Mass Tomorrow. — Mass will be celebrated at the Catholic church in Marshfield at 8 o'clock Thursday morning, that being the feast of Corpus Christi.

Charles Noble Injured. — Charles Noble sustained an injury to his side the other day and complications that have set have made it more serious than first anticipated. It is now believed that he will have to undergo an operation.

Sells Interest In Ranch. — C. W. Merchant has sold his interest in the Merchant ranch near Bullards to his brothers, Albert and Frank. Mr. Merchant will go to San Francisco on the next M. P. Plant to look after some business interests there and then plans to return to Marshfield and engage in the electrical business, probably. He is an expert electrician, having been employed by the General Electric Company at Oregon City for about nine years.

Will Collect Tuition. — The Marshfield school board at the next meeting will take action to insure the collection of tuition from pupils who reside outside of this district, but who attend school here. It is proposed to have each teacher report to the superintendent or clerk the names of the pupils from outside the district who are enrolled in her room. In case she does not report these promptly, it is proposed to make her responsible for the tuition.

Czarina to Sail. — The Czarina which has been loading with coal at the railroad docks will probably sail tomorrow for San Francisco. The coal trade is picking up and Frisco and Oakland dealers are selling all of the Beaver Hill coal they can secure.

Has Foot Crushed. — R. B. Coin, an employe of the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company, had his foot severely crushed at the new gas plant yesterday afternoon. He was aiding in moving a nine-ton piece of machinery and in some manner got his foot under the end of a roller on which the machine was being changed. It is not believed that any bones were broken or that the injury will leave any permanent ill effects. He was taken to Mercy Hospital at North Bend.

Coquille Lad Held. — Judge John F. Hall returned today noon from Coquille where he was called to investigate the charges against Ray Hatcher, the fifteen-year-old boy charged with stealing $150 from T. J. McAdams. Judge Hall fixed the hearing for June 29, and meanwhile Hatcher will be in charge of the probation officer. The lad still maintains his innocence.
