WHAT SOCIETY IS DOING

large anchored in the river in front of their home. The floral decorations were profuse and beautiful. At exactly 8:30 o'clock the strains of the wedding march was the signal sound to the assembled guests and the bridal couples took their positions under a beautiful green canopy of myrtle from the center of which a lovely floral wedding bell swung. Rev. Mr. Gordon of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Coquille, performed the service in accordance with the rites of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The brides were beautifully gowned in white and wore wedding veils with wreaths of orange blossoms. The grooms wore the conventional black. The bridesmaids were Misses Lucia and Millie Gould and the groomsmen Herman Edwards and Mr. Baker.

After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served including a generous supply of wedding cake distributed to the assembled guests, of which there were more than one hundred and fifty from all parts of Coos county. Many going from Marshfield in a specially chartered steamer and launches.

The brides are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gould, pioneer residents of Coos county, and have hosts of friends. One of the brides, Miss Georgia and her twin brother George Gould were brought over the trail in boxes swung on the side of a pack horse twenty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff will make their home in Curry county where

Mr. Woodruff has a beautiful country seat and a large estate. Dr. and Mrs. Richmond will take up their home in a handsome residence in Coquille which the Dr. has recently completed and where he is a physician with a large practice.

Both couples were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents from their many friends.

All the members of this happy quartette are well known and highly esteemed by hosts of friends throughout Coos and Curry counties. The brides who have grown to womanhood here have won numerous warm friends by their many womanly graces and admirable qualities of head and heart. The grooms are highly respected in their respective communities as gentlemen of sterling qualities that make for honorable manhood. The Times joins their many friends in wishing that their married life may be as joyous and happy as their wedding eve.

"A Lunch on a Launch" has a lilt and euphony about it suggestive of a popular topical song, and being based on the pleasing termination of what might be termed Coos Bay's musical festival, last week, should be an inspiration to some local poet or song writer. The lunch was given by Prof. and Mrs. Todd to the soloists and members of the chorus of "The Messiah" last Saturday evening on the launch returning from the North Bend production of the oratorio. It proved a very pleasant and enjoyable finale of the week's entertainments.

Young Men Consider

You can spend $15, $18, or $20 tomorrow for a suit and look just as if you were wearing your last year's outfit. It depends on where you buy and what they sell you.

There is considerable of last winter's goods in some retail stores. That's one fact. There is, also, much clothing on the market which has been made recently but possesses nothing distinctly new or different, either in style, pattern or looks. That's another fact.

Every time you buy a new garment, you should get new features; every year brings about great changes, and these ought to be evident to you before you invest. If they're not, press up your old suit, and make it do, or, still better, come and let us show you the correct styles.

PORTRAITS OF FAMOUS WOMEN

MRS. J. WALTER SPALDING.

In the musical life of Italy few Americans are so well known as Mrs. J. Walter Spalding, wife of the millionaire American merchant. The Spaldings occupy the famous Talleyrand palace, one of the show places of Florence. Mrs. Spalding, who was a Chicago girl before her marriage, is a musician of the first class and had she chosen a professional career would undoubtedly have won enduring fame. It is from her that her son, Albert Spalding, whose genius as a violinist has created a furor in Europe, inherits his ability in the art.

Too Many People Regard Marriage as a Picnic.

By the Rev. Father WILLIAM O'BRIEN PARDOW of New York.

THE husband is the head of the home, as Christ is the head of the church. Husbands should love their wives, as Christ loved the church. But do they? In many cases, no.

They don't perceive the sanctity of marriage. THEY LOOK ON IT AS THEY WOULD GOING TO A PICNIC. In the last fifteen years there have been 1,100,000 divorces granted in the United States. Does this look as if the people saw THE HOLY SIDE OF MATRIMONY?

People don't consider enough before marrying. They go into marriage as they would GRAB A REMNANT FROM THE BARGAIN COUNTER in a department store. What will be the result if this sort of thing continues to prevail and if divorce grows in volume? RUIN! The degeneration of all nations has been due to the fall of women.

IF OUR WOMEN ARE CAST OFF WHENEVER IT SUITS THE WILL OF THEIR HUSBANDS, DEGENERATION WILL SET IN, AND WITH THE WOMEN FEELING THAT THEY HAVE NO PROTECTION THE COUNTRY WILL TOTTER. THEN LOVE, THE SACRED BOND OF EVERY HOME, WILL CEASE TO EXIST.
