Baby Boy Dies.—The five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Painter died Sunday morning of infantile trouble. The family lives near the South Marshfield bridge.

Incorporate Company.—Articles of incorporation have been filed with the secretary of state by the Coos Bay Brewing Company, principal office North Bend, Ore., capital stock, $30,000; incorporators, Chas. Thom, Peter Wieck and Anna Wieck.

Gets Bandon School House.—Architect Hendricks of Portland, who prepared plans for the proposed $50,000 High School for Marshfield, has returned from Bandon where he was given the contract to prepare plans for a new school building.

New Pigeon Shooting Record.—Friends of Miss Hilda Lindstrom of Willanch Slough claim that she recently established a new pigeon shooting record for Coos Bay nimbros, getting ten birds at one shot. They claim to have proof of the wonderfully productive shot.

New Service to Roseburg.—F. E. Wilson of Sumner, is figuring on starting a livery service between Coos Bay and Roseburg. He plans on making the trip in two days and laying over a day at each terminus, making a round trip in five days. He will provide easier riding vehicles than the stage.

J. B. Rust Got Contract.—It was stated in The Times Saturday, that W. J. Rust had been awarded the plumbing contract for the new Chandler hotel. It should have read "J. B. Rust," the latter being engaged in the plumbing business while W. J. Rust, his brother, is engaged in the real estate business.

Children's Day Program.—The Children's Day exercises at the First Baptist church, last evening, proved the most successful ever held under the auspices of that denomination. A large audience was in attendance and warmly praised the ones who participated in the program, which was carried out as printed in The Times Saturday. The collection taken up exceeded any former collection of like character.

Woodmen Entertain.—The local lodge of Woodmen entertained about 200 at a smoker, spread and entertainment at the I. O. O. F. Hall Saturday evening. The entertainment was to launch a membership campaign which, it is planned, will be celebrated with the erection of a fine hall on 'C' street, south of the Masonic Temple. The affair was a very enjoyable one, Messrs. W. U. Douglas, Hugh McLain, Frank Sacchi, Dodge, McCullough, Pratt, Organizer Beakey and others contributing the evening's program. A feature of the program was a three-round box bout between Walter and Castle.

Picnic Party.—One of the jolliest of the many picnic parties that found pleasure in the numerous resorts around Coos Bay yesterday was a score or more that chartered the Bonita and spent the day at Charleston Bay and the beach. The day was delightful and the seaside past-times gathering rock oysters, and shells and sun baths on the sand occupied the day most pleasantly. A fine basket lunch was served. The launch left about 8 o'clock in the morning
