Go to North Bend.—Quite a number of Marshfield ladies attended the meeting of the A. N. W. Club, at the home of Mrs. F. Kaiser in North Bend.

James R. Keane Here.—James R. Keane, formerly prominent in western theatrical companies and who opened the Masonic theatre here four years ago, is now visiting friends on Coos Bay. He has given up the stage and is figuring on making Coos Bay his permanent home.

Gets Piling Contract.—The contract for driving the piling for the foundation of the new Chandler hotel has been awarded to W. H. Noble. The ground is being staked off and surveyed for the work which will begin in a day or two and be rushed to completion. The job will take about twenty days.

Honor Mrs. Chase. — Word has been received here of the election of Mrs. W. C. Chase of Coquille as grand senior of the Pythian Sisters of Oregon at the state convention of the organization now in session at Portland. Mrs. Chase has been a prominent worker in the organization for several years and is now in attendance at the convention. She is the wife of Senator Chase.

Work at Race Track. — The improvements at the race track and fairgrounds are being pushed under the direction of President F. P. Norton. Messrs. Hunt and Ladd have started work on the new grandstand and Laxstrom and Johnson on the pavilion. The trainers are getting along nicely with the big string of blooded horses now on the grounds and all are pleased with the way the animals are rounding into shape.

To Wed at Myrtle Point.—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Benson of Myrtle Point, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Pearl Benson, and W. F. Hendricks, which will be solemnized in Myrtle Point June 27. Mr. Hendricks is cashier of the Myrtle Point Bank. The young couple have numerous friends on Coos Bay as well as throughout this section, all of whom will unite in extending best wishes for their happy future.

City Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will hold a special session this evening to discuss the telephone situation in reference to the request by R. T. Durett for a franchise to put in a competitive system. No other business will be considered.

Aid For Poor.—In order to systematize the charity work and enable the work to be done to a better advantage, the Rev. D. W. Thurston has made arrangements whereby clothing or other articles for this purpose may be left at the Baptist church. There is always a demand from the poor for clothing and shoes and Rev. Thurston wishes that everyone who has articles that they do not wish and think could be used would notify him or send them to the Baptist church. The Ladies Aid Society has promised to look after the distribution of the articles to the needy.

M. F. Plant Sails. — The M. F. Plant sailed yesterday from San Francisco for Coos Bay and will reach here probably Saturday night. This will enable her to leave for 'Frisco on the return trip Sunday.

Improvements at Sumner.—Mayor Wilson of Sumner, is in Marshfield on business today. He says that everything is prosperous at Sumner. There is a general clean up and improvement in progress there. The hall has been newly painted, the school house is being painted, Capt. Harris is remodelling and improving his residence and other work is underway. En route down, Mr. Wilson saw a fine deer which was a sore temptation as the deer shooting season doesn't open until July 15.
