Alliance Sails.—The Alliance will sail from Portland this evening and reach Coos Bay late Sunday evening or early Monday morning. She may bring down a large logging engine for Henry Hoek.

Ends Revival Services.—The Rev. M. M. Bledsoe, pastor at large for the Baptist church in Oregon, returned to Portland today after having conducted successful revival services in Marshfield during the past week.

Plant In Sunday.—The M. F. Plant is expected in tomorrow morning from San Francisco, having sailed from the Golden Gate at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Unless something unexpected interferes, she will probably sail from here Monday for Frisco.

Circulate Petitions for Sprinkler. The subscriptions lists to maintain the street sprinkler during the summer months is being liberally signed by the business men. It is proposed to sprinkle all of Front street, 'A', 'B' and 'C' streets, between Front and Broadway, and Broadway from 'A' to 'C'.

Old Soldier Needs Care.—Frank Fuller, a veteran and member of the G. A. R., who resides on the road to Ferndale, is reported to be badly in need of care. He is crippled by old wounds and is ill. He lives alone and is no longer able to care for himself. The local G. A. R. will probably be requested to provide care for him.

Miss Mills Will Sing.—Miss Mabel Mills, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mills who has just returned from New York where she has been taking advanced musical instruction, will sing at the Baptist church tomorrow. While she was tired from the long trip, the friends of the family made so many requests for her to sing tomorrow that she finally graciously acceded and will do so at the evening service, probably.

Claims Not Valuable.—H. W. Burnham and Chester Langlois, well-known here, have just returned from Grant county where they were cruising some timber, the government releasing 525 claims on July 1. They report the timber very poor and have given up the idea of securing any locations. A number of Coos Bay people were arranging to take claims if their report had been favorable.

Last Show Tonight.—The Margaret Hes Company will close their week's engagement at the Masonic Opera House this evening when they will present "Two Sisters." From here they will go to the Coquille valley towns and then return for a three days engagement in Marshfield. One of the largest houses of the week witnessed their production of "Camille" last evening and declare it better than they had anticipated. A few in the balcony interrupted the play once or twice and brought forth the announcement that any further trouble on that score would result in the ejection of the person responsible from the house.
