STRENGTH

In a bank lies, first, in the ability and experience of its officers, "The men behind the gun;" second, its board of directors who advise with and direct the officers; and third, the Capital.

LIBERALITY—In a bank is its willingness to furnish funds to depositors to assist them in carrying on their legitimate business. Our motto is:

"STRONG AND LIBERAL"—Look us up and if you find us deserving, give us your business.

Seriously Ill.—Mrs. L. A. Steckel, who lives near the Courtney mill, is reported seriously ill.

New Potatoes Lower.—Owing to the increased supply of new potatoes on the local market, the price has dropped from four to three cents per pound. The outlook is for a good crop in this section.

Enterprise In. — The Enterprise came in from Rogue river yesterday.
The crew report that salmon fishing on Rogue river has been very poor this year and that R. D. Hume does not expect to realize enough out of it to pay expenses.

Caught Big Trout.—Mrs. A. E.
Seaman telephoned in from their summer home last evening that she had just landed one of the largest trout that has been taken from the North Coos this season. She caught it near their home, just above the hatchery. The trout was about twenty-one inches long.

Eagles Are Busy.—C. C. Going, C.
A. Howard and Hugh McLain of the local aerie of Eagles are busy completing plans for the proposed club house and home which the organization will build on Sheridan street and also preparing for a Fourth of July celebration or picnic which the members will enjoy at Ten Mile.

Entertains Friends.—Prof. Raymond entertained a few friends at a "Dutch Lunch" at his apartments Sunday, a very enjoyable afternoon and evening being spent. Among the guests were Messrs. Archer, Harry Cohen, Will Lynch, Jack Millett, Earl Murnahan, Ray Mercer, Vince Loren and Robert Dillard.

To Buy School Site.—The new directors of District No. 85, consisting of Bunker Hill and Bay Park additions, are negotiating with the Flanagan estate for the purchase of a small tract between the two additions as a site for the proposed new school. They have not decided yet how much money will be spent on the school.

Former Coos Bay Man.—Roy Mc-Ewan, a brief account of whose death appeared in The Times recently, was a former Coos Bay young man, he having been born and raised here. McEwan who was following the sea died at Honolulu. His mother, now the wife of Dr. D. E.
Biggs of Bellingham, Wash., visited here a few years ago. The family is well-known to all of the older residents.

Ray Kaufman On Vacation.—Ray Kaufman returned today from a trip to his timber claim near Roseburg.
He has spending part of his vacation there, three or four friends from Spokane who have timber claims near his being with him. They saw considerable wild game, running across a big bear one day. All had revolvers and shot at brula with them but were unable to produce any effect. Mr. Kaufman went to Bandon today for a day or two and will return to resume his duties at the First National the latter part of the week.

Expects Many Visitors. — The Oregon & California Coast Steamship Company's liner Alliance brought a full cargo of freight, consisting principally of sashes and doors and other building materials from Marshfield and North Bend mills. Captain Olson reports a great deal of business noticeable in both Coos

Personal Notes

BERT FOLSOM of Coquille, was in Marshfield Monday.

WM. E. HOMME of Cooston, was in Marshfield today on business.

JACK MILLETT and R. A. Mercer have gone to Ten Mile for a few days fishing.

MILES W. BARBER was in Marshfield this morning looking after business interests.

B. H. KERNS of Grand Junction, Colo., is in Marshfield on business.
Mr. Kerns is a mining engineer and is looking over the water proposition of Coos county.

R. W. CHAPMAN of Coquille, manager of the baseball team there, left here today for Portland and other northern points. Before leaving, he is said to have confided to friends that he would return with a bride. A host of friends will be surprised but will unite in congratulations.

MISS MYRTLE DOWNER, who has lived with her aunt and uncle E.
A. May and wife, and has attended High School in Marshfield for the past two years, left on the steamer Alliance for her home in Condon, Ore., where her parents reside.
She carried with her a gorgeous bouquet of Coos Bay roses, the gift of Mrs. Hirst, Mrs. Riggs and Mrs.
Maxton.

GEORGE McCUTCHEON, who was called to his home in Carlton, Yamhill county, a few days ago by a telegram announcing that his father was critically ill writes that the old gentleman died a few hours after he got there. Mr. Mc-Cutcheon, Sr., was still able to recognize him. It will probably be some time before he is able to return to Coos Bay.

EDITOR CRIPPEN of the Coquille Sentinel returned to Coquille this morning after spending a day here. Mr. Crippen says that everything is prospering in Coquille, many new buildings being underway there. It is expected that the Fourth of July celebration in Coquille be the greatest success, the attendance promising to far surpass that of previous celebrations in the valley.

towns, and says that the merchants there expect a larger influx of summer visitors than ever before.—Portland Telegram.

City Council to Meet.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening. The principal matter to come up will be the question of granting a telephone franchise to R. T. Durrett. Some street matters will also be considered, probably.

Fish Is Disabled. — The launch Fish had trouble of its own in crossing in over the bar Saturday. The bar was unusually rough and something went wrong with the Fish's rudder compelling her to give up her tow. After considerable difficulty, she succeeded in crossing in alone.
In consequence of the accident, a party who had arranged for a fishing trip to the halibut bank off the coast yesterday had to postpone the trip.

'C' Avenue Property Owners Meet.
—The owners of property on 'C' street and 'C' avenue met at the office of Hall & Hall last evening, and organized to combat the city's plan of improving that thoroughfare.
Fred. Friedberg was elected president, Arthur Hodgins secretary, and C. A. Pennock treasurer. The Prospect avenue property owners expect to hold a meeting for a similar purpose tomorrow night.

New Ice Box.—C. H. Hall of the Sanitary Meat Market, is installing the first large meat refrigerator ever placed in a Coos county butcher shop. It will be of enormous size and will hold a large quantity of fresh meat of all kinds, keeping them at an even temperature and free from dust or contamination of all kinds making it thoroughly sanitary.
The refrigerator was purchased in Wisconsin and will cost, when completed, close to $1,000.
