Alliance Coming.—The Alliance leaves Portland at 8 o'clock this evening and will make an effort to reach Coos Bay Sunday evening.

Sain in Nevada.—A business note received from Charles M. Sain, a former Coos Bay newspaper man, locates him at Copperdell, Nevada, where he is interested in some mining ventures.

Homer in Today.—The schooner Homer is due into Coos Bay today from Frisco. She has not been plying out of here very frequently since she had the M. F. Plant's run while the latter was laid up last winter.

Reconstruct Dikes.—At a conference between C. J. Millis and Councilmen Nasburg and Nelson yesterday, Mr. Millis agreed to rebuild the dikes along the railway property's water front. The dikes were cut badly by the winter tides and unless repaired soon were in danger of being entirely destroyed.

Special Train to Funeral.—The Beaver Hill coal miners chartered a special train to bring them to Marshfield yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of Antony Rizaldi. About forty came down with the remains which were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

Inspect County Roads.—Judge F. Hall and E. Anderson, county commissioner, have gone to Coquille to begin the annual inspection of roads. They will drive over all of the county roads in the Coquille valley. It will probably take them a week. The inspection will enable them to outline further improvements.

Case of Blood Poisoning.—J. W. Maxwell who has been working with a clearing crew on the W. H. Noble ranch at Ten Mile, bruised his hand badly with an ax handle while at work the other day and resulted in a rather severe case of blood poisoning. He came to Marshfield yesterday for medical treatment and the injured member was dressed and it is hoped there may be no serious results.

Alumni Meeting.—Professor Golden was somewhat disappointed at not being able to attend the meeting of the West Virginia University which was held in Wheeling this past week. His desire to attend was increased by the fact that principal address was to be delivered by his classmate Rev. R. H. Dolliver, a brother of Senator Dolliver who was prominently mentioned in the recent Republican Convention.

"Buckshot" May Go Free.—It was stated today that "Buckshot," the

NORTH BEND NEWS

Mrs. Robt. Simpson was taken quite ill yesterday.

The schooner Advent came in yesterday and will load at North Bend. Mrs. E. G. Flanagan of Marshfield, was visiting friends in North Bend yesterday.

W. W. Gage of Coquille City, was attending to business in North Bend yesterday.

Dr. A. H. Gale and wife, of North Bend, have gone to Ten Mile for a week or ten days outing.

A number of North Bend young men have issued invitations for a dance to be given at the pavilion next Saturday evening.

Frank Gamble, the only brother of the late Wm. Gamble, who has spent the past week with relatives in North Bend, left on the Breakwater last evening for his home in Astoria to resume his position as head sawyer in a mill there which he has held for the past thirteen years.

Blanco hotel porter who yesterday severely slashed Emmerson Ferry, one of the proprietors, would probably go free. Mr. Ferry and others showing no disposition to prosecute him. "Buckshot" is still in jail pending a decision. Mr. Ferry's injuries are not serious.

Builds New Launch.—F. E. Boden is building a twenty-four launch which he is designing for speed purposes and unless he is disappointed he will have the fastest craft on the Bay.

For Elks Lodge Here.—Preliminary steps are being taken by a number of Coos Bay Elks to secure an Elks Lodge for Marshfield, the B. P. O. E. requires a population of 5,000 in all towns where they grant charters, but it is believed that the recent vote will satisfy the grand lodge that Marshfield is entitled to a lodge.

Hoo Hoo at North Bend.—The installation of the Coos Bay Hoo Hoo Lodge will take place at North Bend Monday evening, unless present plans are interfered with. A number of prominent Hoo Hoo are expected in on the Alliance to conduct the installation. It is expected that about forty charter members will be initiated into the mysteries of Hoo Hoolism.

Improve Telephone Lines.—L. R. Robertson, local manager of the Pacific States Telephone Company, has been notified that John W. Gilkyson of Portland, division superintendent of the company will reach Coos Bay on the Breakwater Thursday night to spend some time preparing plans for rebuilding and improving the company's Marshfield exchange and all of the lines in the Coos Bay country.

Tom James Ill.—Tom James of North Bend, is recovering from ptomaine poisoning with which he was afflicted while fishing at Ten Mile the past week. His sickness is attributed to some canned stuff that was served for supper. Dr. Gale was called from North Bend to attend him. This is the third time that Mr. James has been afflicted with ptomaine poisoning and he vows that starvation looks good to him beside canned goods now.

TO THE MELROSE if you want to enjoy a good dinner.

THE WEST Marshfield Civic League will meet Monday evening. Notices will be sent by mail.—By order of The Committee.
