with hardships and trials to stand,
Let's journey together to Little Boy Land!

THE OLD CLASS PICTURE.

Sunset light of departing day,
Soften your rosy glow,
Over the picture hanging there,
Sunset, I love it so;
Fair young faces, classmates dear,
Smiling lad and lass—
Transient light, your shadow falls
On the picture of my old class.

Twilight gray, your charm is sad,
Strangely cold you've grown,
You mock that careless happy group,
The magic spell is frown;
Fading light of spring time day,
You're doubly sad, alas,
Forever gone is a boyish face,
From the picture of my old class.

Moonlight, in through the window creep,
O'er faces there on the wall,
Wear the years since school was out,
Yet the picture smiles o'er all;
Sailing, drifting on life's rough sea,
"Launched not anchored" they pass,
Guide, oh, Father, the struggling ones,
In the picture of my old class.

Eureka In and Out.—The Eureka arrived last evening from Eureka and sailed at 10 o'clock this morning for Portland.

Esther Buhne In.—Esther Buhne, the freighter, arrived last evening. She was towed in and up the Bay by the Columbia. She is loading at the railroad docks.

Child Has Leg Broken.—The five-year-old child of H. Leque, living near the Fairgrounds, sustained a broken leg a few days ago. The little one was playing around one of the dinky cars on the Smith narrow gauge road and fell off. At first, it was feared that the car wheels had passed over the limb.

Quarantine Is Removed.—The scarlet fever quarantine will be removed from the L. R. Robertson home today. Little Miss Cornelia, the second of the Robertson children to be afflicted has fully recovered, much to the gratification of the numerous friends.

Try Fred Muetzel.—Fred Muetzel, the Ten Mile sawmill proprietor, is on trial this afternoon before Justice C. L. Pennock on the charge of assault with intent to kill, preferred by Albert Smith, Muetzel's hired man, who claims that Muetzel shot at him the other day without provocation. Several witnesses were brought in from Ten Mile.

Fruit Men Meet Tonight.—It is expected that there will be a large attendance of fruit raisers and business men at the meeting at the Chamber of Commerce this evening when A. H. Carson, a member of the Oregon Board of Horticulture, Dr. M. G. Pohl, Coos county fruit inspector, and other prominent men will speak. The meeting will open about 8 o'clock.

Get Out Sprinkler.—The gusts of dust swept through the streets yesterday and today by the Northwest breeze resulted in such a strong demand for the street sprinkler that arrangements are being made this afternoon to get it out for the season. As usual, the business houses on the down-town streets will have to pay for it, each being assessed so much per month.

TO BUILD MILE OF ROAD IN BUNKER HILL.

Road Superintendent L. H. Heisner with a force of sixteen men and four teams yesterday started the construction of a mile of road in Bunker Hill addition. As soon as the work is well started, Superintendent Heisner expects to put additional men and teams to work and rush the job to completion. It will be one of the best pieces of dirt road when completed in this section. The road leads through to Bay Park and will eventually connect up with the highway to Coquille.

NEW BILL AT THE CRYSTAL.

The change of program last night at the Crystal, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. "The Quack Doctor" and "Why Jenkins Wears the Blue Ribbon" are laugh producers that keep everybody happy. "The Hypnotist" is a drama in which an innocent man is made to commit a robbery while under hypnotic influence. Two good illustrated songs make up a program that is satisfactory in every respect. "The Girl From the Golden West" is the latest Western song hit, and it proved a favorite with the audiences last night.
